Investigating Chicago Detectives.

Investigating Chicage Detectives. CHICAGO, Aug. 26.-The civil service com-mission will begin its investigation of the city detective bureau this afternoon, hold-ing its sessions in the city council cham-ber. The specific charge to me inquired into will be that Lieutenant Joyce and Ser-geants Tracy and Cramer collected from the state of Illinois 375 as expenses for bringing a prisoner named Larkin back from Cleveland. The matter really goes further than this, however, and it is the purpose of Acting Mayor Walker and Su-perintendent of Police O'Connell to uncover the entire workings of the detective bureau

Cardinal Gibbons in Baltimore.

Cardinal Gibbons in Baltimore. BALTIMORE, Aug. 25.—Cardinal Gibbons reached home this afternoon after a tour of Europe and was received with open arms by his friends and parishioners. When he alighted he was greeted by a crowd of at least 10.000 people, headed by Acting Mayor Henry Williams and Charles J. Bonaparte. The cardinal dismounted from his carriate and reviewed the procession from the it is of the Catholic club, opposite his residence, after which he addressed a congregation that filled the venerable cathedral to the doors.

At Delmar Park. Today's sport at Delmar park was char-acterized by spectacular finishes and the setting of a new track record for the six and a half furiongs. The Wag, at 5 to 1, came within an ace of defeating Lord Ne-ville, the odds-on favorite in the first event. Zazel, Eleven Bells and Sath Coat, finished heads apart in the third race in the order named after a flerce duel the en-tire length of the stretch. The distinctive feature of the card was the fourth event. A sprint at six and a half furiongs, which brought five speedy ones to the post. Peaceful was made a pronibilive favorite and on his recent form seemed to have the race at his mercy. The winner, however, turned up in Jim Clark, the strongly-played second choice, who won galloping in 120%, a new track record for the dis-tance. Peaceful was second, a length and a half away, with Verify a bang-up third. O'Brien rode three winners. Track fast. Briet race, seven furiongs, selling: Lord
