

WHILE WORKING AT HOOKING

Unknown Negro Arrested for Murder of Dr. Falloir at Newton.

TRAMP STORY PROVES MERELY A BLIND

Detectives Said to Have Been Wanting This Man All the Time— Iowa Tax Ferret Law Upheld.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Oct. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—Detectives from this city today arrested a negro at Hooking for the murder of Dr. Falloir at Newton six weeks ago. The name of the negro is not known, but his identification is said to be perfect. He was seen at Newton the night of the murder and the report that the murder was committed by three tramps was sent out in order to throw the supposed culprit off the track. He was found working at the coal mines in Hooking. A reward of $500 had been offered for his arrest.

The Iowa supreme court today upheld the tax ferret law, which has been a source of great annoyance and the cause of much litigation in the state. The case was that of Harry Galusha, treasurer of Jasper county, against the estate of August Wendt. The case was selected as a test case because it involved practically all the questions which could be raised. Other cases, notably those from Palo Alto county, were practically submitted at the same time, but the decision was on the Jasper county case. The amount of taxes claimed against the estate amounted to $1,577.58 and it was on property omitted from the tax books in 1895-96-97. The law went into effect October 1, 1897, when the new code was put in force.

The principal ground for claiming that the tax ferret law is unconstitutional was that it was retroactive and authorized the county treasurer to place on the tax books for collection taxes which had accrued prior to the taking effect of the law. The supreme court holds that the law is not retroactive, but is remedial in nature, and the act of placing on the tax books for collection is in the nature of correcting the assessments previously made.

The objection to the law that it does not give notice to the taxpayer is swept away by the statement that the taxpayer who has committed a fraud against the state in hiding his property has no right to complain. If his property has been rightly returned in the first place he would have had a right to appear before a board and make protest. The law is held not to violate any principle of equal taxation, and the act of the assessor is not in the nature of an adjudication. The court, however, holds that interest should not have been computed prior to the going into effect of the law.

The case is reversed on the ground that there should have been a jury trial, which was denied in the trial court. In regard to the hidden property, but the effect of the decision will be to strengthen the tax ferrets and the county officials in uncovering property which will not heretofore have been taxed, and it will enrich the state by many thousands of dollars.

Following are the decisions of the court: One Shook against face of Shook and appellants, Davis county, Judge Eichelberg; action for divorce; affirmed. J. H. Trumble against J. C. Hapley and Magnus Brewing Company, appellants, Iano county, Judge Thompson; action for personal injury; affirmed. J. H. Sheldon, appellant, against T. H. Gehl, Cherokee county, Judge Gayner; action to recover money paid for another; affirmed. Ekers' National Bank, appellant, against Chicago, Minneapolis & St. Paul Railroad Company et al., Woodbury county, Judge Gayner; action to recover cattle on chattel mortgage; affirmed. Harry Galusha against Mathilde Wendt, executor, appellant, and August Wendt, Judge Dewey; tax ferret case; reversed.

State Property Jeopardized. A valuable piece of property owned by the state of Iowa is about to be lost to the state on a tax deed, which will be issued by the treasurer of Polk county December 1 next unless redemption from tax sale is made before that time. The property is just across the street from the state capitol and was purchased about three years ago out of the proceeds of the sale of the land on which the city library now stands. The property was taken subject to the tax assessments against it on account of paying the taxes at the close of the year and became due and the county treasurer advertised the property for sale and sold it to a man in Cedar Rapids. The state executive council has no authority to redeem from tax sale or pay out any money for that purpose, but an effort is being made to find some old tax warrants belonging to the state and turn them into the county treasury to redeem the state's property. If this is not done the state will lose the property, largely because nobody has been charged with the duty of looking after it.

Close of Carnival Week. The carnival week in Des Moines closed this evening and it has been regarded as generally the most unsatisfactory attempt at having a fall festival ever known to the city of Des Moines. There were few free attractions or shows that were out of the ordinary and there was much complaining among the crowds. The horse show was a great success, a large number of fine horses being shown, and the prizes given attracted many from other states. This was interfered with by rain on Thursday and the rest of the week was not pleasant.

Victim of Assault Dies. Barney O'Rourke, a well-known contractor connected with the Edison Electric Light company, died this forenoon at the hospital from the effects of a blow on the head by Charles Tilliver, colored, in a saloon row on Thursday. This was the first serious case of the affrays incident to carnival week in Des Moines. Tilliver is under arrest and the charge of murder will be placed against him.

Sheriffs Want a Change. Sheriff Garner of Boone county is in the city in the interest of the State Association of Sheriffs, which holds its annual meeting December 12. Garner is president. He is here with a view to working up legislation to be asked of the next assembly. The sheriff will denounce a change in the fee system, which is found to work to the disadvantage of the sheriffs in Iowa. It is desired to revolutionize this system and put the sheriffs and deputies on salary.

