Republicans Name Candidates in Harmenious Convention at Lincoln.

COUNTY DELEGATES BREAK COMBINATION

Only Jesse Moore of the Prengranged Sinte Manages to Stick-General News of the State.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Aug. 15 .- (Special.) -- In harmonious convention the republicans of Lancaster county this afternoon nominated candidates for county offices and elected a delegation to the state convention, which is urged to support C. J. Ernst of this city for regent of the University of Nebraska. The by which the county was to get one of the three principal offices, went through the convention without a hitch. The combination made last night by Baird, Moore and Parker was demolished by the battering of the country delegates. The second man, Jesse Moore, succeeded in aligning himself Seward at 9 o'clock this morning to attend with the winning element, while the others the tenth annual logrolling picnic of the were defeated. The ticket named is as fol-

Repairing Sloup's Damage.

To W. J. O'Brien, superintendent of the state fish hatcheries at South Bend, has been delegated the onerous task of repairing the damages done the state property by the administration of his populist predecessor, an Omaha saloon keeper Vigorous weeds, battered furniture and a depleted stock of fish were found to comprise the assets placed to the credit of the state when Sloup was pried An enumeration by Mr. O'Brien showed the following stock of fish on hand: Gold fish, 145; perch, 4; black bass, 75; crappies, 36; rock bass, 10; stock trout, These, together with 3,000 young trout, unfit for breeding purposes for at least two years, and 500 2-year-old trout showed the entire number on hand.

It is reported that notwithstanding the small quantity on hand at least one member of the fish commission made requisttion on the former superintendent just before his retirement for a large quantity of fish to stock his private fish ponds and received a considerable supply, much more than the stock on hand would warrant, though much less than he intended to se-

When Governor Poynter appointed Sloup he took him right from behind the bar of his saloon at Fourteenth and William streets, Omaha, and placed him in charge of the hatchery. Sloup had no knowledge of fish and, in fact, was frank and honest enough to tell the governor so, but he was backed by a rapacious element of the democracy in Douglas county, which demanded his appointment, and with whom, owing to what was regarded as an inequitable allotment of the spotls of office. Governor Poynter was in disfavor, and in spite of his self-protested incompetency Sloup was appointed superintendent. Sloup knew just enough about the fish business to know that he did not know anything and he confined his labors to looking wise. drawing his pay of $100 a month and expenses, while the fish were evicted and de-

EDUCATIONAL. Domestic Science

The Sisters of Mercy cordially invite the ladies of Omaha who desire to take lessons in Housekeeping, Cooking and Dressmaking, to join the classes to be established in connection with their Academies on the beginning of the session in September. Special arrangements will be made for those desiring private instructions. Evening classes will also be formed. The classes in Housekeeping and Cooking will be taught by Mrs. Harriet MacMurphy. The Sisters take pleasure in assuring their many kind patrons that dresses will be cut, fitted and made with an elegance to satisfy the most artistic and at moderate prices. Engagements may be made at ST. CATHERINE'S ACADEMY, 18th and Cass Sts, and at MOUNT ST. MARY'S SEMINARY, 15th and Castellar Sts.
