OF INTEREST FROM NEWS

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

MINOR MENTION.

Davis setts drugs. The Elka are to meet tonight. Stockert sells carpets and rugs. Fine A B C beer, Neumayer's hotel. Gas fixtures and globes. Bixby & Son. Wollman, scientific optician, 400 Breadway, C. E. Alexander & Co., pictures and frames, Tel. 366, Frames. Tel. 386.

Excelsior Massonic lodge will meet tonight for work is the second degree.
Missouri oak body wood, $5.59 cord. Wm. Welch. 23 N. Main St. Tel. 128. Miss Lottie Stowe of Missouri Valley is he guest of Miss Grace Fuller, A street carnival will be held at Griswold Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Get your work done at the popular Earle laundry, 724 Broadway. 'Phone 157. Adolph Goldstein of Shenandonh, Ia., is guest of W. B. Fisher of Vine street. Mrs. M. M. Tyron of Massens, in, is

G Ray editor and publisher of the lo at cirinnell, Is a stending fed-Misses Effic and Joste Anderson of Essex, la., are guests of Miss Josephine Nelson of Bonton street.

The board room of the County Super-visors in the court house is being renovated and redecorated.

Faul Ketler, charged with assaulting John Ernet, will have a hearing before Justice Bryant September 23.

Wanted, good steady man, capable of running engme and boiler. Apply in person to foreman of gas works, Council Bluffs. Judge Wheeler returned yesterday from Sidney, where he has been holding court, and will remain in the city until Tuesday. Mrs. D. Stubbs of Laramie, Wyo., is vis-tting her father, Oscar Brown, 349 Benton street. She is accompanied by her children. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Tyler and daughter Marion left last night for New York, where Miss Tyler will enter the Misses Elly's

Anderson Bros, secured a building permit sterday for the erection of a one-story lick structure at 228 West Broadway, to FILES PLEA IN ABATEMENT

W. C. Garcelon, traveling salesman for the McCormick company, has sufficiently re-covered from an illness of several weeks to be removed from the Woman's Christian association hospital

Fall opening of millinery Saturday and Monday September II and II. Latest styles in pattern hots and bonnets. Miss Anna H. Moore's, 3H Broadway. Moore's, 3H Broadway,

J. M. Baber, charged with compounding a felony in connection with failing to prosecute his charge against Ed and Andrew Hoden, has evaded the authorities.

Mrs. H. it. Glover of Grand Island is guest of her sister, Mrs. T. E. Cavin of Park avenue. She was one of the ladies of honor at the Ak-Sar-Ben ball last night. The case against Fred Stevens, saloon-keeper, charged with selling liquor to H. Langdon, a minor, was continued yesterday in Justice Bryant's court to September 28. Complaint is made that wholesale seaning is being carried on nightly at Lake Manawa and local fishermen have requested Deputy Fish and Game Warden Brown to set in the matter.

David Sherlock of this city killed a white pelican Thursday at Cut Off lake that measured eight feet and four inches between the tips of the wings. The neck and neak measured four feet.

Side, la., to visit an uncle, On account of absence from the city last Sunday Rev. W. B. Crewdson, pastor of the First Christian charch, was unable to hold memorial services for President McKinley on that day, but will have them tomorrow Mount Ayr in 1899, was ordered trans-

The hearing of Claude Deeds, Fred and George Milledge, charged with the theft of a horse and buggy, in which they took a drive around the city, has been continued to September 24. The boys have been released on bond.

Secretary Reed of the Board of Commissioners for the Insane was notified yesterday by the Douglas county authorities that Henry Cook, until recently a resident of this city, had been adjudged insane in Omaha. Wells Cook, father of Henry Cook, was recently committed to the State asylum at Clarinda from here.

The wonderful Mandeville sisters, who were the talk of Chicago when they appeared at the Masonic Roof garden, will appear in specialties between the acts at the Dohany theater tomorrow night, when the piece, "The Diamond Breaker," will be presented. This will be the first appearance of the sisters in this part of the west and no doubt but their specialities will be highly appreciated by the Council Bluffs theater-goers.

N. Y. Plumbing Co., telephone 250.

Large Body of Ore in Sight.

George F. Wright returned yesterday morning from Colorado, where he has been for several weeks. He said that extensive repairs in the Officer estate mine have just been completed and that the mine is now ready to resume work. The repairs were necessary on account of the caving in of waste retaining walls last summer. Mr. Wright says there is a large body of ore in sight, but that it is of low grade.

