GOVERNOR RETURNS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Savage Express Delight Over Pan-American Visit.

SCHOOL CHART GAME WORKED AGAIN

Superintendent Fowler Renews His Warning to the Teachers-Labor Commissioner After Visitors of Law.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—Governor and Mrs. Savage, accompanied by the military staff, returned today from the Nebraska day celebration at the Pan-American exposition.

The state did itself proud on Nebraska day at the exposition and on the whole it was one of the most enjoyable trips it has ever taken, said the governor. "Our whole party enjoyed the trip. We experienced no mishaps and the officials treated us royally."

"Nebraska day was a complete success in every way. The meeting was held in the Temple of Music. The program was entertaining and the crowd was immense. By the officials I was informed that the gathering on that day numbered 6,000 more than at the Pennsylvania celebration, which immediately preceded ours. There were about fifty members in the party. We were entertained at dinner by the exposition officials, which, according to Commissioner Vance, is a courtesy that has been extended to but one other state during the summer."

"As to the fireworks and electrical display, they cannot be too highly commended. The latter portion of the program was devised by Edward Rustin, a young Omaha electrician."

"At the invitation of the street railway officials the whole party took a seven-mile ride on the street cars and electrical cars. The ride was most enjoyable. The street cars were then proceeded along the Canadian shore past the monument of General Brock. Mr. Ely, the manager, placed his private car at the disposal of the Nebraskans."

Lincoln National Banks. The statements of the national banks of Lincoln at the close of business on September 30 show that all three institutions are in a remarkably healthy condition. The First National bank shows an increase in deposits and cash and eight exchange materials equal, ranging from 32 per cent in one bank to 60 per cent in another. The last quarterly statement showed $4,527,000 of deposits and $2,633,000 of loans. The statements made this year show $5,000,000 of deposits and $2,850,000 of loans. Following is a comparative statement of deposits and loans on September 30, this year:

School Chart Game Again. Superintendent Fowler has received a letter from Minneapolis warning him that agents are at work in Nebraska selling school charts for ten times their real value. The communication exposes the scheme of their operations and is as follows:

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—In your state today there is a clever plan being worked by experts in selling charts for the purpose of making money. The charts are sold at a price, but if they condemn the thing the agents ostensibly leave the country. The charts are sold to men from other parts of the state and they rush the country in a flash, often before the county superintendent is aware of it.

The agents do not call themselves "chart agents," but mask as general school supply men. The only thing they dread is the name of the county superintendent. The country people read, thus keeping it before the public. Yours truly, M. BURDETTE.

The school chart swindle was first brought to the attention of Superintendent Fowler early last April and at that time he issued a note of warning to county superintendents and other school officials, who were approached by the agents. For the purpose of again placing them on their guard Mr. Fowler has reissued his notice, which is as follows:

A chart agent has been roaming about the counties, not only seeking whom he may defraud, but also endeavoring to get those he saw. The gentleman claims to have a recommendation from the state superintendent. He has a copy of the state superintendent's letter to the county superintendents and a copy of the state superintendent's letter to the county superintendents. He has a copy of the state superintendent's letter to the county superintendents and a copy of the state superintendent's letter to the county superintendents.

Female and Child Labor Law. Deputy Labor Commissioner Watson is continuing his warfare against violators of the female employment and compulsory education laws. He announces that he will personally inspect all establishments where female and child labor is employed and that any person found disobeying the laws will be prosecuted. His notice follows:

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Under separate cover I have forwarded to you a press number of public notices containing copies of the acts regulating the employment of women and children in this state and the "Certificate of School Attendance" and "Parental and Guardians' Certificates." You will confer a favor by acknowledging the receipt of same.

I would respectfully emphasize the fact that this bureau is very much in earnest in its efforts to see that the provisions of these acts are complied with and letters will be addressed to employers and to county superintendents of public instruction and truant officers in the state, with the view of ascertaining the true condition of affairs in their respective localities. As an officer of the state I have determined my whole duty and shall use every possible means to have these laws properly enforced. The manner of investigation will not be confined to correspondence with employers and county superintendents, but shall embrace the more thorough method of personal inspection of all establishments where female and child labor is employed.

Any employer doing business within this state, who shall neglect or refuse to accept and consider said notices and certificates and fail to carry out the provisions of said acts, shall be liable to a penal state of Nebraska, which shall be enforced by the state of Nebraska. Respectfully yours, C. E. WATSON, Deputy Labor Commissioner of Labor, Nebraska City Gas Company.

Articles of Incorporation of the Citizens' Gas Light Company of Nebraska City were recorded in the secretary of state's office today. The stock of the company amounts to $75,000, held principally by Nathaniel Covington of Indiana, George E. Mayer of Chicago and Charles J. Hayes of Nebraska City.

Requisition for Arrowsmith. Governor Savage this afternoon granted a requisition for the return of Thomas Arrowsmith from Colorado to Nuckolls county, Nebraska, where he is wanted in answer to the charge of assault upon a 17-year-old girl. The action was resisted by the man's attorneys, but the governor

USE SOME COMMON SENSE IN SICKNESS

Take the Only Remedy That Is Guaranteed to Effect a Cure!

DO NOT BE FOOLED BY QUACKS!

They Are Dropping by the Way While the Great Work of Paine's Celery Compound Goes Steadily On.

If ever a person needs to exercise the God-given quality of common sense, it is when he begins to be sick.

One can afford to be stupid or freakish, or careless and frivolous when well. There is no man so poor, if he has his health, and his nerves are in good order, his muscles sound, and his stomach normal, who cannot correct his mistakes.

