United States of America, District of Nebraska, ss.:

Whereas, A libel has been filed in the district court of the United States for the district of Nebraska, on the 30th day of July, 1901, by Caleb Hailey as libellant in a cause of tort, civil and maritime, against the steamboat "Jacob Richtman," her apparel, tackle and furniture, and praying the usual process and monition of the court that all persons interested in said steamboat, her tackle, apparel, machinery and furniture, may be cited to appear and answer the premises, and all due proceedings being had, that said steamboat may be decreed to be sold, and the proceeds thereof distributed according to law.

Therefore, in pursuance of said monition under the seal of said court, to me directed and delivered on the 31st day of July, 1901. I do hereby give notice generally unto all persons having or pretending to have any right, title or interest in said steamboat, called the "Jacob Richtman," her mackle, apparel, machinery and furniture, to appear before the said court in the city of Omaha, in said district, on the 2d day of September, 1801, next (if it be a court day, or else on next court day thereafter), at 10 o'clock forenoon of said day, then and there to answer the said libel, and to make known their allegations in that behalf.

Dated at Omaha in said district this 7th day of August, A. D. 190.

United States Marshal for the District of Nebraska.

Dated at Omaha in said district of AugsDibt.

(Should be read DAILY by all interested, as changes may occur at any time.)