Davis sells glass.

Real Estate Transfers.

These transfers were filed yesterday in the abstract, title and loan office of J. W. Squire, 101 Pearl street:

Alice I. Hopkins, widow and executive, to Alois Becker, part of block A. Jefferis' subdiv. w. d.

W. M. Squires and wife to Victor Jennings, part lot 37, O. P. C. B. w. d. Henry J. Hesly to Dora Hesly, lot 10, block 8, Minden. q. c. d.

E. L. Shugart and wife to Perley D. Eames, sl<sub>2</sub> swl<sub>4</sub> 11-75-42, w. d.

Made for those who know what's good

Woodward's Ganymede Chocolates and Opera BonBons

Made By John G. Woodward & Co. Council Bluffs -

Iowa Steam Dye Works 304 Broadway.

Make your old clothes look like new. Cleaning, Dyeing and Repairing.

LEWIS CUTLER

28 PEARL STREET. Phung Jr.

FARM LOANS 55ERT Negotiated in Eastern Neuraska and Iowa. James N. Casady, jr., Le Main St., Council Bluffa.

BURNTCORK CAR BURNS UP

Que Sun's Minetrel Show. Leses Six Thousend in Rolling Stock.

GASOLINE BLAMED FOR SERIOUS BLAZE

tard to Clean the Mattresses, it Ignites from Stove and Show's Entire Outfit is Consumed.

The private hotel car of Gus Sup's min strels was burned to the trucks at 6 o'clock Friday night in the Rock Island yards at Sixteenth street, where it had been standing since Monday night. The car was being renovated and cleaned throughout, gaseline being extensively used in the renovating process, especially on the mattresses. Fumes from the gasoline are supposed to have become ignited from a heating stove at one end of the car and by the time the fire department reached the scene the in Miss Catherine White will return today to Lincoln. Neb. to resume her studies at the State university.

Miss Hamilton, guest of Dr. and Mrs John Green of Fourth street, returned to her home in Pella. In. yesterday.

John R. Black of Griswold, one of Potta? wattamic county's substantial farmers, visted friends in this city yesterday.

Wanted, good steady man, capable of Wanted, sood steady man, capable of effects were at the theater and the cos-tumes are being made in Omaha. Sun had just closed his summer tour with a circus at Rawlins and, following his custom for four years, was opening the minter season with a minstrel show.

When told of the burning of the car he said everything he owned on earth was in it. The destruction of the car, it was said last night, will not interfere with the dates of the company, which goes to Dea Moines

Herman Goldstein Claims that Service Was Made on Him Hiegally.

On the convening of the September term of United States court yesterday morning by Judge Smith McPherson, the defendant n the suit of E. E. Adams against Herman Goldstein filed a plea in abatement to the company, jurisdiction of the court, based on the Wednes grounds that service was made on him City of Council Bluffs (special), Rafter while attending the trial of a case in against Anders. which the plaintiff was interested in the state court here.

Adams, who was formerly in the shoe business in this city, brought suit against Herman Goldstein of Omaha for $10,000 damages for alleged false arrest and malicious prosecution in November, 1898 During the trial of a suit connected with Adams' failure and disposition of his stoc. Goldstein was served with notice of the suit for damages. He secured a transfer Fred Lufborough, the boy whose disappearance from his home on Washington avenue Wednesday made his relatives anxious, has been located. He went to West that while attending the trial here he was tice of suit. The suit of R. Mount Ayr in 1899, was ordered transferred to the central division at Des Moines.

In the case of the United States of America against Boyle a continuance was before the federal grand jury, caused the granted and the defendant given ninety days in which to answer. The equity case of the Union Writing Machine company against the Williams Typewriter company. involving the alleged infringement of a patent, was dismissed by stipulation. The suit of Carlson against the Omaha & St. Louis Railroad company was dismissed. Motion for Continuance.

