CITY WILL ARANDON ALL THINGS ELSE

Business and Traffic to Cease During the Ceremonies - Services at Washington Are

(Continued from First Page.)

1 2

minutes. The program is not entirely arranged for the services, but they will be simple—a discourse by Rev. C. E. Man-chester of the First Methodist church, a prayer by Rev. C. B. Milligan of the Presbyterian church and a scripture reading by some clergyman not yet selected. A quartet, composed of Mrs. W. H. Smith. Miss Rachael Frease, F. J. Melbourne and Ralph Brown, will sing "Lead, Kindly Light" and a second quartet, composed of Miss Hattie Levinger, Fannie Levinger. Jeanette Bayhof and Katharine Bachrens, will sing. The music to be sung by this quartet had not been selected tonight.

At the conclusion of the service in the church the slow march to the cemetery will be taken up. The casket will be placed in the receiving vault, but before upon supports standing upon the stone walk leading to the vault. This will be for the purpose of allowing those who have taken part in the parade and who have been prevented by their duties from being present in the courthouse to have an opportunity of viewing the body. If the present program is carried out the casket will remain on the walk outside the vault from the inspection of the general public. one to two hours.

When finally placed inside the vault a guard will be thrown around it and day and night until its final resting place is prepared it will be surrounded by armed men. As yet there has been no great influx of visitors into Canton, but the flood will flow

At 10 o'clock this morning not a room could be had in any of the hotels and there chaff. A terrible congestion on the capis considerable apprehension on the part itol steps and at the entrance door followed. of the citizens that it may be impossible to provide all with sleeping quarters. Pro- fifteen injured were taken into the capvisions have been made for them with itol in the room adjoining the rotunda, meals, but it is expected a large number where the remains of the president lay in of people will be compelled to walk the calm and peaceful repose. It is estimated streets all of Thursday night.

night declaring that between the hours of of them were able to go to their homes. 10 a. m. and 9 p. m. on Wednesday no A few were taken to the emergency hospitraffic vehicles, automobiles or bicycles shall tal. be allowed on those streets which are to be used by the funeral cortege. The same proclamation asks that all business shall be closed Wednesday and Thursday. The police are taking every precaution against dangerous crowding and tomorrow morning and dearest to her that she should not unropes will be stretched around the house dergo the ordeal her attendance would enand wherever else it may be needed.

ALL WASHINGTON IN TEARS loving thoughtfulness could suggest.

Last Rites for William McKinley Touch the Heart of the City He Honored.

William McKinley speeds toward his last the nation's dead. As the hours passed resting place in Canton, O., after the nation had officially and with state ceremony paid this discomfort tens of thousands, of sorits tribute of respect and love to the mem- rowing people appeared early upon the ory of its stricken chief magistrate.

This was almost the closing act in the awful tragedy, which has drenched the civil- massed with an impenetrable cordon of white dome of the capitol, funeral services of state were held today over the dead. ident. It was eminently fitting that the services should be conducted in that beautiful rotunds, hallowed by the history of the last and rites of two other martyrs to the cause of the republic. As befitted the occasion the services were simple. They were conducted in accordance with the rites of the Methodist Episcopal church, of which President McKinley was a life long member. Consisting of only two hymns, a song, a prayer, an address and a benediction, they were beautiful and solemnly im## pressive. Nations Mingle Tears.

Gathered around the bier were representatives of every phase of American national life, including the president and the only surviving ex-president, including the representatives at this capital of almost every nation on earth. Great Britain, France. Germany, Italy and Spain and all the republics to the southward of the United States mingled their tears with those of the American people

Despite the fact that no attempt had been made to decorate the interior of the rotunda beyond the arrangements made about the catafalque the passage presented a recognized, too, their new president, upon memorable sight. The somber black of the whom the responsibilities of chief executive civilians was splashed with the blue and had been thrust so unexpectedly. gold of the army and the navy and the silence they greeted him, and with them court coatumes of the diplomatic corps. As he mingled his tears with sorrow for the disease that a person entirely free from this diagusting complaint is seldom met with. It is customary to speak of Catarrh as nothing more serious than a bad cold, a simple inflammation of the nose and throat. It is, in fact, a complicated and very dangerous disease; if not at first, it

Very soon becomes so.

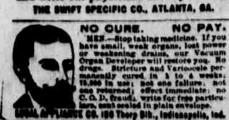

The blood is quickly contaminated by the foul secretions, and the poison through the general circulation is carried to all parts of the system.

