State Treasurer-Convict Escapes from Prison and is Soon Retaken.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 3 .- (Special.) - With an attendance variously estimated between 5,000 and 10,000, the state fair managers were jubilant this evening and declared that with continued fair weather the exposition would be a record-breaker. While there were many visitors as early as Sunday afternoon and over 1,000 yesterday, the fair did not really begin until this morning. Then the excursion trains began to arrive opened and a regular program followed.

At 11 o'clock the Pawnee City band gave and at night there was a concert by the band at the auditorium.

Fully a score of counties have attractive exhibits Among those making an excellent showing are: Saline, Cheyenne, Merrick, Cuming, York, Hitchcock, Thomas, Dundy, Brown, Burt, Gage, Washington and Lancaster. Agricultural products make the most attractive part of these displays and indicate wealth in the way of farm products.

Immediately on entering the grounds the fish exhibit attracts the attention of the visitors. Game Warden Simpkins has charge of this display and in company with Fish Commissioner O'Brien, has succeeded in placing in the tanks of the fisheries building specimens of nearly all the fishes common in the waters of the state. The water supply this year is excellent and no fish will be lost on account of a salty bath. as was the case last year. All day long the visitors poured through the building and seemed delighted with the exhibit.

State Farm Has a Wing.

The State university farm has an entire wing on the east side of the agricultural building. In this it is showing the people of the state the nature of the work it is doing. The chemical department has a laboratory fitted up for the analysis of soil, milk and sugar beets. Tests will be made different ingredients are shown. The soil analysis department has prepared about sample of a soil and its ingredient parts. Another section shows thirty-six different products that can be made from Nebraska corn. Glucose in various stages of refinement, corn oil expressed from corn by great pressure, the residue, known as corn oil cake which ground up is known as germ oil meat and gluten food, are some of the products. Corn starch is shown in various stages and vulcanized corn oil made by adding sulphur to corn oil are others. The effect of tuberculosis on animals is made the subject of an exhibit of special interest just now owing to the discussion current about the contagious character of that disease. Some samples of the poisonous sorgum which is causing considerable trouble among cattlemen are on exhibition The contest of the volunteer fire department was won by the York team, which made a 250-yard dash, laid 150 feet of hose and coupled with nozzle in 321/2 seconds. This feat lowered the state record of 33 4-5, just finished threshing seventy acres of held by Grand Island. The Havelock, Uni- wheat, says it yielded forty-four bushels fused to enter the race.