James A. Patton, in the suit brought against him by Lucius Wells for remunera- trial Monday morning, Ewald giving bonds tion for his services in placing the stock for his appearance. of and assisting in the reorganization of the Council Bluffs Gas & Electric Light company, filed a motion for a continuance, which was taken under advisement by the court. Judge McPherson announced that the five law actions in which Eiseman appears as expected to complete its work until some plaintiff and which have encumbered the time next week. Another partial report, dockets for the last eleven years will be however, is looked for today. dismissed unless taken up during the next few days and the costs taxed to both plain- Minnesota Thresher Manufacturing comtiff and defendants.

railroad receivership matter were made. The receiver, C. H. Campbell, was ordered to pay out of the funds in his hands $115 alleged to be due the plaintiff. to W. J. Williams for the loss of three head of cattle; $237 to Dr. E. I. Woodbury of this city, being four months' rent on the office on Pearl street and part of the claim ON of the Edward Hines Lumber company of Chicago for ties supplied. The court also issued an order establishing a highway across the right of way of the railroad in Mills county. W. H. and Sarah Wilfong of Bingham, Ia., were permitted to intervene in the receivership case. The Wilfongs were struck and injured by an Omaha & St. Louis train near Bingham February 24, 1898 and secured a judgment in the Page county district court against the railroad for $1,600. This judgment, it is San Francisco. When the train stopped five road in Page county. First Case on Trial Today.

The first case on the docket for trial today is the personal injury damage suit of Charles McEvers against the Chicago & Northwestern railroad. McEvers, a farmer in Harrison county, was struck and injured by a special train near Dunlap, October 9, 1896, and sues for $10,000.

These comprise the grand jury impaneled yesterday morning: M. J. Davis Lewis, foreman; Leonard Manning, Chariton; H. H. Carter, Mount Pleasant; Fred Guthrie, Carroll; C. Bullington, Polk City; Rufus Tucker, Coon Rapids; L. H. Stroud Pacific Junction: John Morgan, Kellogg; J

Dohany Theater

One Night, Sunday, September 22,

Two tons of scenery. Six big specialties Band and orchestra.

Prices, 25c, 35c, 50c.

Concert at Bayliss park, 2:30 p. m ILLINERY OPENING

All are invited to attend our mil-linery opening, Saturday, September 21. at our New Store. PENNELL MILLINERY. 541 Broadway, Council Bluffs.

John M. Chaffee, Berwick: S. L. Shreves, | SHARP CRUSADE FOR MORALS Orinent; J. H. Young, Hedrick; W. W. Eller, Atlantic; W. M. McCrary, J. S. Davis, Ovide Vien, George S. Treynor, Council Bluffs. E. B. Gardiner was appointed bailiff of the grand jury. Wal

McFadden is doorkeeper and erier of the court and Sumner Knox is doorkeeper. Owing to an error in calling the term of court at Creston for the same date as CAPTAIN HULL WILL NOT CAMPAIGN OHIO that at Keokuk, Judge McPherson au-nounced that the Creston term would be postponed until October 28.

Ry Abe Lincoln Relief Corps.

These resolutions on the death of President McKinley were adopted at a meeting of Abe Lincoln Relief corps No. 180, yesterday afternoon: Whereas, Our well beloved president and comrade of the Grand Army of the Bench-lic, William McKinley, has been foully murdered by an arch liend of anarchism who the hand of friendship was extended to him from the head of our nation, therefore be Resolved, By Abe Lincoln corps No. 180, That we deeply deplore the loss to our lat-tion of this notic president, valiant sol-dier, able statesman, kind and loving hisdier, able statesman, kind and loving hisband, honorable and generous citizen. That we tender to his loving wife cur womanly and heartfelt sympathy in this hour of her deep distress. That we will use our best endeavors to influence our husbands, children and friends to urge upon our representatives in the legislative hells of nation and state the enactment of such laws as shall remove the foul blot of anarchy from our land and secure all officers of our government perfect safety in their official positions from the hand of assassins. And we urge all members of the Woman's Relief corps throughout the state to do all in their power in furtherance of this object.

ANNIE E. CROCKER, STELLA TALBOTT, ELIZABETH WARD, Committee.

ANORETTE E. WEATHERDER

Attest: FAVORETTE E. WEATHERBEE.

Assignment of Law Cases.

This second assignment of law cases was made by Judge Macy yesterday: Monday, September 23-McLatyre against Ward, Bailey against Hansen, Officer against Haworth

Tuesday, September 24-Bloom and others against Omaha Bridge & Termina! Railway company, Garner against Howe. Wednesday, September 25 - Graybill against Thrush, Caldwell against Morgan. Thursday, September | 26-Chase and others against City of Council Bluffs. Saturday, September 28-Strock against Alexander.

of Courcil Bluffs. Tuesday, October 1-Doyle against Burns

Wednesday, October 2-Roselle against

Stenls a Diamond Pin.

