O. O. Whedon Asks for Rehearing of Tex Commissioner Case.

CATTLE AS A VINDICATION

VanBaren Hopes It Will Acquit Him of Charge of Cattle Rustling-General News

of Nebraska.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Aug. 19.-(Special.)-There will be another legal controversy over the office of tax commissioner and the logality of the tity charter. C. O. Whedon, acting in behalf of a local corporation, instituted quo warranto proceedings several monthes ago and the supreme court decided against him on every objection he raised with a view of preme court clerk for a rehearing.

Mr. Whedon insists that the court in the the law was void because of the uncertainty to wash. of some of its clauses. For instance, the law names the commissioner as the assessor of the city and then empowers him to name ave deputies not to assist him but to actually do the assessing. The law, he claims, appoints an officer and then furnishes other officers to do his work. Again it does not say whether the commissioners shall act separately or together in assessing the city On several minor points he takes issue with the supreme court commissioners. He insists that some of the premises of the court are immaterial and fereign to the question at hand. He disputes the assertion of the court that equality of taxation means uniformity within the same taxing

The court in the opinion declares that the city charter is in legal accord with the general revenue law upon which it is based. The courts maintain that to annul the Lincoin charter would be to wipe out every revenue statute in operation in the state as well as the Omaha city charter, from which the tax commissioner section of the Lincoin charter was copted.

Among attorneys, the course of Mr. Whedon awakens considerable surprise. The decision of the court was broad and sweeping, they declare, not a single contention of Mr. Whedon being unheld.

meant that Timothy should drink real wine

"Our Bible students," said Dr. Andrews,

'have tried to prove that the wine spoken of in the Bible was not real wine, but this is not true. Wine means wine, both in the little wine. Do not regard Paul as intemdanger then than now from intemperance.

Dr. Andrews declared that while a little alcohol might not be injurious, total abstinence was the best and safest rule for most people. He said that the strenuous life of the present time was intoxicating