Salves, washes and sprays are unsatisfactory and disappointing, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does. It cleanses the blood of the poison and eliminates from the system all catarrhal secretions, and thus cures thoroughly and permanently the worst cases.

If you have Catarrh don't wait until it becomes deep-scated and chronic, but be-gin at once the use of S. S. S., and send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases nd write our physicians about your case.

the sweet notes of President McKinjey' favorite hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light, floated through the great rotunda the assemblage rose to its feet. Bared heads bowed and eyes streamed with tears. At the conclusion of the hymn, as Rev. Dr. Taylor, presiding elder of the Washington district, rose to offer prayer, the hush that fell upon the people was profound. When in conclusion, he repeated the Lord's prayer the great audience joined him. The murmur of voices resembled nothing less than the roll of far distant surf.

"Sometime We'll Inderstand."

Scarcely had the word amen been breathed when the liquid tone of that sweetly pleading song, "Some Time We'll Understand," went straight to the heart of every auditor. The solo was sung by Mrs. Thomas C. was echoed and re-echoed by the double quartet choir

The senerable Bishop Edwin G. Andrews of Ohio, the oldest bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, then took his posttion at the head of the bier. A gentle breeze stirred the delicate blooms which lay on the coffin and the "peace that passeth all understanding" seemed to rest on but his whole heart was in every one of cial escort of Frank Hecker of Detroit. them. His tribute to the Christian fortitude of the dead president was impressive. Upon the conclusion of the sermon the audience, as if by prearrangement, joined the choir in singing "Nearer, My God, to tt is placed inside the casket will be rested Thee." All present seemed imbued with a sentiment of hallowed resignation as the divine blessing was asked by Rev. W. H. ing and the dead.

As soon as the rotunda was cleared those who had been invited to attend the religious services the bier was prepared for Women Faint in Crush. The opening of the doors of the rotunda caused a rush of the vast throng that had been congregated on the east side of the building since early morning. The result was that many women and children were trampled and badly hurt. The crowd brushed by the police cordon stationed at the foot of the steps as if it had been As soon as order was restored twelve or that no fewer than fifty women and chil-Mayor Robinson issued a proclamation to- dren were injured to some extent, but most

Mrs. McKinley Not There.

Mrs. McKinley, bereft of husband and prostrated by her overwhelming sorrow. It was deemed wise by those now nearest tall on her. She remained at the White House, comforted by every attention that Arrangements for the moving of the funeral cortege from the White House to the capitol had been completed last night. Yesterday was a perfect autumn day, but this morning dawned gray and dreary. The sky was overcast with low flying clouds. Na-WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.-The body of ture itself seemed to be in mourning for dashes of rain fell at intervals, but despite streets. Both sides of Pennsylvania avenue from the White House to the capitol were in tears. Beneath the great people, wishing in this way to pay final trib-

As the funeral cortege, escorted by troops representing every department of the nation's martial service, and by representatives of religious and civic organizations passed down the broad thoroughfare to the solemn notes of the Dead march from Saul wailed by the bands, the sorrowing people bared their heads despite the rain and many tear-stained faces bespoke their griefs more eloquently than words. It was a silent throng. With aching hearts all remembered that only a few months ago the dead president, then in the fullness of life and triumph, had passed along that same thoroughfare to be inaugurated a second time

The flags that had fluttered greeting to him in March were furled and crepebedecked in September. The cheers of spring became the sobs of autumn. Grief had usurped the place of joy. As with solemn and cadenced tread the procession moved down the avenue the people recognized as one of the mourners the former president, Grover Cleveland, who had come to pay his tribute to his successor. They Greatness Grieves for Greatness. Among the hundreds of other distinguished persons in attendance on the fuieral service were Governor Gregory of Rhode Island, Governor Yates of Illinois, Governor Hill of Maine, Governor Crane of Massachusetts, Governor Aycock of North Carolina, Governor White of West Virginia, Governor Stickney of Vermont and Governor Vorhees of New Jersey. Colonel Stone represented the governor of California and Colonel A. C. Kauffman of Charleston represented Governor McSweeney of South Carolina and conveyed the governor's regrets that he was unable peronally to attend,

