

"77" BREAKS UP STUBBORN COLDS

As the cold nubs your fingers and toes, so taking Cold nubs your vital organs, causing weak heart action, difficult respiration and torpid liver. A few doses of "77" restores the checked circulation, sends the blood coursing through the veins, restoring every organ to its normal condition, and the Cold is "broken up" and passes off of necessity.

"77" is a small vial of pleasant pellets that just fits the vest pocket.

A Nice Little Sum And a Neat Illustration of Profit and Protection;

EDGAR, Neb., Sept. 30, 1901. Mr. H. D. Neely, Manager, Merchants Ntl. Bk. Bldg., Omaha, Neb. Dear Sir:— The Equitable Life Assurance Society's check for $52.15, for policy No. 330,603, came duly to hand, for which please accept my thanks.

Fifteen years ago you induced me to take out the above policy. At that time I was in active business and did not miss my annual dues, but now, as I have had to sell out my business on account of my health, the 15-year term period has expired and I find I have an opportunity of receiving from you a nice little sum, besides having my life insured all the time.

I have but the best words to say for the Equitable. Yours truly, WILLIAM SAXTON.

Of course his policy was in the Equitable Life—the company of definite and substantial results. You can do as well or better.

REFORM IN SCHOOL BOARD

Republican City Convention Adopts Significant Platform for Candidates.

PUBLICITY AND ECONOMY THE KEY-NOTES

Candidates Chosen Are in Harmony with the Sentiments Expressed by the Resolutions Adopted by Delegates.

For Members of the Board of Education—CHARLES STEIGER, Second Ward; WILLIAM B. CHRISTIE, Fifth Ward; MORRISON, Fourth Ward; FRANK G. DAVIS, Seventh Ward; H. S. MANN, Eighth Ward.

It took the republican city convention, which was held last night at Washington hall, less than an hour to transact its business. The nomination of the above ticket for school directors and police judge and the adoption of several resolutions. The business was facilitated by a combination which had been formed in the afternoon of the First, Third, Fourth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth wards, controlling more than a majority of the votes.

The convention was called to order soon after 8 o'clock, in the absence of Chairman Allen, by Mr. Suberth, who immediately introduced Judge J. H. Blair of the Fourth ward as temporary chairman. F. J. Morton was elected temporary secretary, and then a motion to seat the delegates whose names had been handed in was carried unanimously, as there was no contest.

A motion to make the temporary organization permanent was amended so as to substitute E. C. Wolcott of the Sixth ward in place of Judge Blair for chairman and then passed. Mr. Wolcott made no speech upon taking the chair, but proceeded immediately with the business of the convention.

Resolutions deploring the tragic death of President McKinley and condemning anarchy were adopted by a rising vote.

Pledges for Candidates. Charles W. Haller introduced the following resolutions, which were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That the secret ballot is the prerogative of the sovereign voter, who is responsible to his own conscience only, but its use by municipalities is a representative capacity, whether in congress, state legislature, city council or school boards, is a serious and subversive of the principle of responsible government.

Resolved, That the nominees of this convention are hereby pledged to labor earnestly for a more economical and efficient administration of the public school system.

Resolved, That the nominees of this convention are pledged to maintain, as far as possible, and extend civil service methods in the government of public schools and in the employment of teachers.

Resolved, That we expressly discontinue the use by members of the board of the influence of their position to procure the appointment or promotion of relatives on the salary list of the schools.

Resolved, That we favor such a distribution of school facilities as will give every child in the city of Omaha an opportunity to enjoy the benefits of public school education.

Nominations were then declared in order and the wards were called in their numerical order. The First ward had no candidate to present, the Second named Dr. Louis Swoboda, the Third announced that it had no candidate of its own, but would place Charles Steiger of the Second in nomination, the Fourth presented the name of George T. Nicholson, the Fifth brought out William B. Christie, the Sixth named W. R. Homan, the Seventh nominated Frank G. Davis and C. E. Bates, the Eighth added H. S. Mann to the list and the Ninth passed.

