

FLYER FROM COAST TO COAST

Vanderbilt and Harriman Lines to Have One Fast Train.

NEW YORK TO 'RISCO WITHOUT CHANGE

Arrangements All but Completed for a Marked Departure in the Passenger Service of the Great Systems.

The new coast-to-coast limited, to be placed in service on November 3 by the New York Central and Lake Shore, in conjunction with the Harriman lines, has made an important change necessary in the Union Pacific's winter schedule.

This schedule has been fully agreed upon and was complete, with the exception of a few minor details, when a telegram came from Chicago announcing the Central's new train. E. L. Lomax, general passenger and ticket agent of the Union Pacific, went to Chicago yesterday to confer with the North-western and Lake Shore officials in regard to connections for the new train.

There is no doubt that a satisfactory agreement will be reached by the representatives of the roads interested and the new service inaugurated promptly on time. It is probable, however, that an announcement of the Union Pacific's schedule will be delayed until Saturday or perhaps later because of this new development.

FREIGHT RATES RIDICULOUS

North British Company's Agents So Designate Those Prevailing in Great Britain.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Frederick E. Flanagan, general freight agent of the North British Railway company, a Scotch line, who has been studying railroad methods for the past month in this country, sailed for his home today. In speaking of the results of his investigations Mr. Flanagan said: "I shall endeavor to introduce the thirty-ton freight car, which are more economical than the small trucks and wagons we use. Many of our railroads complain of undue competition. This applies only to the passenger department. So far as freight is concerned there is practically no competition in the ordinary sense of the term. In fact, we have ridiculous overcharges in comparison with American rates. In Great Britain the average rate is a little less than 4 cents per ton per mile. If our rates were reduced to the American scale our trade and manufacturing would be such a boon as has not been seen for many a day."

RAILROAD FIGHT ON SHINGLES

Northern Pacific Will Continue to Apply Old Rate, Spite of Association's Advance.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—The Northern Pacific will continue to apply the old rate on shingles from the Pacific coast to St. Louis, despite the action of the Western Passenger Association lines in canceling joint through tariffs and ordering a 3-cent advance. This will be done by using the Burlington via Billings. The former's through tariff via St. Paul route, however, will be canceled, and the lines taken out of this point. Neither will Chicago nor Missouri river points be benefited, as they will be supplied by association lines. The Great Northern has intimated that it will meet Northern Pacific competition in St. Louis, using lines southward of St. Paul, but has not yet set up its regular coast tariff to this point out into the arbitrariness, which its connections are expected to demand.

HILL FAILS TO ARRANGE IT

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Important conference was held today by bankers interested in the adjustment of the Northern Pacific matter, but the problem has not yet been solved. James J. Hill and members of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. met in the afternoon and discussed the matter, but at the conclusion it was announced that nothing definite had been accomplished. Members of the Harriman syndicate were also said to be in conference during the day. Both sides declared the situation is not critical. At the office of J. P. Morgan & Co. it was stated that Mr. Morgan is expected to return on Saturday.

RUSH BUILDING TO LOS ANGELES.

Both Union Pacific and Clark Lines Will Be Pushed.

President Burt and Chief Engineer Berry of the Union Pacific left Monday afternoon for Salt Lake City to confer with the Oregon Short Line officials regarding the extension to Los Angeles via Nevada. The two men have been in the court for some time, but it is said that the main legal difficulties have been removed. Well informed railroad men predict that the building of the line will be vigorously pushed from this time forward. It is understood that the Kilpatrick Bros. & Collins, the big contractor firm which has just completed several million dollars worth of work for the Union Pacific in Wyoming, has received the contract for the Los Angeles grade.

The work of building Senator Clark's new road, the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake, from Los Angeles to Salt Lake City in direct competition with the Short Line extension, is being pushed. J. Ross Clark, second vice president of the road, says: "We are preparing to begin operations at the Salt Lake end. Lines have been run out of that city and in a short time it will be possible to decide which is the best of them. Then work will begin. I think it will be by the opening of the new year."

"As to any connection eastward from Salt Lake there is little to say. It is a subject we are not thinking much about. The Burlington is in building distance, and it looks as if the road would be in Salt Lake in time to give us a connection. It will be ways to handle all our business eastward when our road is there. We are not at all anxious on that point."