But the moment one falls sick—when as sure as fate, disease with its mild beginnings, if not promptly checked, is bound to develop into serious illness—there is no longer time to experiment upon the public. The experience of the world has shown that in every case of sickness resulting from impaired nerves and impure blood, Paine's celery compound does immediate and effective good!

For the last ten years the thousands of authentic reports of individual cases have multiplied, and it can be absolutely said that in no case does this great remedy ever fail to benefit, and if taken promptly, to cure!

And yet during that time a hundred worthless nostrums under patented catchy names have been foisted upon the public, and some of them for a brief period have had large sales. But every one of them having been tried has been found sadly wanting, and after their unscrupulous proprietors have made all the money they could in defrauding the well and seriously harming the sick, these quack medicines and their catchy, silly names have disappeared from view. There is a concoction being sold in this state today, where its speculative advertising was begun a year later than in other states, a year or two ago, which has gone the way of its predecessors so rapidly that in every section of the country where it was first exploited, the sales have dropped off as rapidly as they began, and the obscure company behind it finds it no longer possible, even by the most sensational methods, to create any demand whatever for it.

Unlike all these and other such preparations, Paine's celery compound has stood the test of time and experience. It is not a patent medicine; it is the discovery of one of the greatest physicians the world has had, probably the most successful practitioner in this country, whose reputation was already established as a specialist in nervous diseases, and who was and is the foremost authority in the world on the diseases of the mind and nerves. Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., distinguished in his way as his kinsman, that other great Vermontor of the family of Phelps, who as our recent minister to the Court of St. James so ably earned the title of diplomat and statesman.

In these last ten years, the proprietors of Paine's celery compound have been sending this greatest of all prepared remedies to the four quarters of the earth, in larger and larger shipments, relieving and curing the sick, restoring the weak and depressed to health and strength, making it possible for many and many a person to live, who could find no relief in well-intended prescriptions, or antiquated and worthless saraparillas and nervines.

In these years that have seen so many quacks come and go—no so-called medicine was put up by no more experienced a hand than a pushing Philadelphia real estate dealer; another has been and is now run in part by a group of sharp newspaper men; another which originated as a pleasant thing for colds, has added not to its virtues, but to its schemes of advertising, until it has become in the minds of its projectors a cure for all the ailments under the sun—and such instances might be multiplied. Don't touch them!

All these have had, or are having their day, while the demand for America's greatest family remedy—a real remedy for real ills—an effective tonic and honest invigorator, has not suffered from the attempted substitution of other preparations. Paine's celery compound is a medicine that cures the sick, and no high class druggist ever attempts to induce a customer to take anything in its stead.

Paine's celery compound has gone on steadily gaining in fame these years because those who have tried it have gratefully sung its praises, and in every community in the country have by word of mouth spread its fame.

According to the well known ethics of reputable physicians, this prescription was at the very outset freely presented to physicians in good standing, and the formula is gladly given today.

For that reason Paine's celery compound has never been included among patent medicines. Coming from so high a source, and so searchingly tried and recommended, physicians have long employed it as unhesitatingly as they have used their official preparations.

It drives the poison germs of deep-seated disease from the blood. It brings buoyancy of spirit in place of lassitude and despondency. It allows the overtaxed system to start fairly on the road to health. It procures the sleep so necessary to brain and nerve centers. It strengthens. It invigorates. It gives new tone to the system. It makes the blood healthy. It is food for the nerves. It makes people well!

Thousands have been benefited, thousands have been cured by Paine's celery compound, when everything else has failed.

Woman's Work in Club and Charity

The Omaha Woman's club began its work for the year 1901-1902 with a general meeting in its rooms in the First Congregational church yesterday afternoon and though 8 o'clock was the time for the opening of the meeting, the club members assembled fully half an hour earlier to arrange for reports and talk over matters pertaining to the state federation meeting, which opens today in Wayne.

In compliance with the decision last spring the session was held in the lecture room instead of the auditorium, as formerly. By this arrangement the club reduces its rent from $800 to $500 per year. Though the full membership of the organization was not present, the assembly filled the room and while in many respects it was not as pleasant as the auditorium, no serious inconvenience was experienced. One member called attention to the fact that the room was crowded and asked what should be done if the full membership should attend at one time. She was informed that the house committee had that matter under consideration and would make a report at the next meeting.

The re-elected president, Mrs. George Tilden, called the meeting to order and the invocation was by Mrs. Towle. Mrs. C. C. Belden then read a most beautiful memorial upon the death of President McKinley, signed by Mrs. C. C. Belden and Mrs. Ballew. The club accepted it by rising and it was later decided that a copy of the paper be prepared and sent to Mrs. McKinley.

The first matter of unfinished business was the report of the Louisiana purchase memorial committee by the chairman, Mrs. H. S. Jaynes. Mrs. Jaynes read the projects proposed at the Kansas city conference and reported the committee as favoring first the establishment and support of a chair for the teaching of the science of motherhood in some well established institution of learning and second, the erection of a fountain with figures historic and typical as a memorial to the Louisiana purchase. She further said that but for the difficulty of securing sufficient financial support for its maintenance the committee would have preferred the erection and maintenance of the proposed industrial model, which should include not only the teaching of the science of motherhood, but other things consistent with the general trend of the advancement of women. After a large proposition was read, the club assembled fully half an hour earlier to arrange for reports and talk over matters pertaining to the state federation meeting, which opens today in Wayne.