A valuable diamond pin was the booty secured yesterday noon from the residence of William J. Shadle, 901 Fourth avenue, by a pervy young sneak thief.

Mrs. Shadle was in the yard superintendng the hanging out of the washing, when he young fellow entered by the front door. Mrs. Shadle's mother, who is crippled from rheunatism, was lying down in one of the upstairs rooms, when she saw the young fellow step softly into an adjoining bedroom. In answer to her inquiry as to what he was doing there he replied that he had been sent up by Mrs. Shadle to fetch some clothes. The old lady called through the window to Mrs. Shadle and the thief ran down the stairs and out of the front door. It was then found that he had secured the diamond pin.

Witness Complains of Assault.

William Taylor of Albia, Ia., a witness arrest yesterday afternoon of Fred Ewald. a barber at the Neumayer botel, on a charge of assault and battery. To Justice Bryant, before whom the information was filed. Taylor said that Ewald gave him a shortarm punch in the face. Taylor at tributed the assault to the fact that he had been subpocuaed to testiffy against Ewald's brother, who is charged with boot-Justice Bryant set the case for derging. Miss Phillips and was accepted. On Track of Robbers

Davis sells paint. Grand Jury Resumes.

The district court grand jury resumed its deliberations yesterday morning, but is not pany are on trial before Judge Macy, the Several orders in the Omaha & St. Louis law action brought by McKesson having been transferred to the equity docket. The Gravel roofing. A. H. Read, 541 Broadway.

A TRIP WITH M'KINLEY Conductor of Treta an Western Journey Relates Incidents of President's Kindness.

CLINTON, Ia., Sept. 20 .- (Special Tele gram.)-Conductor Fenion of the Northwestern, on the westbound Colorado special, told of memorial services held by Episcopal ministers on the way to the convention at they will be captured and convicted. claimed, is a lien on the property of the minutes the ministers held services in all the cars. Conductor Fenlon was in charge of Mc-Kinley's special train when he returned from his western trip. He tells incidents when the president shook hands with trainmen and talked with small boys.

Twenty-Second lown Regiment.

IOWA CITY, Sept. 20 .- The reunion of the Twenty-second lows regiment closed here last night, the last exercises being a banquet served to the regiment by friends in lowa City. At the business session the regiment decided that the next reunion would be held on the old camping ground on the battlefield of Vicksburg. A cial committee was appointed to charter a steamboat to carry the regiment south from Davenport over the same route as was taken when the regiment first went to war. Officers elected for the coming two years are: J. C. Switzer of Iowa City, president; E. J. C. Bealer of Cedar Rapids vice president; William Bowen of Iowa City. secretary; Samuel Jones of Iowa City, assistant secretary and treasurer.

Contract for Great Western

FORT DODGE, Ia., Sept. 20.-The contract was let today to Bates & Rodgers Construction company of Chicago for the substructure of the great bridge which the Chicago Great Western plans to put across the Des Motnes river valley at Fort Dodge on its way out of the city toward Omaha within ten days and the piers and abutmile long and will be one of the greatest engineering feats in this part of the coun-

Netorious Ealeons.

Cedar Palls Woman May Remarry Divorced Husband-Sheriff Dond Tracks Robbers.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Sept. 20 .- (Special.) -- What is regarded as the beginning of a sharp crusade against the disreputable houses in Des Moines was ingurated today, when the city council, in regular session, refused to stationed in the park and the officer gave grant several licenses to saloon men of the order to present arms. Thereupon the notorious reputation. Complaints have exaring photographed the group, subsebeen made against several of the men opcrating saloons which were not conducted in accordance with the state law and the regulations of the city, and places operated by two men have been closed and the li censes revoked. Today an effort was made to secure renewal of the licenses and the council resolved upon waiting for further investigation. A committee of citizens called upon the council and a prominent minister of the gospel related to the council what he and others had seen, of what they termed the most outrageous conduct on the streets of Des Moines, of open saloons on legal holidays and of utter failure of two interviews was the commercial relathe police to give protection to the people or to enforce common decency in certain sections of the city. It is announced that the crusade will be continued and that a will be cleaned out.

Will Not Speak in Ohio.