The diplomatic corps was represented in part as follows: Wu Ting Fang, Chinese minister: Mr. Takahira, Japanese minister: Senor Calvo, Costa Rican minister; Mr. Aspiriz, the Mexican ambassador; Chirib Bey, furkey minister; Mr. Leger, Haytien minister; Mr. Gerard Lowther, charge d'affaires had specially commanded to participate in tional life. the services as his personal representative; Captain Louis Bailey of the royal navy, who represented the British embassy; Mr. De Margerie, ex-charge d'affaires of the French embassy, who was designated by President Loubet to act as his personal representative at the obsequies of the president; Senor Pulido, Venezuelan charge l'affaires; Mr. Brun, Danish minister; Santo Thyrso, Portuguese minister; Duke d'Arcos, panish minister, and Mr. Grip, Swedish Justices and Congressmen. Among others present were: Chief Justice Fuller and Assistant Justices of the Supreme Court Brewer, White, Gray and Brown: Senators Hanna and Foraker of Ohio, Allison and Dolliver of lows. Clapp and Neison of Minnesota, Cullom and Eason of Illinois, Platt and Depew of New York, Mallory of Florida, Tillman of South Carolina, Gallinger of New Hampshire, Platt of Connecticut, Fairbanks of Indiana, Frye of Maine. Spencer of Wisconsin, McCumber of North Dakota and Daniel of Virginia; representatives Taylor of Ohio, Dayton of West Virginia, Ruper, Cummings and Alexander of New York, McCleary, Tawney, Heatwole, Stevens and Fletcher of Minne-sota, Jenkins and Babcock of Wisconsin, Burke of South Dakota, Long of Kansas, Kitchen of North Carolina, Cannon of Illinots. Steel and Robinson of Indiana, Burepport. Butler and Dalzell of Pennsylvania. loy of Missouri, William Alden Smith of Michigan, Burton and Grosvenor of Ohio. Berry of Kentucky, Loudenslager of New Jersey and Wachter of Maryland.

Department Officials. All the members of the cabinet, Assistant Secretary of the Navy Hackett, Assistant Secretary of War Sanger and many other prominent department officials, Admiral Devey, Rear Admirals Schley, Nelville Ramsay, Robley D. Evans and Crowinshield, General John R. Brooks, commander of the Department of the East: General Fitzhugh Lee and many other distinguished officers of the army and navy; former Senator Gorman of Maryland, George B. Cartelyou, sec retary to the late president; former Secre-The solo was sung by Mrs. Thomas C. tary Alger, former Attorney General Noyes of this city, the beautiful refrain Griggs, B. E. McFarland, president of the board of district commissioners; J. P. Morgan, New York: John Kasson, former spe cial reciprocity commissioner, and Pension

Commissioner Evans. The Knights of Templars were repre sented by Grand Junior Warden Frank Thomas of this city. Among the prominent women present were: Mrs. Garrett A. Bradford, Nelville, Bowle and Farquar, Hobart, widow of former Vice President the venerable man's countenance as he be. Hobert, who was escorted by her son, and gan his culogy of the life and works of Mrs. Russell A. Alger, wife of the former William McKinley. His words were simple secretary of war, who was under the spe-

Fifty-Five Thousand Pass. At the conclusion of the funeral services in the rotunda the casket lid was removed in order that the immediate friends of the dead president might be afforded the comfort of a last glance at his features and the people whom he loved and who loved Chapman, acting paster of the Metropolitan him might pass the bier. At 12:30 the Methodist Episcopal church, upon the liv- procession began to pass through the rotunda and during the six hours the body was lying in state it is estimated 55,000 persons viewed it.

of people had been massed in front of the capitol awaiting an opportunity to enter the rotunds. When the doors opened tens of thousands of people rushed frantically to the staircase. Police and military guards there was a crush at the foot of the great staircase. The immense throng swept backward and forward like the surging of a

Many Hurt in the Crush.

Women and children, a few of the latter babes in arms, were caught in the crowd many were badly hurt. Strong men held children and even women high above the heads of the surging crowd to protect them from bodily injury. Despite the efforts of the police and military and cooler heads in the throng, probably 100 persons were injured. Some of the more seriously hurt were carried into the rotunda, where first aid treatment was given them. A number were hurried to hospitals, but the majority were either taken to or subse quently sent unassisted to their homes After the crush had been abated, upon the staircase and plaza, in front of it were found tattered pieces of men's and women' wearing apparel of all kinds. Crushed hats. gloves and even shoes, watches, pocketbooks, keys and knives were picked up.