PROTESTS GIVE NO WORRY. Mayor and Aldermen Continue Work of Preparing for Paving Undisturbed.

Mayor Jennings and the aldermen are not worrying over the protests against the Fourth ward paving which interested property owners continue to urge on "Contractors' Union" and the city council. The work on preparing the streets for the brick is going on right ahead and the city officials feel secure that the protesting property owners will in the long run be compelled to pay the assessment against their property for improvement. City Solicitor Wadsworth and the members of the city council are confident that the paving was legally ordered and that the assessment for the improvement when completed will be found to be perfectly valid. When it was first determined to repave the streets in the Fourth ward many of the property owners were in favor of asphaltum, while others preferred brick. The city council was opposed to the use of asphaltum on any of the streets in this city as being expensive to maintain in proper repair. The owners who are now protesting against the brick paving are those who in the first instance favored asphaltum. It is understood that they intend to make their fight against the assessment on the grounds that the bids for the work were not properly advertised and that the contract was not let to the lowest bidder. They also claim that there are many other flaws in the action of the city council ordering the paving, which will let them out of paying for it. No matter what the result of the protests will be, Contractor Wickham will be perfectly safe and can lose nothing, although he may be asked to pay the cost of curing payment for the work. His contract with the city binds the city to make a legal and valid assessment and if this is not done in the opinion of City Solicitor Wadsworth the city will be liable for the amount due the contractor. Some of the aldermen look upon the protests as a mere bluff on the part of the persons serving them and believe that when the work is completed and the time comes to pay for the assessment, they will rather than go into court and invite expensive legislation, step up to the city clerk's desk and settle. None of the property owners who have filed protests, it is said, intend to enjoin the city from proceeding with the paving, but will allow the work to go ahead and then try to avoid paying for it. Protests were filed yesterday by A. P. Falk, First avenue and St. John's English Lutheran church, 111 Joseph L. Hayes, Rockwell, 2101 S. W. 12th, and J. J. Kelly, 12th and Franklin. One firm of attorneys appears for all those who have filed protests so far.

KING EDWARD SENDS HEIFERS. Contributes to Shipment of Fancy Herefords for the K. B. Armour Herd.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 12.—The Johnston line steamer Rowanmore, which reached Baltimore today, is expected to carry off to sea on record as the largest shipment of Hereford cattle ever made from England, the home of that breed, to America. The importation consists of 100 breeding Hereford cows, forty young Hereford calves and three Hereford bulls. They are for the late K. B. Armour herd here. E. Brittan, secretary of the English Hereford society, acted as Mr. Armour's agent. Among the great English herds from which the cattle were drawn are those of King Edward VII, from which two royal buffets, one of them a winner at the Royal cattle show in London, were secured. The Earl of Coventry contributed the prize-winning 8-year-old bull, Mercury; Admiral Brittan, a number of cows. The most notable among them, however, is the prize-winning herd bull, Majestic, obtained from James Smith, the Shillish castle. Others are the yearling bulls, "Prudentia," Lady Brand, Maymie and Silverstream, which were shown at every important show in England this season and were, as a lot, consistent winners.

LOGGE AND WOLCOTT RETURN. Neither Will Talk Politics After Their Return from Summer Outings Abroad.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts returned on the steamer St. Louis from the American line from a summer vacation abroad. Because of the senator's intimacy with President Roosevelt he was besieged by those who sought to learn his views concerning the policy of the new administration. To all inquiries, however, he made a positive declaration to be interviewed. "With Theodore Roosevelt in the White house the country is in safe hands," was all that he could be induced to say regarding national affairs. He has decided not to talk politics for the present.

Former Senator Wolcott of Colorado, who also returned on St. Louis after four months abroad, said he was not interested in public affairs and expects to take up the practice of law at Denver.

WOMEN OF MEN

Have Been Wrecked on the Rock of Sexual Vice.

Thousands Have Been Rescued by The State Electro-Medical Institute.

Which Combines All of the Curative Powers of Both Medicine and Electricity in Our Electro-Medical Treatment.

Specialists for Diseases of Men

I make no extravagant assertion when I say that millions of men have been wrecked on the rock of sexual vice. The trouble is not so much that they get disease, but rather that they allow it to grow worse through neglect or improper treatment. This fact is responsible in many cases for nine-tenths of the suffering. You should remember that sexual diseases are never at a standstill. Neither can you make any compromise with them. Unless you want central nervous system, control you and render you utterly unfit for the ordinary duties and pleasures of life. Specifics and Free Samples. Trial Treatments and the like don't cure complaints of this kind, as any one who has tried them knows. But if you have VARICOCELE, STRICTURE, CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON, NERVO-SEXUAL DEBILITY, RUPTURE, KIDNEY OR URINARY DISEASES, or any associate disease or weakness, you owe it to yourself to fully and freely investigate my treatment. I began a special study of them soon after graduating from college, now nearly a quarter of a century ago, and during all of the years since then they have been my study and persistent practice. I treat nothing else. Does it not occur to you, then, that I am better prepared to combat and conquer disease and weakness peculiar to men than the general practitioner, who, instead of concentrating his facilities on a single class of disease, scatters them over the entire field of medicine and surgery?