Captain J. A. T. Hull, member of congress for this district, whose seat will be contested next year by Judge Prouty, today announced he has changed his plans and will not go to Ohio to make speeches during the campaign, but will confine his speaking to Iowa and particularly this district. He speaks next week for the first den in the woods. In order to test the time at a soldiers' reunion in Dallas county. It is also announced that word has been received from Senator Lodge of Monday, September 39-Knox against City Massachusetts and Senator Quarles of Wisconsin that they cannot come to Iowa to make speeches. Theordore Roosevelt had (special). Ainsworth against Omaha & offered to come to lows to make a number Council Bluffs Railway & Bridge company, of speeches in behalf of Mr. Cummins, but Tinley against Peterson and others. Hayes this arrangement is off and his place will against Chicago & Northwestern Railway be supplied by some other prominent speaker of the east.

Deserter Heard From.

Several months ago it was learned in his arrival. The expectations, however, was lowa that an Iowa private in the Philip- destined to be disappointed. pines named Waugh had been posted as a deserter from the army. He had deserted most animated aspect all day long. An once, was recaptured, enlisted again and Immense concourse gathered in the hope descrited for the second time. His wife of witnessing the czar and czarina drive ator and Mrs. W. J. Buchan of Kansas. lived in Cedar Falls. She brought suit for through a potrion of the town or the outer desertion and on Wednesday secured a di- park, but the only satisfaction enjoyed vorce with restoration of her name. The was a pleasant surprise visit to the town told since their engagement was announced next day she was surprised at receiving a from M. Loubet. His progress between which he had saved from his pay in the constituted a striking comment upon the was the first she had heard from him inkling of his intention. The first thing who was a visitor at the Congers at the show the proper spirit the divorce decree accompanied by M. Waldeck Rousseau and will be laid away and another marriage General Dubois, chief of the military will result.

On August 29 John E. Wrigley of this city secured a marriage license to wed May Reed. This morning, after having carried the instrument in his pocket just wenty-one days, Mr. Wrigley called at the office of the county clerk, surrendered it and took out another to wed Mary Jane Phillips. It developed that after the license had been secured his former flancee backed out and refused to become a Mrs. Wrigley. The groom says he tried to induce Miss Reed to reconsider her refusal to wed him and that it was only after he saw failure in a further attempt that he proposed to

Sheriff Dowd of Webster county was in the city today on the hunt for clues to the perpetrators of the daring bank robbery at Shellsburg, where the safe was blown open and $2,700 taken by three robbers, who escaped while keeping the citizens at bay with riffes. It is believed that the robbers doubled on their track and have gone north. The conductor on the Minneapolis & St. The suits of O. P. McKesson against the Louis railroad reports that at an early hour this morning three bedraggled individuals boarded his train in the yard at Angus. Their appearance indicated they had traveled on foot for some distance. suit is for an accounting of commissions He asked them why they did not get on at the depot and he was told that at first they had thought of beating their way on the train, but had concluded to pay their fare. They produced a large roll of bills and paid their fare northward. He thought nothing of it until the strangers had got off north of Fort Dodge. Then he found on the seat where they had been a paper wrapped around a stick of dynamite. turned this over to the sheriff and related the incident. There is no doubt that the three mysterious persons are the Shellsburg bank robbers. The robbery was a bold one and as several persons saw the men and can describe them it is expected

Oskaloosa Mystery Unsolved.

The mystery of the finding of the dead body of a woman near Oskaloosa still remains unsolved. The body was in a bad state of decomposition so that identification was impossible. At first it was believed to be the body of a young woman. but later investigation shows it to be the body of a woman well advanced in years and the latest theory is that it was one of a band of gypsies that encamped near the place last summer and for some reason they neglected burial. It is not known that any person is missing in that part of the state.

Suspension of Sentence.