Then the body of the dead president was finally closed forever to the view of Washington people, the cavalry escort was again formed and conveyed the casket to the special train which is now carrying the body to Canton making the most remarkable floral tribute ever seen here, were taken to the station from the capitol in carriages and wagons and there placed aboard a special car. which had been provided for them. Three sections, comprising in all twenty passensections, comprising in all twenty passen-ger coaches, were necessary to accommodate the dead. Members of the Loyal Legion

Leave for Canton

The last chapter of the sad ceremonial the removal of the remains to the grave at his home at Canton, began at 8:20 o'clock, when the funeral train left here over the Pennsylvania. The great bronze doors of the capitol, in which the body had lain in state, had night. closed while there was still thousands of ments in Mrs. McKinley's condition and the people waiting for a last glance at the night passed without any incident having capitol. The guards at the capitol who had broken the sorrow. held the crowd in check all day were given a hurried glimpse. The casket was closed by the undertakers, it was lifted once more on the shoulders of the body bearers and by them borne to the hearse at the foot of the east steps of the capitol.

"Steady, men," said General Randolph, as they walked slowly out between the bronze doors with their precious burden. They scarcely needed the injunction, for every step was guardedly taken and they official home to the nation's illustrious dead. consumed four minutes in descending the Several members of the diplomatic corps. broad stairway. The time was marked by in court costume, were among the early the doleful discharge of a minute gun stationed at a convenient point in the capi-

From Capitol to Station.

Thirty minutes was required for the re moval of the body from the capitol to the train. The escort on this journey consisted of committees from the army and navy and two squadrons of the Eleventh cavalry. The route was down Pennsylvania avenue, which was lined with troops . It was a noiseless journey. "Not a drum was heard nor a ter, and went immediately to the Blue funeral note," nor was there a sound from parlor, where they were joined by the memthe crowd which lined the broad street, bers of the cabinet. The president wore a Notwithstanding the hour was late the air frock coat, with a band of crepe on the left chill and that a light mist was failing, hats arm. were uniformly removed as the cortege passed. At the Pennsylvania railroad sta- to prepare for the ordeal. She had rested tion there was a dense throng and the body quite well during the night, but her pale was received by large delegations of army and naval officers. There the soldiers and gave no sign of collapse, however, and her seamen carried the casket from the hearse to the observation car, placed in the second section of the funeral train.

The casket was placed on standards draped with the national colors. It was covered with floral emblems. No less than twenty cars were required for the transportation of the funeral party to Canton. Tomorrow still another train will carry to Canton a large party of senators and repof the British embassy, whom King Edward resentatives and others prominent in na-

Three Train Loads for Canton.

The three sections into which the train following persons: Hon. Samuel J. Roberts, Mr. Loran, Mr. Schuck, Cuban Commissioners Tamayo, Latosco and Quesada; Hon. John W. Yerkes, Henry M. Dawes, Hon. M. E. Ailes, Mr. W. W. Mills, W. G. Edene, Hon. Frank L. Campbell, Hon. A. Warfield Monroe, Charles A. Hanna, W. C. Beer, Francis Kilkenny, Colonel John McCook, Captain John F. Blake, A. W. Machen, Mr. Percy Montgomery, Hon. J. K. Richards. George Barber, General L. H. Anderson and

The second section was the presidential train proper, made up of practically the same seven cars which made the trip from Buffalo. The car Olympia was assigned to Mrs. McKinley, while the Edgemore was occupied by the president and his cabinet. Behind in order came the sleepers Naples and Belgravia, the dining car Waldorf and a combination car.

In the Presidential Section.

On this train were the following passengers: Mrs. McKinley and maid. Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Duncan, Mrs. M. C. Barber, Miss Barber, John Barber, Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Baer and maid, Lieutenant James McKinley. Miss Sara Duncan, Captain and Mrs. Lafayette kett of Nebruska, Henderson and Smith of McWilliams, William Duncan, Frank Oslowa, Richardson of Tennessee, Hill of Conborn, Mrs. Seward Bowman, Mrs. E. A.

