Others Arrest Contractors' Employees on Charge of Obstructing Creek and Trespassing on Private Land.

T. J. Foley, Dr. J. M. Barstow, L. T. Shugart and M. A. A. Beer, property owners on South Sixth street, yesterday followed the example set by U. McMacken and served notices on Contractor Wickham and the city, protesting against the pavement of that thoroughfare.

You will take notice that the undersigned protestants and notices you to refrain from interfering with the surface levels and improvements thereon as it now exists, and protestants against and notices you to refrain from laying or constructing any paving under the contract claimed to have been entered into between the city of Council Bluffs and E. A. Wickham on August 12, 1901, and to refrain from placing any material for paving on any of the streets or expending any money on account thereof.

And further notices you and each of you that he will protest and object to the assessment of any portion of the cost of any such paving against his property and that he will decline to pay any portion of the cost of such paving, and upon the whole record as made by the city council, to which your attention is hereby directed, the action of the city council in connection with the paving of said street is unauthorized and void.

You are further notified that the undersigned will protest against the assessment of any portion of the cost of the paving of said street or of any of the streets included in said contract for paving on any of the streets or by the city in any manner whatever.

Contractor Wickham paid no attention to the notices and the work of preparing South Sixth street was continued right along.

Employe is Arrested. E. A. Wickham and William Baker, one of his employes, were arrested yesterday on a charge of obstructing Indian creek.

Wickham owns a lot on North Sixth street abutting on the creek, opposite the Dooney opera house, to which he has been hauling the earth and old cedar blocks taken off of South Sixth street. A quantity of this refuse matter has rolled into the creek and the authorities are determined to prevent the same conditions of things as prevailed at the foot of North Main street when Wickham was paving that thoroughfare.

Contractor Wickham was served last evening with a number of additional notices against the paving in the Fourth ward by interested property owners. The notices were similar to those served earlier in the day and were from E. C. Smith, protesting against the paving of First avenue; Mrs. J. J. Brown, against the paving of Seventh street; Mrs. Jane Baldwin, against the paving of First avenue and Seventh street; Dr. F. B. Seybert, against the paving of First avenue; H. B. Knowler, against the paving of Eighth street.

Contractor Wickham said he would proceed with the work, despite the protests, and last night before his departure for Kansas City left orders with his foreman to begin ploughing up the old cedar blocks this morning on First avenue and South Seventh street and as soon as that was completed to begin work on South Eighth street.

Arrest Follows Sandbank Dispute. Charles Nelson, who rents a farm from W. A. Myster near Big Lake, objects to E. A. Wickham having a right of way across his land to a sandbank from which Wickham is hauling sand for the paving of the city streets.

To prevent Wickham's wagons crossing his farm Nelson built a fence and put up a gate with a strong padlock on it. Peter Gagan, one of Wickham's employes, is alleged to have torn down the fence and Nelson had him arrested yesterday on a charge of malicious trespass and mischief. Justice Wheeler will arbitrate the dispute in his court Wednesday.

Davis sells paint. Raph's death an accident.

The coroner's jury at the inquest held yesterday morning on Jacob Raph, who was killed Wednesday afternoon by falling from a car on the Omaha & St. Louis road, returned a verdict that his death was due to an accident and that no blame is attached to anyone.

The evidence showed that Raph missed his footing while assisting the foreman of the gang in arranging the ties on a flat car and that he fell backward four feet into soft earth on his head and shoulders, breaking his neck.

Raph had lived in Council Bluffs nine years. He leaves four sons and one daughter. The funeral will be this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his son, 819 Nineteenth avenue. Rev. Falser will officiate.

Gravel roofing, A. H. Read, 541 Broadway. Grave Becomes a Defendant.

James Doyle, plaintiff in the big mining suit now on trial in the district court, was made defendant yesterday in a suit brought by T. A. Harding of Guthrie county, this state, in which he asks that Doyle be compelled to make an accounting in connection with a certain mining transaction which Harding claimed he and Doyle were interested in.

Service was obtained upon Doyle yesterday morning while in the courthouse attending the trial of his suit against Burns. In his petition Harding alleges that on or about April 17, 1897, he obtained a one-eighth interest in a gold mine known as the Little May, in the Cripple Creek district, in what is now Teller county, Colorado, from one Thomas Burke, by agreeing to pay Burke's share of the indebtedness against the mine, which aggregated at that time $12,795.26.

According to Harding, Doyle and Burke owned a one-half interest in this mine and in some manner unknown to him this indebtedness had become chargeable to them, they being obligated, he claims, to pay half of the same. Harding asserts that Doyle acknowledged his, Harding's, agreement with Burke and agreed that if Harding would place in his hands the amount of Burke's share of the indebtedness he would contribute a like sum and pay off the indebtedness against the mine.

Harding claims he placed the $6,397.63 with Doyle, but not being a resident of Colorado, was unable to give the payment of the debts against the mine his personal supervision and entrusted it to Doyle.

Harding asserts that Doyle not only failed to contribute anything toward the payment of the indebtedness, but also converted to his own use the $6,397.63 he had paid. As a consequence the debts against the mine were not paid and the mine was sold at auction and Harding lost his interest in it.

He asks that Doyle be required to produce his books and papers relating to the mine and that he have judgment for the $6,397.63 advanced by him to Doyle, with interest at 8 per cent per annum.

No progress was made with the Doyle-Burns suit yesterday and Judge Macy this morning will decide whether the motion of the defense for a continuance shall be sustained or whether simply a postponement shall be had for a sufficient length of time to enable Burns to prepare his defense to the amended petition of Doyle.
