It was reported that M. K. McMullin, a well known Fourth avenue broker, had been selected as the stakeholder. When asked about the matter tonight Mr. McMullin disclaimed all knowledge of the bet. A flood parts of the world arrived at the Hotel Schenley for Mr. Kingsley yesterday inquiring about it. In some instances the bet was denounced. Ready with More Cash.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—J. Montgomery Smart of the Pacific Exchange received a telegram this afternoon from J. H. Kingsley, agent of the English syndicate which placed $150,000 on Shamrock at Pittsburg today, saying he was ready with another $150,000 at the same odds or half that sum. Mr. Smart communicated with the Broadway broker who arranged the former wager and has since put up $10,000 against $8,000 that Shamrock will not lift the cup.

Lipton Challenger Has Another Go at Sea and Acquits Itself Magnificently.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3 .- With its owner, designer, builder, manager and sailmaker on board, the yacht Shamrock II sailed its seventh trial race today off Sandy Hook and the highlands of Navesink. Although at times there was not more than a threeknot sir, at no time did the yacht act sluggishly. It slipped through the water at an amazingly good rate of speed under influence of its great mainsail and light sails. NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The rifle ship ers who represent the National guard of the District of Columbia are running away with the team matches at the Sea G.it. N. J., rifle ranges. Today they added two more victories to their credit by winning the interstate regimental and company matches. In the regimental and company matches. In the regimental matches they were followed by the team from the Thisteenth Canadian infantry and the Tweltth regiment of New York. Each of these teams had a total of 540, but the Canadians' score at the 591 yards range gave evidence of extraordinary marksmarship. Private Skedden made a "possible" and he was cloisely followed by Major Mason and Lieutenant Ross, each of whom scored 41. Major Mason had not shot in two years and entered simply to make up the team. In the company team match thire we eleven entries. The first team of Company A. Sixth battalion of the District of Columbia won this event with the score of 308. Battery B of Boston was next with 251 and the Prist City troop of Philadelphia was third with a total of 25.

Restrains Bookmakers.

ST. LOUIS. Sept. 3.—In the circuit court today Judge Zachritz issued a temporary injunction restraining bookmakers at Delmar race track from operating further without a license. The injunction was issued on the application of Atterney General Crowe, who declared that the license under which they were operating was tilegal and that another could not be issued under the Breeders law. No date for a hearing has been set, but the case will come up for argument in the natural course of events at the October term of court. The Deltaar track officials had intended to keep the track open until September 26.