G. Dawes and Mrs. Dawes, Colonel F. L. Mock, Colonel W. C. Brown, Major Charles E. Miller, Burt Miller, Miss McKenzie and Miss Hunt (nurses), Mrs. Henry Matthews. Mr. P. C. Schell and wife, Mrs. Rand, Mrs. J. A. Porter, the president, Secretary Root, Attorney General Knox, Postmaster General and Mrs. Smith, Secretary and Miss Wilson, Secretary and Mrs. Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Barnes, Colonel B. F. Montgomery, M. C. Latta, N. P. Webster, John G. Milburn, John Schatcherd, Conrad Diehl, Harry Hamlin, Carlton Sprague, Major Thomas W. Symons, U. S. A., Senator Hanna and Secretary Dover, Senator Fairbanks, Senator Burrows, Senator Keen, Representative Alexander. John Mitchell. Sheridan, Captain Henry Leonard, A N. Aaron, Hon, H. B. F. McFarland, Ell Torrance, representing the Grand Army of the Republic, and the body guard consisting of two officers and sixteen men.

Army and Naval Officials.

The third section of the train was deoted to the accommodation of the army and naval officers. There were Generals Brooke, Otis and Gillespie, Admiral Dewey and Rear Admirals Growninshield, O'Netl General Wood, commandant of marines, and a number of junior officers of the army and Lieutenant General Miles is to take passage on this train at some intermediate point between here and Canton and Governor Nash and two of his staff are to join it at Pittsburg.

President Roosevelt's arrival at the train ccurred at 7:50 and was unmarked by His brother-in-law, Captain Cowles of the navy, accompanied him.

Mrs. McKinley Resolute.

It was just before 8 o'clock when Mrs McKinley was driven to the station, Fearing the tiring effect of the long walk from the carriage entrance to the car set apart was narrowly averted at the east front of the capital. For hours the vast throng surprising firmness to her place, assisted by Abner McKinley and Dr. Rixey. It was 8 o'clock when this section steamed away in the darkness, the first section having preceded it ten minutes. The observation were swept aside and in almost a twinkling car, bearing the remains, was flooded with light. Through its crystal sides could be seen the beautifully draped casket, with its mass of rare blossoms so arranged that even as the train swept through the night the people in the country it passed through might gaze on the casket, with a soldier standing grimly at the head and a sailor. carrying his cutlass upon his shoulder, at the foot

A guard of soldiers and sailors occupied the platforms and between them at the rear was a mammoth wreath six feet in diameter of rare orchides and laurels. Ten minutes later the third section of the train bearing the army and navy officers, sped away and the national capital had performed its part in the funeral cere-

DETAILS OF DAY IN CAPITAL Record of the Night Vigil and Early Morning Preparations at White House.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17 .- At the White House last night was a quiet one. A vigil over the dead had been maintained throughout the watches. Details of cavalrymen, ar-The magnificent display of floral tributes tillerymen and infantrymen, sailors and manumbering no less than 125 pieces, and rines were on guard around the grounds. A sentryman paced back and forth on the portico. Inside the house others did duty. In the East room, somber with its drawn shades and dim burning lights and its heavy black casket in the center of the all those who accepted invitations to make and the Grand Army of the Republic per-the journey to Canton. formed this sad duty, silently giving way o others every two hours. At the head of the casket stood an artilleryman and a sailor. At the foot were a cavalryman and a marine. All were at parade rest. These watchers were relieved every half hour. Mrs. McKinley had retired by 10 o'clock and at that hour all the private apartments in the White House were locked for the There were no untoward develop-

Preparations for Ceremony.

The second stage of the late president's second journey toward the waiting grave at Canton was begun just a few minutes after 9 o'clock. As early as an hour before that time the chief officers of the government, civil, military and judicial, began to arrive and many others whose names are familiar the world over came singly and in groups to pay their tribute at his e m rs. Fo mer Fresident C eveland and former Secretary of War Lamont arrived about 8:30 and were shown at once to seats in the Red parlor. The members of the cabinet began to arrive soon afterward and were immediately followed by the members of the senate committee and the members of the United States supreme court, headed Chief Justice Fuller, in their robes

President Roosevelt arrived at 8:36 o'clock, accompanied by his wife and sis-

Mrs. McKinley arose earlier than usu face told plainly of her sufferings.

Senator Hanna reached the White House only a short time before the procession was to move. His face looked drawn and. leaning heavily on his cane, it was painfully evident that he was suffering.

Many Beautiful Flowers.