Only One Ballot. The first and only ballot resulted as follows: Christie, 80; Mann, 75; Homan, 70; Steiger, 67; Davis, 62; Nicholson, 23; Swoboda, 23; Bates, 18. Nicholson received 1 vote from the First ward, 8 from the Second, 4 from the Seventh and 8 from the Ninth in addition to the 10 from his own ward. Swoboda was given 8 votes from the Fourth, 4 from the Seventh and 1 from the Ninth to add to the 10 of the Second. Bates received only 4 votes from his own ward, 4 from the Second and 8 from the Fourth.

As Messrs. Christie, Mann, Homan, Steiger, Mann, Davis received a majority on the first ballot they were declared the unanimous nominees of the convention.

Louis Berka was nominated for police judge by acclamation and acknowledged the compliment in a neat little speech.

DEMOCRATS FAIL TO NOMINATE

City Convention Meets and Almost Immediately Adjourns Until Monday Evening.

The democratic city convention was slow in assembling last night, much time being consumed in conference between the delegates before they were ready to form in convention.

W. H. Herdman early in the evening suggested adjournment until Monday evening so that the democrats could have the advantage of picking men against the republican nominees. He advanced this idea until he thought he had captured the majority of the delegates when the convention was called to order.

There was considerable discussion of the story that the Municipal league had been requested to make the democratic candidates. Will Herdman said the league had been consulted, while W. O. Gilbert denounced the story as a fake. Several of the delegates objected to the idea.

W. O. Gilbert was made chairman and E. A. Smith secretary.

As soon as the organization had been announced J. E. Reagan moved that the convention adjourn until Monday evening and that a committee of five be appointed by the chair to report ten names to the convention Monday next. The way the candidates be selected. This carried unanimously. J. E. Reagan, Ernest Mertens, W. H. Herdman, R. J. Atchison and E. E. Berrymen were appointed on the committee and the convention adjourned to meet Monday evening at the same place.

OMAHA GATLING ON TOUR

John C. Arnout Writes Home of the Section's Experience in Various Cities.

John C. Arnout, a member of the Omaha Guards Gatling gun section, which is now a feature of the Orpheum vaudeville circuit, writes from Pittsburg to an Omaha friend, detailing the experiences the team had since it has been on the road.

They opened at Rochester and then went to Philadelphia. First the latter place they were jumped to Montreal, where they witnessed the reception to the duke of York and Cornwall. In the meantime they have played in a number of smaller cities and have been given an unusual opportunity to see the real life of the people of the east.

Quite a number of the boys and their companions are interested in the conditions surrounding the citizen soldier and that they have visited and inspected the armories in every town where they have stopped is not to be wondered at. One thing they report is that they have found the National Guard better cared for in the eastern states than in the west.

In his letter Mr. Arnout draws a strong contrast between the state supplied armories of the east and those the guards are compelled to be content with in Nebraska. He reports the health of the team as good and says the boys are enjoying their experience to the limit.

LONG TIME ON POLICE FORCE

Patrol Conductor Andy Fahey Celebrates His Sixteenth Year of Service.

Patrol Conductor Andy Fahey, one of the police department's "grand old men," began his sixteenth year of continuous service last night. It was October 12, 1886, that he was first hired on the force, and since that time he has held his place through the reorganization into a metropolitan department and under all the various boards. In point of consecutive service he is second only to Sergeant Dempsey.

During Fahey's fifteen years on the force he has been on duty on every occasion that occasion a charge of conduct unbecoming an officer was preferred against him and the specifications recited that he had smoked a cigar while in full uniform, though off duty. The police board acquitted Fahey and it is a matter of record that within a week the over-particular sergeant who made the charge against him was himself dismissed from the force for a far more serious offense.

ELKS GO NORTH TO HUNT

Two Parties of Omaha Nimrods Are Now in the Forests of Minnesota.

Judge Ainscow, George P. Moore and George Giacomini, accompanied by several friends, are at the present time on a hunting trip, to be extended later to Pine Ridge agency. They took along almost an entire carload of supplies and will be absent about two weeks.

A second party, consisting of Dr. Downs, Charles Metz, William Marsh and others, left yesterday and will go into camp five miles from the Ainscow party. C. A. Lewis will join the Downs party early this week. The sport these Elks will enjoy can probably better be imagined than described. They are all good hunters and the brethren of the lodge sincerely hope that nothing will occur to mar their pleasure.

LeW. Raber left yesterday morning for Greeley Center, where he will enjoy the best of his hunting and recreation.

