

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Interesting Session of the Board of Education is in Sight.

TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE IS STILL BUSY

President Bulla of the Board Declares He Stands Ready for Investigation and "Something Will Be Done."

"There will be something doing at the meeting of the Board of Education Monday night," said a prominent chairman of the Taxpayers' league to a Bee representative yesterday.

Members of the board assert that they are not to blame because Contractor Call subset the work of constructing the schoolhouse at Forty-fourth and L streets to a member of the board.

Perhaps there will be another feature and that will be the demand by the Taxpayers' league to have the books of the board examined by an expert.

Registrars Qualifying. Notices were sent out last week to the members of the Board of Registration, and a number have already called at the mayor's office for the purpose of qualifying.

At both the republican and democratic committees in charge of the fall campaign are desirous of knowing the result of each day's registration as early as possible.

That Burlington Depot. President Adkins of the city council called upon General Manager Holdrege of the Burlington on Saturday afternoon with a request that the Burlington proceed as soon as possible to erect a depot at or near the foot of Missouri avenue.

On Tuesday evening the women of the Episcopal church will give a social at the home of Peter Honey.

A fire in the boiler room of the South Omaha National bank yesterday called out the department. Loss trifling.

Pulpit Sentiments

Counsel and Comfort.

At the First Christian church, Twentieth and Capitol avenue, the pastor, Rev. S. T. Martin, preached Sunday morning from Corinthians, first chapter, third verse.

Among the points that will be borne home upon the delegates will be the importance of a rigid enforcement of the church's discipline.

Rev. Edward Frederick Trefz, who has been confined to his room for the last week by a sprained ankle, will preach from the pulpit at Kountze Memorial church both morning and evening yesterday.

DEMOCRATS HARD TO FIND

Their School Board Ticket Will Be Difficult to Fill.

SUGGESTION TO GIVE IT TO POPULISTS

Herndon Says He Will Have to Hustle Up Some Candidates for the Nominations to Be Made Next Saturday Night.

"That reminds me—we must get out this week and hustle up some candidates for the Board of Education," remarked the chairman of the democratic executive committee yesterday when asked as to when and how the school board ticket was to be nominated.

It seems that democrats who are willing to take the empty honor of running for school directors are hard to find; in fact, the only candidate so far mentioned is Millard Fillmore Funkhouser, and it is whispered that he is not particularly anxious to try for another term on the board.

Both the republicans and the democrats have nominated candidates for assessors in all of the six wards in South Omaha, although the new city charter plainly provides that there shall be but one assessor for county purposes in that municipality.

County Attorney Shields has given an opinion that the city charter provision for the election of a single assessor is invalid for the reason that it conflicts with the revenue laws of the state, but there are attorneys who contend that a change can be made in the number of assessors in any city without conflicting with the revenue laws.

The injustice of the disfranchisement of Omaha republicans by the action of the recent county convention in making the ratio of committee members to republican voters 1 to 4 in Omaha, 1 to 2 in South Omaha and 1 to 4 in the country precincts is generally admitted.

The recent article in the Bee in regard to the disfranchisement of Omaha republicans on the central committee is a true and plain statement of facts as they exist, and no man in South Omaha, laying all prejudice to one side, can deny the truth of the arguments advanced by Mr. Rosewater, an independent believer in South Omaha at all times.
