ley's Death.

MANCHESTER, Sept. 22.—Cloth was gen-erally inactive in this market throughout last week, owing to the death of President McKinley, which interrupted business, There was, however, a fairly steady tone and some small operations were excited in miscellaneous lines. The demand for sta-ples for the far east was rarely beyond the inquiry stage, shippers having previously satisfied the more important requirements for the time being. The demand for the smaller markets was poor. Yarns were duil, the broken weeks causing buyers to withhold purchases.