Governor Shaw has suspended the septence of the district court of Sac county to the czar, written by M. Rostand and against Mrs. Elizabeth Gray, convicted of recited by Mme. Bartot of the Comedic illegal sales of liquor and fined $300. The American Tontine Surety company of participated in two acts of Alfred de Mus-Des Moines has been incorporated with set's witty comedy. "Il Ne Faut Jurer de $10,000 capital. W. F. Stouder, president; Rien." Emperor Nicholas laughed heartily L. B. Hamilton, secretary. The name of the Burke Candy company has been changed to the Keokuk Candy He appeared to enjoy the entertainmen company and notice to that effect filed with thoroughly. The exarina amiled frequently ## the secretary of state. Woodmen Piente at Cedar Rapids.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Sept. 29 .- (Special Telegram.)-The eixth annual picnic of the Northeastern Iowa and Northwestern Illinois Woodmen Picnic association was here today. Moline will be the next place of and Sioux City. Work will be commenced meeting. These officers were elected: President E. E. Richards, Cedar Rapids; vice ments will be completed this winter. The president, Mrs. Mary Lundeen, Moline, bridge will be 186 feet high and half a secretary. Mrs. Anna Newton, Moline; treasurer, Alfred Brandt, Davenport. The Clinton team won first prize in competitive drilla.

LEARN LESSON FROM BUFFALO

French Take No Chances on Having Tragedy of Assassination Repeated.

COMPEIGNE, Sept. 20. - Emperor Nicholas exercised the prerogative of an autocrat to day and kept President Loubet and all the French occupants of the Chateau Com peigne marking time the whole morning until he had signified his desires. It was fully expected that he would drive to Pierrefonds and visit the castle and that afterwards he would go shooting in the great park attached to the Chateau Compiegne. All the arrangements had been made and 500 pheasants were brought specially last evening and let loose in the covers. But he did nothing of the kind. His majesty remained in his apartments after breakfast quietly until 10 o'clock, when he took a short promenade in the gardens, at tired in a dark lounging suit and top boots, with the czarina clad in her invar iable l-alf-mourning and followed by hound. The empress carried her camera with which she took a number of views Their majesties passed a squad of infantry quently conversing with the officer and promising that he should have the photograph.

Talk Long on State Affairs. After returning to the chateau the emperor had a long interview with M. Waldeck-Rousseau, the French premier. It lasted at least two hours. Count Lamsdorff, the Russian foreign minister, also conferred with M. Delcasse, the French minister of foreign affairs. Naturally what took place has not been divulged, but it is whispered that the principal subject of the tions between France and Russia.

After giving it to be understood that is would arrive at Pierrefonds the czar left the chateau with the czarina in a victoria. large number of the disreputable places with no escort except a few detectives on bicycles, who kept in the background, thus giving him the illusion of a private drive and the life of an ordinary mortal. Measures were taken within the park, however, that absolutely precluded the approach of any stranger. The entire outer circuit of the park was patroled by cuirasseurs, sovereigns will then take a train for their while all along the palisade enclosing the park were stationed foot soldiers with fixed bayonets. Numerous detectives were hidmeasures taken to safeguard his majesty during the drive five detectives were in structed to attempt to enter. In every case they were captured before getting in side the chateau gardens. The emperor changed his route unexpectedly and instead of proceeding to Pierrefonds took a short drive to the village of Beauxmonts, returning to the chateau at 5 o'clock.

Disappoints Complegae Crowd. In the evening a large crowd was assembled in the streets of Pierrefonds awaiting The streets of Complegne presented a household, emerged from the gates of the chateau on foot. The road to the town hall was hastily cleared as well as possible. The mayor, who was at the town hall with a view to the possibility of such were quietly sipping after-lunch coffee in arrival from Manila. the neighboring cafes. The manner in which the visit was conducted was one of

and the whole proceedings were carried out in the most informal fashion. antiquities and paintings in the municipal to the daughter of the janitor as he left the building. The crowning feature of the day's events was the gala performance in the Chateau theater, which followed a grand banquet in the famous Hall of Columns, at which the members of the French cabinet, the officers of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies and leading members of the suite of the czar and M. Loubet were present. The theater, which is a small oblong edifice and is decorated in red and gold, presented a dazzling spectacle, with the brilliant uniforms of the officers, lavishly em# broidered with gold lace and the superb