"Meantime the company is taking time by the forelock and getting plenty of equipment for its new line. One hundred forty-ton flat-bed rail cars, one hundred forty-ton box cars, two baggage cars, three combination cars, four coaches, three chair cars and three parlor cars, all of the most modern construction and to be turned out as fast as possible for the road."

To Ratify Atchison Purchase.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A circular has been issued to the stockholders of the Atchison Railway company, saying that at the annual meeting on December 3 they will be asked to ratify the purchase of the Atchison stock and bonds of the Pecos Valley & Northwestern Railway company, and the capital stock and second mortgage bonds of the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix Railway company.

Harriman Heads Another.

BOSTON, Tex., Oct. 22.—At a meeting today of the stockholders of the Galveston

Harrisburg & San Antonio (Southern Pacific) officers were elected as follows: President, E. H. Harriman of New York; vice president, S. J. Kruttschnitt of San Francisco; secretary, C. G. Segar; treasurer, B. C. Cushman.

In New Milwaukee Road's Property.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 22.—The Janesville & Southern Railway company filed a deed with the secretary of state transferring its line between Janesville and Libertyville, Ill., to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. The consideration was $1,100,000.

HIGH PRICE FOR LIVE CATTLE

Branch of Steers and Heifers Brings $6.30 Per Hundred at South Omaha.

That choice cattle are bringing high prices on the South Omaha market was again demonstrated yesterday by the sale of a bunch of steers and heifers at the highest price of the season. The cattle were raised on a farm at Papillion owned by A. W. Clark. They were nearly 2 years old and were Whitefaces and Short-horns. For nearly a year they have been on full feed and were given a ration of cornmeal and alfalfa hay. When weighed at the stock yards yesterday they showed an average weight of 1,257 pounds and sold for $6.30.

The highest price paid previous to this time was $6.25 and that was for straight steers. The fact that out of the nineteen head marketed by Mr. Clark there were ten heifers makes this sale by far the highest of the season. The two former presidents of the $6.30 is the highest price ever paid at South Omaha for that many heifers.

Mr. Clark is a firm believer in the theory that it pays to raise good cattle and in making them fat before sending them to market. He has one of the best equipped feeding yards in the state and he seldom fails to sell the market whenever he has cattle for sale.

LAWYERS OF STATE TO MEET

Local Committee Preparing for Annual Convention of Nebraska Bar Association.

The local committee of the State Bar association is preparing the program for the annual meeting of that association, which will be held in this city January 9 and 10. At the first session the business of the organization will be transacted, including the reports of officers, reports of committees, and the election of officers for the ensuing year. The evening session will be devoted to the reading and discussion of papers, which will be the order of business at the two sessions to be held the second day. The meeting will close with a banquet on the evening of January 10.

A remarkable feature of this meeting will be the presence of the president and two former presidents of the American Bar association, Judge U. M. Ross of Little Rock, Ark., having accepted an invitation to be present. The two former presidents of that association will be General C. F. Manderson and Judge J. M. Woolworth.

Papers will be presented by Judge Hastings, John L. Webster, Judge Roscoe Pound, Judge George A. Day and F. A. Brogan. The sessions will be held in one of the federal court rooms.

QUESTIONS FORM OF BALLOT

Case in Supreme Court Which Will Interfere with Printing of Samples.

The institution of a suit in the supreme court to determine the form of the official ballot under the new ballot law will interfere somewhat with the printing of the sample ballots by both County Clerk Haverly and City Clerk Elbourn. The county clerk has advised that the two clerks will have to issue a provisional sample ballot and be guided in the makeup of the official ballot by the supreme court decision. TO TALK OF CONSOLIDATION

Realty Exchange Invites Other Organizations Into Its City and County Scheme.

Secretary Shriver of the Real Estate exchange is sending invitations to the commercial, industrial and political clubs and societies asking them to select delegates to represent them at the meeting to be held at the city hall November 21 for the purpose of devising a plan for the consolidation of Omaha, South Omaha and Florence into one city and county organization. Invitations will go to all such societies in the county with the recommendation that each select three delegates for the first meeting and that the delegates be empowered to speak for the organizations they represent.

THIMBLES AND DANDRUFF.

An Interesting Parallel and a Valuable Deduction Therefrom.

Cutting down thimbles so more relieves the head of thimbles than does scouring the scalp cure dandruff. In each case permanent relief can only come from eradicating permanently the cause. A germ that plows up the scalp in searching for the hair root, where it saps the vitality, causes dandruff, falling hair and baldness. If you kill that germ you'll have no dandruff, but a luxuriant suit of hair. Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation in the world that causes dandruff, falling hair and baldness by killing the germ. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Announcements of the Theaters.

