While there will be a noticeable lack of public meetings and the accompanying pyrotechnics, the candidates will do considerable quiet work and, in fact, have been out electioneering for several weeks. So far the general public has not displayed any great interest in the coming election. Everything up to date looks favorable for the election of the entire republican ticket in Pottawattamle county.

JUSTICE BRYANT IS ANGERED

Doesn't Like to Give Time to Suit Laugdon Seems to Have Settled Privately.

W. W. Langdon for whom Justice Bryant issued a warrant on the charge of compounding a felony was arrested yesterday by Constable Alberti and lodged in the county jail. Langdon will also have to answer a charge of malicious destruction preferred against him by his wife. Mrs. Langdon in her complaint before Justice Bryant alleged that Langdon a few nights ago came home drunk and, finding the door locked, kicked it in.

The charge of compounding a felony against Langdon is due to his failure to prosecute a complaint against Fred Stevens. a saloonkeeper, whom he had arrested on a charge of selling liquor to his son, a minor When the case against Stevens was called in Justice Bryant's court Langdon failed to appear to prosecute, while on the other and Stevens produced a paper signed by Langdon agreeing to drop the case for a consideration of $5. The agreement read as follows COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Sept. 20, 1901.

I. W. W. Langdon, agree on this 20th day of September. 1901, to withdraw all suit
aganist Fred Stevenson for the sum of fiv ($\overline{\text{40}}$) dollars and pay all costs, whatever the may be. Signed:
W. W. LANGDON.

When he read the agreement Justice Bryant became wrathy and refused to dismiss the case against Stevens, but continsed it until September 26. At the same time be issued a warrant for Langdon's arrest but the latter evaded the authorities until yesterday.

J. M. Baber, who failed to prosecute his charge against Ed and Andrew Hoden, and for whose arrest Justice Bryant also issued a warrant on the charge of compounding felony, has not yet been arrested. It is alleged that he was bought off by the Hodens and left the city. Justice Bryant has given it out hard and cold that his court cannot be made a cat's-paw.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.-Chicago today paid its second tribute to the memory of Presicient McKinley. Memorial services were held in all parts of the city during the day and night. At the Collseum, where the principal exercises were held, so many people applied for admittance that an even ing meeting was arranged at Tattersals. In the afternoon the services were for school children and all the speakers endeavored to impress upon the young people the significance of the assassination of the president and the conditions that ac tuated the assassin. Senator Dolliver of lowa was the principal speaker at the evening meeting. He said in part:

There will be opportunity enough to make inquiry into the causes of the enormous offense against mankind, of which the president of the United States was the victim. But it cannot be out of the way, even at such a time as this, to recognize that in the midst of modern society there are a thousand forces manifestly tending toward the moral degradation out of which this wicked hand was raised to kill the chief magistrate of the American people. The government of the United States has given no attention, and the government of the several states, but little to the activity, in many of our states, of organizations inconsiderable in numbers which boldly profess to seek the destruction of all government and all law.