toilets of the women. Brilliant Box Party. M. Loubert entered the theater at 9:25 with the ezaring on his arm. Emperor Nichchestra intoned the Marseillaise and the Russian hymn. The audience stood as the heads of the two powers advanced to the front and took their seats in the presidential box. This was situated in the center of what would be the dress circle in an ordinary theater. It was festooned with pink ribbons and profusely adorned with roses and orchids. Four empire armchairs were placed for the use of their majesties and M. and Mme. Loubet. The president was in evening dress and wearing the blue grand cordoon of the Order of St. Andrew. Oh his right was the czarina in a black spangled lace gown wearing a Russian diadem and a fine necklace of five rows of pearls. Emperor Nicholas sat next in the dark green uniform the suddent of the purels of the purels of the president work and a fine necklace of five rows of pearls. Emperor Nicholas sat next in the dark green uniform the process of the purels of olas following with Mme. Loubet. The ordem and a fine necklace of five rows of pearls. Emperor Nicholas sat next in the dark green uniform of a colorel of the Drevbrojenski guards, crossed with white, silver-mounted straps. He wore silver epaulettes and the red ribbon of the grand cordon of the Legion of Honor. Mme. Loubet was on the czar's right and looked Loubet was on the czar's right and looked handsome in a white brocade gown. She wore crosswise the light blue sash of the Order of St. Catherine, with a diamond tiara and emeralds in her hair.

Czar Demonstrative.

The program began with verses of homage Francaise, the leading members of which at the brilliant sallies of the comedy and led the applause, clapping his hands slowly during the performance, but did not ap plaud

At the conclusion of the entertainment about 11 p. m., the leading actors and actresses were presented to the emperor who congratulated them upon the manne in which they had interpreted their roles, The upper gallery of the theater was oc cupied solely by secret police who were masked behind a rampart of palms and flowers. The czar and czarina took thet leave of President and Mme. Loubet an retired to their apartments immediately after the conclusion of the performance, a all must rise early tomorrow in order leave by the 8 o'clock train for the re-

Sore Hands Cured

would near set me crazy, the skin would peel off, and the flesh would get hard and break, then the blood would flow from at least fifty places on each hand. Words can never tell the suffering I endured for three years. I tried at least eight doctors, but my hands were worse than when I commenced doctoring. I tried every old Granny remedy that was ever thought of without one penny's worth of good and could not even get relief. I would feel so badly mornings when I got up, to think that I had to go to work and stand pain for eight or nine hours, that I often feit like giving up my job, which was in the bottling works of Mr. E. L. Kerns. Before could start to work, I would have to wrap each finger on both hands, and then wear gloves, which I hated to do, for when I came to take them off, it would take two hours and the fiesh would break and bleed. Some of my friends who had seen my hands would say, "If they had such hands they would have them amputated"; others would say "they would never work," and more would turn away in disgust. But thanks to CUTICURA, the greatest of skin cures, it ended all my sufferings. Just to think, after doctoring three years, and spending money during all that time, CUTICURA cured me. It has now been two years since I used it and I do not know what sore hands are. I never lost a day's work while I was using it or since, and I have been working at the same business, and in acids, etc. THOS. A. CLANCY.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humour. Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thick-ened cuticle; CUTICURA CINTMENT, to instantly allay liching, inflammation, and irrita-tion, and soothe and heal; and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, to cool and cleanse the blood. A SINGLE SET is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring, and humiliating skin, scalp, and blood humours, with loss of bair, when all else fails

Millions of Women use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for beautifying the skin, for the stopping of failing hair, for softening and whitening red, rough, and soro hands, for baby rashes and chaings, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, for too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, for many sanative, antiseptic uses, and for all the purposes of the rollet, bath, and nursery. Sold throughout the world. British Depot: F. NEWBERT & SONS, F. Charterhouse Sq., London. Potten Duck and Chemical Corrogation, Sole Props., Boston, U. S. A.

view at Betheny. The review will be followed by a luncheon, at which the political toasts for which all France is eagerly waiting, will be pronounced. The Russian return to Russia.

ger and Lieutenant Fred E. Buchan of the Third covalry, U. S. A., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McConnell, 4359 Lake avenue, tonight. The celebration was one of the Macrae, principal, Omaha. most interesting of the season, owing to the prominence of the families concerned. The bride is the daughter of Edwin H. Conger of Des Moines, Ia., former United States minister to China, and wife, and the groom, who was a member of the American forces sent to relieve the legations during the siege, is the son of former State Sen-