LION IS SAILORS' MASCOT

Recruiting Officers for Uncle Sam's Navy Carry an Interesting Pet.

TARRY TOLIGHTS IS THE ANIMAL'S NAME

Admiral Crowninshield is Authority for the Statement that the Navy is in Need of Six Thousand Recruits.

John J. Killin, ensign in the United States navy, has arrived in the city and on Monday will open a recruiting office in the McCague building for the purpose of enlisting landsmen, seamen, machinists, electricians and apprentices for the United States navy.

The recruiting party carries a mascot which is regularly enlisted in the navy. Tarry Tolights is a baby lion about 3 months old and is one of the most attractive mascots in the navy. Other crews have parrots, monkeys, cats and dogs, but this recruiting party is the only crew in the navy which has a lion for a mascot.

The United States, according to the report of Admiral Crowninshield, is in urgent need of 6,000 additional men, and it is for the purpose of securing these that the recruiting parties have been sent to the west.

In recent years congress has paid considerable attention to the navy, and there is an actual shortage of 2,000 men and the other 5,000 will be needed soon on account of the expiration of the terms of service of others.

Navy Becomes More Popular. In previous years the navy has not been as popular as the army with young men who have aspired to positions higher than warrant officers. In the United States army it has always been possible for private to be examined for promotion and if found worthy they were given commissions, no place in the army being beyond their attainment.

The last congress changed this condition in a measure and made it possible for a limited number of seamen to rise above the rank of ensign. This was done by permitting six gunners and six boatswains of certain age, not to exceed 30 years, to be examined for promotion, and when promoted to ensign or chief gunner, he could request examination for a commission. He would, if found proficient, be commissioned as ensign, but this was the end of all promotion. When he retired he received the pay of junior lieutenant.

Ante Room Echoes. Judge Gustave Anderson left Omaha Friday for Washington, where he will participate in the biennial session of the supreme council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasons, to which he was elected at the session of that council two years ago.

The supreme council of the order at Washington is the governing body of the Scottish Rite throughout the world. Lodges of this rite have probably existed in other countries previous to the organization of any in the United States, but the records proving their existence do not go back as far as the United States is recognized as the head of the rite.

At the session to be held this week will be commemorated the centennial of the rite in this country. Prominent Masons from all parts of the world will be present and the services will be elaborate and impressive.

Scottish Rite Masons of Nebraska are making arrangements to hold a reunion at Omaha the latter part of November. If present indications are fulfilled the classes at this reunion will be larger than those at any other reunion.

The activity on the part of the Scottish Rite Masons is finding an echo in the ranks of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. The members of Tangier temple are preparing to hold a ceremonial reunion at the close of the reunion of the Scottish Rite.

The Nebraska grand lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet at Kearney Tuesday. Omaha delegates will leave Monday.

Nebraska lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, had quite a large attendance at its meeting last Monday night. It is pleasing to note that the devotion of the members to their lodge as well as their interest in the principles of the order is increasing.

The grand lodge of Knights of Pythias of the Nebraska domain met in Lincoln last week and through some untoward circumstances failed to land Brother J. H. Bexten in the supreme representative chair.

On next Tuesday evening Trilene lodge No. 105, Knights of Pythias, will give a social and entertainment to the members and their friends. Refreshments will be served and a general good time indulged in.

Clan Gordon No. 65, Order of Scottish Clans, held its regular meeting Tuesday evening and it was arranged to hold a Halloween social Tuesday, October 23, in their hall, the Continental building annex, Fifteenth and Douglas streets. All Scottish people are invited, and the "Kitties" will be here on December 10.

Seven new members were received into the Elk lodge at the last meeting. The present membership is about 550.

The first dancing party of the season that was held this month was such an entire success that a second dance has been ordered early in November.

Arrangements have already been commenced for the memorial service of the Elks lodge, which will be held on Sunday, December 1.

He says he now enjoys excellent health and restful sleep every night. G. D. Young of Wilmer, Iowa, says: "For years I bore about my body the piteous spectacle of disease, and death stared me in the face. I now thank heaven I am a well man, and owe it all to your victory over disease and death." Mrs. B. Bond of Dunkirk, N. Y., who was cured of asthma, dropsy, heart trouble and female weakness, writes that she recommends Dr. Peebles' treatment to all her sick friends and relatives—in fact, to all suffering humanity.