BEWARE OF IMITATORS. Let no one be deceived by ignorant imitators or false pretenses who seek to imitate my methods by copying my medical announcements.

None of them possess my new and original treatment for men which can only be obtained at our office. It is my knowledge and skill born of vast experience and the result of my own experiments that cures diseases of men, and my medical announcements and writings which imitators copy.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON. On account of its frightful hideousness, Contagious Blood Poison is commonly called the King of venereal diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted.

Once the system is tainted with it, the disease may manifest itself in the form of eczema, scabies, rheumatic pains, skin eruptions, eruptions or copper-colored spots on face or body, little ulcers in the nose, on the tongue, in the throat, in the tonsils, falling out of the hair or eyelids, and finally the like decay of the flesh and bone. If you have any of these or similar symptoms, you are cordially invited to consult me immediately. If I find your fears are unfounded, I will give you my opinion free of charge. If you are suffering from it, I will give you my opinion free of charge. If you are suffering from it, I will give you my opinion free of charge.

STRICTURE PAINLESSLY REMOVED. It matters not how long it has existed, nor how far advanced it is, nor how many different doctors have disappointed you, I will cure you just as certainly as you come to us for treatment. I will not do it by VARICOCELE AND ITS NEW CURE. Whatever may be the cause of varicocele, its injurious effect is well known. It depresses the mind, weakens the body, racks the nervous system, and ultimately leads to a complete loss of sexual power. If you are a victim of this dire disease come to me for treatment. I will give you my opinion free of charge. If you are suffering from it, I will give you my opinion free of charge.

NERVO-SEXUAL DEBILITY. Men, many of you are now reaping the result of your former folly. Your manhood is falling, and will soon be lost unless you do something to stop it. I will give you my opinion free of charge. If you are suffering from it, I will give you my opinion free of charge.

BRING RANK INTO RIDICULE. British Generals Are Cutting Queer Capers Before the Public.

KNIGHT OF BATH WEDS AT THE FRONT. Veteran Commander Takes Wife Whom He Has Not Seen for Twenty Years—Buller is Hopelessly in Disrepute.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The South African campaign has a curious effect on British generals. Public attention is centered on General Buller's extraordinary exhibition, while society is gossiping about the remarkable action of another general. This is a knight commander of the Bath, holding a high command in South Africa. He is over 60 years of age, has been a widower for two years and has engaged himself by letter to marry a woman of 50 whom he has not seen for twenty years. The bride-elect, who is an Irish woman, is preparing to go out to South Africa.

As for General Buller, he seems to have forever shattered every vestige of his reputation. A reporter of the Associated Press learns that previous to General Buller's speech of Thursday he had received several plain hints from the officers expressing the hope that he would not accept invitations to make speeches. His appointment to the command of an army corps was made in a spirit of generosity. It was thought that General Buller could not do much harm in the two years before he retired. Failure to appoint him would have suggested a public disgrace which the War office was not willing to inflict on him, believing that General Buller had done his duty to the best of his ability.

One of the highest officials connected with the administration of the army said to a representative of the Associated Press: "The ultrarian spirit of the age has taken away those securities, such as governor of Tanganyika, which have hitherto been a check, with which, a hundred years ago, Buller might be shelved and at the same time rewarded. We had no alternative but to reward General Buller's long and conscientious period of service by kicking him out or giving him a command which his own demands and other optimistic prophets are unintentionally more to blame than any one else. No one got up and said the war in Burma was over or that it would be over in a foolishly short space of time. It lasted nearly four years and the British public took it as a matter of course. This South African war has probably got another two years to run, developing like the Burma affair into a subaltern's campaign. Continual local disturbances are being put down by the small garrisons. To supervise such work we know of no one better than Lord Kitchener. His chief deputy, which seems to have missed the attention of the critics, is that he is prohibited from destroying supplies to any degree of military thoroughness. If I could concentrate or deport the natives I think an effective devastation would quickly end the campaign."

Capture Sick Commander. LONDON, Oct. 12.—Lord Kitchener reports to the War office from Pretoria under today's date that General French's columns have captured Commandant Scheeper. Lord Kitchener does not state whether Scheeper's commando, which has been active in Cape Colony, was captured or not. The British have been in pursuit for a couple of weeks. Scheeper himself was so ill that he was obliged to travel in a buggy.
