FAVORITE BONNER IS TURNED DOWN

Promptness is to Be the Watchword and Races Are to Go with Real Nebraska Vim and Vigor -Entries for Today.

A blaring band, a busy betting ring, scores of fast horses, a good track and a fair crowd combined to make the opening day of the running meet at the Exposition park a success in every sense of the word. The only possible fault that could be found was that the program dragged somewhat, owing to the general turmoil and confusion of first day, but the officials promise that from now on throughout the meet promptness shall be the chiefest virture.

The Omaha derby, the third race, was the feature event of the afternoon and the entries for it comprised easily the best field of starters shown during the day. It was for a mile, and in addition to first money the winning jockey was given an elaborate satin racing suit of jacket and cap in Ak-Sar-Ben colors. Robert Bonner, a favorite of the early summer at the five days' meet in June, was a prominent entry and the best known horse of the five which started. He was quoted the favorite at 1 to 2 and was bought freely at the price. However, the field left Bonner at the start and it looked for a time as though be were out of the race. But Berry had the

This will give the Great Western a line reaching as far as Fort Dodge and easily available either from St.

Paul or the east, toward Omaha and Sioux City. The latter links are to be built. Upon their completion, the Chicago Great Western will take the Mason City & Fort Dodge from the syndicate under a 100-year traffic agreement, exchanging its own stock for that secured by the syndicate and operate it as a part of its system. The exchange will be share for share. The 134 miles of connections to Hampton, Ia., and Manly Junction will be completed this year. The Sioux City and Omaha extensions, 256 miles, will be built next year. President Stickney states that with the extensions built and the plan carried to completion every mile of the system, except three branches aggregating only twenty-one miles, will be a carrier of through traffic This means that the earning power of the system will be increased in even greater proportion than its mileage.
