DES MOINES, Sept. 5 .- (Special Telegram.)-Omaha went up against an amateur pitcher from Winterset today and was ladly worsted. Ward, who had never been heard of here before, pitched a fast game pitcher from Winterset today and was tadly worsted. Ward, who had never been heard of here before, pitched a fast game and was supported admirably, especially by Callaban, who played a remarkable game. Only once did Omaha get a man to third base, and that was in the third inning. Omaha played poor ball in the field and the pitching was as had as that of yesterday. Coons started out exactly as on the day before, but he did not pitch out the first inning. Six hits and six runs were made off him. McQuade got a double, Thiel a hunt hit Wasser four balls. Hinse made off him. McQuade got a double. Thiel a bunt hit, Warner four balls, Hines struck out. Werden scored Thiel, O'Leary scored Warner, Callahan got a single and on Genins' bad throw to the homeplate Kelly, 15. 6 11 Werden scored. Kleinow got a single and scored two. Then Alloway went into the AMERICAN TEAMS WHACK UP Washington and Chicago Split Even on Their Double Header on Latter's Grounds.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—The Washington and Chicago Americans split even on their double-header today, the locals winning the first game in the eighth on two singles and first game in the eighth on two singles and an error. Two gifts, an error and a single started Washington off with three runs in the second game; three passes, a single and two doubles giving the Chicagos five in their half. Patten then steadied and pitched a good game. A little wildness and two hits gave Washington two in the seventh and two errors and two hits tied the score in the eighth. A base on balls, Dungan's triple and an out added two more in the ninth, Attendance, 4,600. Score:

CHICAGO. Sept. 5.—All of the magnates of the American league except Charles Somers of Boston met here today. It was decided to have a team in St. Louis next spring, but the question of what team to transfer was left open. The idea of soing into Pittsburg has been given up and the New York proposition is left for future reference. New York proposition is left for future reference.

The question of a change to 50-cent ball was discussed, but no action was taken. A black list was created and upon it were placed the names of the eight National league players who, after signing with the American last spring, jumped back to the older organization. These men are: Christ e, Mathewson. Dincen, the Boston pitcher: Rogers, Denser and Luther Taylor, pitchers of the New York team, Victor Willis of the Bostons, Davis of the Pittsburgs, Sheckard of the Brooklyns and Emmett Heidrick of St. Louis.

BRACES TO MEET NEBRASKA Wisconsin Sees Need of Putting Its Best Men Into This

MILWAUKEE. Sept. 5.—(Special Telegram.)—The University of Nebraska, which has been coming into prominence in football, is to be given a game this year by Wisconsin. While this game will not be one of the championship series, for a midseason game it promises to be an exceptionally good one. The game to be played with Wisconsin will be in the middle of the training season, before the Wisconsin team has fully rounded into form, and the contest will undoubtedly be a close one and will necessitate that Wisconsin go into the game with a team of regulars prepared to necessitate that Wisconsin go into the game with a team of regulars prepared to play their best to win.

Compared with the Beloit game, which is to be played in Milwaukee this year, the Nebraska contest will call forth the effor a of Wisconsin's best men, whereas the Beloit game allows the management a chance to give the "scrubs" an opportunity to make good. make good.

UNIQUE GAME OF CRICKET Strangely Matched Contest is Scheduled by Amsteur Athletic Association. '

Saturday afternoon a cricket game of atransely matched participants will occur at the cricket grounds of the Omaha Amateur Athletic association. The base ball team of the club is to meet the cricket team, but both aggregations will play at team, but both aggregations will play at cricket, not at base ball. It would seem that this would hardly be a fair match and it is not intended to be. After the experience of the cricket elever with Sloux City cricketers the base hall men feel like taking a friendly shot at their club mates, and so have challenged them to contest at their own, game. It will be made a josh event, as well as a social one.

TRAIL LEADS TOWARD TEXARKANA

Newspaper Man in Sheriff's Posse Finds Where Six Horses Left the Woods-One Killed at Red Water.

TEXARKANA, Ark., Sept. 5.-The six men who robbed the Cotton Belt train at Eylau Tuesday night are still at large. The bloodhounds which were taken to the scene were of no service as the trail was dead. The trail of the robbers was struck by

W. H. Ward, a Texarkana newspaper men, and a member of the sheriff's posse. Ward was accompanied by Yardmaster Taylor of the Cotton Belt. The men discovered where a horse had been hidden near the company's fence and where a heavy bag of booty is supposed to have been loaded. Ward and Taylor, by the use of a lantern, followed the trail several hundred yards and found where six horses had been tied. They kept the trail until it ran past an old millsite through a blind trail, which was abandoned several years ago. For several miles they followed the blinds trail until it entered the main country road and it was shown that the horsemen headed for Texarkana. Ward and Taylor were ex hausted and returned to the main posse. When they reported the entire posse returned here and the trail was abandoned. One of the horses known to have been used by the robbers was found by Ward and Taylor, it being the property of a negro. From his house the first start toward the capture of the men who are believed to be implicated was made, News reaches here tonight that the agent at Red Water, seven miles below the scene of the robbery, shot a man who is believed to be one of the bandits. The entire county