Those who are suffering from low spirits should see "The Wrong Mr. Wright," with Harry Beresford and an excellent company, at the Boyd theater this afternoon and tonight. "The Wrong Mr. Wright," which is from the pen of George H. Broadhurst, is overloaded with humorous situations and amusing complications, and Harry Beresford as Seymour Sites comes first and foremost as the laugh-maker of the piece. Mr. Beresford will be remembered as having appeared here a season with the Woodward Stock company.

EXPENSIVE DASH IN COURT

Douglas Precinct Farmers Take to Litigation Over a Trifle.

LEGAL FEES WILL RUN INTO HUNDREDS

Only Question at Issue is Whether Jesse Root ought to Pay Falconer Gifford $2.50 Damages Wrought by Stray Holstein Calves.

When Jesse C. Root's Holstein calves crawled through a wire fence and got into Falconer Gifford's garden trough bean on Douglas precinct, Gifford did not mind having his onions and carrots trampled into a pulp, but he couldn't stand to have his rutabagas ruined.

Friends of the two men tried to bring about a reconciliation and the result was a feud that involved the entire neighborhood. Gifford would not erect a continuation of stalls all along the Jackson street front of the property. There will be enough for each of the traders to secure one and that will double our revenue from the market. These temporary selling places can be built in one long, shed-like building at a low expense.

"Everything is now ready for the plan to proceed. We have a safe majority in the council and are waiting only upon the necessary ordinance from City Attorney Connell condemning the property. We will get that by next Tuesday's council meeting and can then rush matters."

Mr. Connell said that he was in possession of data from Mr. Hassall relative to the ordinance he is to draw and that he would get it out as soon as the present trial of a damage suit against the city in the district court is concluded.

WANTS SPECIFIC CHARGES

School Board Insists Upon Having Particulars Before Investigating Miss Reed's Case.

No action will be taken by the school board in connection with the charges filed against Miss Ivy Reed, a teacher of the eighth grade in the Cass Street school, until the colored people behind the movement add to their information filed with the board complete elucidation of the unexplained references in the communication.

Members of the board were unanimous in an opinion that a thorough investigation should precede all else, and were especially interested in a clause stating that this affair was not the first of that nature which had occurred.

As a result of this sentiment Secretary Burgess has addressed to the committee of colored people who have taken the initiative in the matter a formal communication from the board demanding an exact statement of the alleged facts to which they refer.

The deputy sent his resignation to the sheriff, together with his star, and immediately began to work for the republican ticket. He is a resident of the Second ward and has been active in politics for many years. Several times he has been a candidate for office. Last year he was defeated for county commissioner by A. C. Harje.

NO CASE AGAINST WHITNEY

Charge of Conducting Disorderly House Not Sustained by the Evidence.

Den Whitney, charged with maintaining a disorderly house at Forty-second and Hamilton streets, and nine others, charged with being frequenters, were discharged in police court yesterday morning. Whitney runs a cigar store at the above mentioned address and the prosecuting officer testified that gambling is carried on systematically in a back room, but as there was no game in progress at the time the raid was made the officer's testimony was thrown out. Twenty witnesses were on hand to testify in Whitney's behalf. After hearing the evidence of two of these city prosecutor moved to dismiss the case.

HASCALL TALKS OF MARKET

Councilman Believes Proposed Site Can Be Purchased for Thirty Thousand Dollars.

Councilman Hascall says that in his opinion the proposed city market site, comprising the half block between Eleventh and Twelfth streets on the south side of Jackson street, can be purchased for $30,000 after the property is condemned.

"They may ask more for it, because they know we want it," said Mr. Hascall, "but I believe we can get it for that figure. The site consists of four lots of 65x132 feet each."

"Of course, I do not contemplate any possibility of the city being able to do more than secure the property for the time being. It will then be just that much ahead, and when it becomes feasible, we can build the market house we wish for. This should be a one-story building of vast extent, but will not be costly."

"If all this, however, can be erected a continuation of stalls all along the Jackson street front of the property. There will be enough for each of the traders to secure one and that will double our revenue from the market. These temporary selling places can be built in one long, shed-like building at a low expense."

NEW BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

Series Dealing with Life in Virginia in the Old Days.