During the night and morning a portion of the many beautiful floral tributes sent to the White House were placed about the ish War veterans and the Grand Army of funeral casket. Conspicuous among them the Republic. As the veterans of the civil was a massive cushion floral tribute in the was divided left at ten-minute intervals, form of an army badge from the Grand Army First was a train of eight cars bearing the of the Republic and offerings from the Loyal Legion and other soldier organizations. General Corbin, now enroute home from Manila; General Adna R. Chaffee and the commissioners of Porto Rico had flora offerings laid about the bier. A design of over six feet in diamond shape, composed of smilax leaves and American Beauty roses, about which was entwined the American flag, came from the mayor and council of Richmond, Va.

Other tributes came from Mrs. James . Garfield, widow of another martyred presi dent: Mrs. Garret Hobart, Secretaries Hay and Hitchcock, General and Mrs. Miles, Ambassador Porter at Paris, the Argentine, Guatemalan, Costa Rican and other legations and the municipality of Havana.

While the men of note were arriving a the White House the funeral escort, under command of Major General John R. Brooke, was forming immediately in front of the White House. Besides regular soldiers and civic organizations and representatives of all branches of the national government and jug hemorrhoids that I am practically the governors of states and their staffs. kett of Nebruska. Henderson and Smith of McWilliams, William Duncan. Frank Oslows. Richardson of Tennessee. Hill of Conborn. Mrs. Seward Bowman, Mrs. E. A., streets were crowded with people. Wire recticut, Lawrence of Massachusetts, DavStafford, Dr. and Mrs. Rixey, Hon. Charles cables strung along the entire route of sele agents for the United States.

.. VARICOCELE AND HYDROCELE...

Positively Cured in Less Than Ten Days.

DR. McGREW'S treatment for Varicoccle given without the loss of a single hour's time-absolutely no pain and is the quickest form of curing this disease that has ever been discovered. The doctor has devoted 26 YEARS to the treatment of Varicocele, and it is but justice to him to say, without fear of contradiction, that his treatment of Varicocele HAS NO EQUAL ANYWHERE. AN ABSOLUTE CURE IS GUAR-ANTEED.

NERVOUS DEBILITY

In all its various forms. Dr. McGrew's system for treating this disease gives renewed energy, more vitality and greater ambitions.

Stricture

A treatment that cures in less than 5 days without pain or cutting.

Every cure is guaranteed and no loss of time from work.

26 YEARS EXPERIENCE. Dr. Mc Grew, Specialist, (Age 52) 15 YEARS IN OMAHA.

HOT SSRINGS TREATMENT FOR BLOOD POISON AND ALL BLOOD DISEASES.

DR. McGREW can give you HOT SPRI NGS treatment for Blood Disease (except the water) and he GUARANTEES better RESULTS and better satisfaction, besides you can take his treatment right at home, and no one will find out that you have this terrible disease. It is quite different when you go to the Springs, for that trip alone is quite sufficient to advertise just what your ailment is. Have you ever thought of this? All external signs of this disease disappear at once under Dr. McGrew's treatment, and not a spot or pimple will ever appear to expose the nature of your disease. This fact alone is a priceless comfort and consolation to one afflicted with this ailment. Dr. McGrew GUARANTEES you a PERMANENT CURE for life.

OVER 20,000 CASES

Have been cured of Loss of Vitality, Loss of Brain Power, Poor Memory, Despondency, Gleet, and all unnatural weaknesses of men.

CHARGES LOW

TREATMENT BY MAIL.

OFFICE HOURS-8 a. m. to 9 p. m. Sundays, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. P. O. BOX 766.

OFFICE OVER 215 SOUTH 14th ST., BETWEEN DOUGLAS AND FARNAM STS., OMAHA, NEB.

Michigan avenue to the capitol kept it clear

for the funeral processis Start for Capitol.

At precisely 9 o'clock a silent command was given and the body bearers silently shoulders the casket containing all that was mortal of the illustrious dead. They walked with slow cadenced step and as they appeared at the main door of the White avenue opposite the mansion, struck up the hymn the dead president loved so well Nearer, My God, to Thee," There was perfect stience throughout the big mansion and as the last sad strain of music died away the throng in the building lifted their heads, but their eyes were wet. As the hearse moved away the mourners from the White House entered carriages and followed the body on its march to the capitol, where the funeral services were to be held. It was thought early in the morning that Mrs. McKinley might feel strong chough to attend the services, but it was finally decided that it would be imprudent to tax her vitality more than was absolutely ecessary, so she concluded to remain in her room under the immediate care of Dr. Rixey, Mrs. Barber, her sister, and her niece, Miss Barber. Slowly down the White House driveway. through a fine, drizzling rain, the solemn cortege wound its way down to the gate eading to the avenue and halted. Then, with a grand, solemn swing the artillery band began the "Dead March" from Saul. blast from a bugle sounded "march" and the head of the procession was moving on its way to the capitol. The casket, in c black, carved hearse and drawn by six coalblack horses, caparisoned in black net with trailing tassels and a stalwart groom at the head of each, moved down through the gateway and came to a stand alongside of ### he moving procession General Brooke Heads Line.