The romance of the young people, how they met at the time of the siege, has been Minister Conger is now at his post in letter from her husband, enclosing $120, the Chateau Complegne and the town hall Pekin, but Mrs. Conger and Miss Conger have been in the city for some time vis-She was at first loth to keep it, extraordinary precautions surrounding iting the former's sister, Mrs. McConnell, but her lawyer advised her to keep it and every step the czar has taken since he set at whose home the marriage took place. apply it to the education of her child. It foot on French soil. M. Loubet gave no Miss Mary C. Pierce, a cousin of the bride, was the first see had a visitor at the Congers at the since he first went to the Philippines. It known, not merely to the general public, is expected that if he should return and but to the police, was when the president. Lieutenant Hammond of the American relief forces was announced about the same time as that of Miss Conger and Lieutenant Buchan, was the maid of honor. Miss La vinda Pike McConnell, another cousin, was the bridemaid and only other attendant The groom was unattended. The date of visit, even had to send out and gather the marriage of Miss Pierce and Lieutenin the members of the town council, who ant Hammond will not be chosen until his

At the marriage tonight Rev. Dr. Hanwhich the visit was conducted was one of those charming touches that endear M. Loubet to the French people.

All ceremony was absolutely excluded and the whole proceedings were carried out in the most informal fashion.

M. Loubet chatted cordially with the mayor and councillors, making joking remarks and asking questions regarding the antiquities and paintings in the municipal collection. Finally he said a kind word son officiated. The service was said at organdie. They carried bridemaids' roses, abroad, organdie. They carried bridemaids' roses, abroad.

Among the guests from out of town were the groom's parents from Kansas City, Miss feet, timplate and tube mills has been a feature of the week. The loss in wages to Hughes from Kansas City, Willard Chase the men as a result of two months of and Loren Pierce of Des Moines and Ray idleness is estimated at $10.659.050 and the Hughes from Kansas City, Willard Chase and Loren Pierce of Des Moines and Ray Conger of Pasadena, Cal.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Buchan left tonight for Kansas City, where they will visit for a few days before going on to the west. The yexpect to sail from San Francisco October 15 for Manila and will live in the northern part of the island of Luzon, where the groom is stationed.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW

Demand from Jobbers Continue Good All the Week, in Spite of Adverse Conditions.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: The sad events of the week have naturally been repressing features, even on days when the sense of national bereavement did not seek events of the week have naturally been repressing features, even on days when the sense of national bereavement did not seek events of the week have naturally been repressing features, even on days when the sense of national bereavement did not seek events of the week have naturally been repressing features, even on days when the sense of national bereavement did not seek events of the week have naturally been repressing features, even on days when the sense of national bereavement did not seek events of the week have naturally been repressing features, even on days when the sense of national bereavement did not seek events of the week have naturally been repressing features, even on days when the sense of national bereavement did not seek events of the week aggregate 2.80,251 but; against 6.61,200 last week and 2.124,256 last year. July 1 to date of the sense of the s

EDUCATIONAL.

Brownell Hall

HYMENEAL.

Buchan-Conger.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—(Special Telegram.)

—Relatives and intimate friends only were guests at the marriage of Miss Laura Conger and Lieutenant Fred E. Buchan of the primary, preparatory and academic. Physical Primary Primary, preparatory and academic. Physical Primary Primary, preparatory and academic. Physical Primary Prim

'Che School That Makes Manly Boys.'

Rev. Henry D. Robinson, Warden, Racine, Wis Lake Forest University

Location in fine woods on bluffs of take Michigan fifty minutes distant from Chicago. Sixty acres of Campus, Seven new buildings, including Lois Duran Balt for women. Well equipped Library and Gymna stum. Physical Culture directors for both men and women. High grade of cutrance requirements continue collegiate, standing recognized by all box Recently elected President, Rev. Lake Forest University. Lake Forest, Ill.

50,000 men to their work. The unfavorable features are few, the most notable being the advices of the arrival of heavy frost in as against 182 last week, 183 in this k a year ago, 147 in 1839, 198 in 1838 and n 1887.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 20 .- The budget for 1902 shows an expenditure of 167,000,000

Canadian failures number twenty-three, as against sixteen last week, twenty-ne in this week a year ago, thirteen in 189, nine-teen in 1898 and thirty-five in 1897.

is easily assimilated

ANHEUSER-BUSCH'S Malt Nutrine The Great Food Drink

by the weakest stomach. Enriches the blood, increases its nourishing power. Good for ill, convalescent and well. All can use it with benefit.

Sold by druggists. The superb product of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Ass'n

Brewers of the Original Budweiser, Faust, Michelob, Anheuser-Standard. Pale-Lager, Export Pale, Black & Tan and Exquisite,