HOW A CRIPPLED CHILD WAS CARED FOR

Stories of the War from the Confederate Point of View—Struggle for Welsh Independence—Book for Young People.

Marion Harland has been before the reading public for too many years to occasion any doubt in one's mind before the perusal of her latest book, "In Our Country." The volume is a collection of short stories, all dealing with Virginia life of about fifty years ago. "Dodder," the first tale, is a pathetic picture of the faithfulness of love. "The Family Skeleton" is a very strong story based upon the theory of intermarriage—a story almost sinister in its logical development. It is well that for reading that pretty romance, terminating in a blissful comedy, the reader is more able to compose his nerves. "At the Spa," a comedy with its little dash of tragic moral, "V. V.," bright, cheerful and vivacious, and "Martha," a story of the devotion of an old black nurse to a founding "left by the angels," are all pretty pictures of "the olden days," giving the reader vivid flashes of the men and women who lived and had their being then. "The Desire of His Eyes" inspires a feeling of honest disgust, while in "The Lethe Mystery" Mrs. Terhune has woven a good old-fashioned hair-raising ghost story. G. P. Putnam Sons, New York. Price $1.50.

"As a Falling Star," by Eleanor Gaylord Phelps, tells the story of a crippled child found on the steps of a hospital, abandoned by his parents. His helpless condition and remarkable beauty appeal to a wealthy young woman who happens to see him and she gives him a home. The story is a delicate little study of two unusual temperaments and of the development of the woman's character through her care for the child. The account of a trip to Europe in the vain pursuit of health for little John brings in some clever description of the cities and people of Italy. A. C. McClurg Company, Chicago. Price, $1.

George W. Cable's latest story, "The Cavalier," is a continuous tale of war. The author puts his narrative into the mouth of Richard Thorndyke Smith, who is suddenly promoted from a quartermaster's clerkship to an active place in Perry's scouts. This young man is a Smith of New Orleans. He tells his tale from the confederate point of view, and by so much it is something of a novelty in current literature. The harsher side of camp and army life does not monopolize the chapters. There are pretty women in view and often it is cupid himself who is in the scout. Mr. Cable has not contented himself with a single plot. He has given here stories within a story. Charles Scribner's Sons, New York. Price, $1.50.

The Putnam have added to their "Heroes of the Nations" series "Owen Gleeson and the Last Struggle for Welsh Independence" by Arthur Granville Bradley. In leading up to the time of the chief events connected with the life of the hero the author gives a rapid and witty retelling of the Welsh history. The Welsh made a great fight, but a hopeless one, and were forced to bow the knee in victory to their conquerors. This history is a great tribute to the man. The Putnam are doing a good work in publishing books of this kind, which goes to prove that there is in real history, and in the history of the lives far more interesting than anything to be found in fiction. G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York.

The metric system for weights and measures of distances is commonly used by most countries aside from England and the United States and sooner or later will unquestionably be adopted by these two countries. It is gradually becoming a universal system and every reader of the newspapers or current literature is frequently perplexed by the mention of some distance expressed in metrical figures. H. R. T. Hermann has brought out a little book of vest pocket size which explains at a glance the meaning of all these strange terms, besides giving a brief explanation of the system itself. Published by the Thomas D. Murphy Company, Red Oak, Ia.

C. Stuart Gager of the state normal school at Albany, N. Y., has written a little book of seventy-five pages entitled "Errors in Science Teaching," which might be read with profit by teachers. Being a diminutive volume, it is quickly read and teachers might gain some scientific information that would keep them from falling into the errors most frequently made. C. W. Bardeen, publisher, Syracuse, N. Y. Price, 50 cents.

CROWE IS NOW IN SUNNY SOUTH

So Says a Letter from Detective Frank E. Johnston to Sheriff Power.

Pat Crowe's latest rendezvous is on a plantation near New Orleans. Frank E. Johnston, detective, "mostly from California," is confident that he has Crowe located. Sheriff Power received the following letter from Johnston:

Please send me a description of Pat Crowe, as I believe him to be near here on a plantation. If I can secure a photo of him, there are many marks on Pat that I can identify. I wish you would let me know at once. I am a U. S. detective, and I have been in California for the most two months. If this man proves to be Pat Crowe, I can have him in jail in ten days. Keep this to yourself, as I hear from the again, as it will injure me in my brotherhood lodges and halls, as Pat is supposed to be a K. of H. and U. of E. lodges which are very well looked on in this country.
