FREIGHT CARS RUN WILD DOWN A HILL

Crash Into a Coach on Great Northern -Wreck Catches Fire and Bodies of Most of Killed Are Cremated.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 31.-General Superintendent T. Edward gave the Associ-ated Press the following statement of the ispell:

The accident occurred at 8:30 p. m. August 30, at Essex, Mont. Eighteen cars broke loose from the rear end of a freight train and ran down the full sixteen miles to Nyack station, where it overtook passenger train No. 3, which was just starting out from the station. In the collision P. 1. Downs, assistant general superintendent, in charge of lines west of Minot, N. D., was killed, together with his son, Kirk. Downs, his cook, Henry Biair, and about twenty-hve laborers, who were moving west, were in a coach attached to the rear of the train. None of the regular passengers on the train was injured. The wreck took fire and the remains of all except five of those killed were burned. It is therefore not known positively how many fatalities resulted. In addition to those killed twelve laborers and tratemans.

He was made assistant superintendent July 1, 1896, which he held for six months, when he was made assistant superintendent of the Atlanta & West Point railway and the Western Railway of Alabama, at Atlanta. In September, 1899, he was appointed superintendent of the same roads, which position he held until November, 1899. At this time he came to the Great Northern, being made assistant general superintendent December 11, 1899, for the Great Northern lines west of Minot, N. D. WILLIAM K WINS THE CUP Young Vanderbilt Makes Fast Time on Automobile in Competition with Foxhall Keene.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 31.—The automo-blie races held by the National associa-tion were run off at the half-mile track at Aquidneck park this afternoon. Wil-bile races held by the National association were run off at the half-mile track at Aquidneck park this afternoon. William K. Vanderbilt, jr., president of the organization, was altogether the star performer of the day. He drove his own machine in four races, made the best time on the track and won the championship cup. Fully 7,000 people went to the track. It was a notable society function and nearly every prominent family living here was represented.

In all there were sixteen races, but the one attracting the most interest was that between young Mr. Vanderbilt, in his new German racer of thirty-five-horse power, and Foxhall Keene, in a machine of fully sixty-horse power. Each had won preliminary heats. Mr. Vanderbilt quickly shot ahead at the start and at the end of the first lap was all of an eighth of a mile ahead. Alded by a very clever chaffeur, who at the sharp turns took every chance and leaned far in with only a small strap to support him, Mr. Vanderbilt added to his lead in the first mile. He was 56 seconds at the mile. His third half-mile was made in 41 seconds, the fastest lap of the meeting. Half way over the course he had Mr. Keene surely beaten, barring accident, and finished the five miles in fine form, a winner in 7 minutes and 36 seconds, the fastest five miles of the day.

The last event of the day was the champlonship for the winners of all classes, ten miles, or twenty times around the track. This Mr. Vanderbilt handly won in 15 minutes and 23, seconds. A noteworthy competitor was Kenneth Skinner on a motor tricycle, who was second, covering the ten miles in 17 minutes and 25 seconds.

Trusts Don't Go in Nebraska

The people of this state are protected from the curse of combines by stringent laws on our statute books

It is not generally known that a drug trust exists in Omaha, but such is the fact. We have all felt the effect of the coal and the ice combine and now we have a drug combine. The public will remember the fight that was made against the earlier efforts of the drug trust in 1898 by some of our local dealers, the result being the overthrow of the trust. In that fight the druggists who stood out were aided in their efforts, not only by the good will, but by the generous patronage of this entire community. Strange as it may appear one of the former anti-trust leaders in that fight is now the president of the local drug combine. We believed then, and we still feel that the public has an absolute right to the benefit of unrestricted competition, and that we should eajoy the privilege of entering av open market to purchase goods. This the combine seeks to deny to the public and to us. It has arbitrarily said you must advance the prices on certain articles to those fixed by the combine. We appealed to reason and fair dealing and insisted that the public had a right to demand the benefit of a competitive market. We were told that all the dealers in Omaha, except our selves, had agreed to the prices as fixed by the association, and that we could either comply of go out of business. After due deliberation we have concluded to de neither, and we so informed the trust, feeling confident that we are amply protected by the public, who have so generously patronized us in the past, receiving in return the benefit of our reduced prices The first step towards carrying out its threat was notice to the job bers that we refused to enter into the combine or to be bound by the prices it had fixed; which notification was promtly met by the obbers positively refusing to sell us any article used by us in our business. Two days later we were advised that the embargo was raised on drugs, but we could buy no proprietary medicine, stating that while they regretted the necessity of taking such action, yet having been "locally advised" that we refused to raise our prices they must act in this wise or lose the trade of those in the combine. When we refused to be coerced by the action of the jobbers we were informed by the trust that if we do not comply with its demands it would retaliate by reducing prices below the cost price and thus ruin our business. We simply say in reply we have heard

We were truly surprised that the jobbers of drugs in Omaha should seek to aid the local combine by refusing to sell us their goods, and we hesitated before making this announcement to the pub-We feel, however, that we have an absolute right to buy in an open market and that the public has the same right. We believe that the action of the local association of druggists and of the jobbers is unfair to us, that it is unfair to the public that they should be compelled to buy such indispensable articles as drugs as they buy coal at an absolute and fixed price. We believe that the action of the drug trust is in direct violation of the statutes of this state and that each member of the combine is liable to the penalties prescribed for a violation of the anti-trust law. Believing as we do we shall deal with the public in the future as in the past. We will give you the benefit of the lowest possible prices, which are consistent with sound business principles. We ask you in return to aid us by your patronage in our efforts to oppose the encroachments of the trust,

The above is a very brief statement of what has occurred in the city of Omaha in drug circles within the past week. It is current and to the public most important history.

Captain Sigsbee Publishes Report of Advance in Work by Foreign Powers.

Completed Much Sooner Than Expected-England Leads in Amount of Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.-Captain Charles D. Sigsbee, chief of the Office of Naval Intelligence, has made public that bureau's, publication entitled "Notes on Naval Progress," which sets forth in a complete way the advance that has been made in naval work among the foreign navies. A noteworthy statement is that the new German battle fleet will be practically complete when the vessels laid down in 1905 are completed, instead of in 1916 as formerly proposed. Vessels laid down after 1905 will be either for foreign service or the non-active fleet, To give an idea of the fighting strength of the seven principal navies of the world, a table is submitted, showing the following total of tonnage of ships built, building and to be built: England, 1,766,855; France, 781.065; Russia, 552,546; United States, 507,-494; Germany, 458,482; Italy, 322,707; Japan,

Naval appropriations for the present fiscal year are stated as follows: England, $149,755,620, an increase of over $10,000,000 as compared with last year; France, $63,-244,658; Russia, $50,005,297, an increase of over $5 000,000; Germany, $46,822,732; Italy, $23,703,595; Japan, $18,557,633, and Spain. $3.860,000 to be devoted almost exclusively to ship building.

The Smart Set: Once there were some very swagger people in an ultra village not far from the metropolis who decided that no society yet bunched together was exclusive enough for them. Even the Colonial Dames failed to meet the requirements. So they determined to start a new aggregation that should be the real thing. After considerable thought they concluded that if they limited membership to direct descendants of Fernando de Soto it would be sufficiently exclusive for their