Major General John R. Brooke was at the nead of the line, mounted. Behind him came his aides, the red-coated artillery band, a squadron of cavalry with red and white guldons limp in the damp air, a battery of field artillery, with the men sitting straight and stiff as statues, a company of engineers, two battalions of coast artillery and a detachment of the signal corps. Then came the naval contingent of the second section, headed by the Marine band, physician confidently believes that she will who were headed by a battalion of marines keep up her strength and courage to the and one of sailors from the North Atlantic squadron, very picturesque and strong. As the National Guard of the District of Columbia brought up the rear of the first section of the parade the civic section of the procession marched into line. It was under command of General Henry V. Boynton as chief marshal, and comprised de tachments from the Military Order of the Loyal Legion, the Regular Army and Navy union, the Union Veteran Legion, the Span-its Influence Has Been Felt By So Many Omaha Readers.

(Continued on Fifth Page.)

EO SOOTHING.

The soothing influence or relief, After suffering from Itching Piles, From Eczema or any Itchiness of the skin Makes one feel grateful to the remedy. Doan's Ointment has soothed hundreds. Here's what one Omaha citizen says: Mr. James Grace, lineman for the Thom on-Houston Electric Light company, living at 207 North Seventeeath street, says; "If everybody receives as much benefit from using Doan's Ointment as I. I certainly advise them to use it. Doctors treated me. each and all guaranteeing a cure, but they sailors and marines the escort was made up did not relieve me. Doan's Ointment proof a detachment of the National Guard, cured at Kuhn & Co.'s Drug store, corner members of the Grand Army of the Repub- 15th and Douglas streets, much to my sur ic, Loyal Legion and kindred bodies and prise and more to my gratification, has un-elvic organizations and representatives of to-date so allayed the annoyance from itch-

TEMPTATION TONIC

The World's Greatest Ideal French Tonic. Stimulator, Invigorator

The only genuine imported French Tonic and positive remedy for Debility and Impotency. A NERVE TONIC. Brings the pink glow to pale cheeks and restores the fire of TEMPTATION TONIC has effected cures in either sex where all other known treatments have falled. TEMPTATION TONIC has long enjoyed the reputation tonic for men and women of weakened vitality. Compounded by

L. M. LAGAARD, Paris, France.

Temptation Tonic Is for Sale Everywhere.

In case your dealer should not have our goods, write to us for prices and full information. Corespondence answered strictest confidence by our American agents.

Madison Specialty Selling Agents for America, Omaha, Neb.

The ten blan -Youlny as adiscount of Jon bay right of the standard territory to

YOU'VE COT TO HURRY OMAHA DRIVING PARK

Wabash line SPECIALS

$13-Buffalo and Return-$13 $31 - New York and Return - $31

The Wabash from Chicago will sel Aside from these rates the Wabash runs through trains over its own rails from Kansas City, St. Louis and Chi-cago to Buffalo and offers many special rates during the summer months allowing stop-overs at Niagara Pails and Buffalo.

Be sure your tickets read via th WARASH ROUTE. For rates, folders and other information, call on your nearest ticket agent, or write

HARRY E. MOORES, Gen. Agt. Pass Dept., Omaha, Neb G. P. & T. A., St. Louis, Mc

Inexpensive Offices

THERE ARE NO DARK OR UNDESIRABLE ROOMS IN THE BEE BUILDING. 70U PAY ACCORDING TO THEIR THERE ARE A FAW VERY NICE OFFICES WHICH RENT FOR ONLY $10.00 A MONTH THIS INCLUDES LIGHT, WATER, HEAT, JAN-TOR SERVICE AND ALL THE CONVENIENCES OF THE BEST BUILDING IN

> The Bee Building

R. C. PETERS & CO., Rental Agents Ground Floor Bee Bldg.