Rev. Ament Describes Oriental Character to Christian Endeaverers.

HOPE FOR THE MASSES OF THE PEOPLE

State Convention Hears the Story of Four Hundred Million People to Whom the Light is Slow in Coming.

William S. Ament is a man who has lived a quarter century in the heart of China, who has learned the language and the mode of thought, worn the garb and made himself Chinese in order that he might make his influence felt. In an address at the Kountze Memorial church last night Mr. Ament shared with the state convention of the Christian Endeavorers his inticulminating in the seige of Pekin. He expects to return soon to spend another quarter century working under the direction of the American Board of Missions.

Mr. Ament's estimate of the Chinese character is both good and bad, according Harmon of David City. as its fundamental inconsistency warrants. "The Chinese officials," he says, "are corrupt to the heart's core. They have not the faintest conception of uprightness in office. From the mass of the people, on the other hand, much is to be hoped.

They are cheerful, faithful and intelligent. "The Chinaman is the keenest observer of human nature on the globe. When I first went there I wore the Chinese clothes and sewed a queue under my hat that I might impress upon the Chinese my wish to identify myself with them. But no such pains were necessary. If you love a Chinaman he will see it and feel it without the aid of any demonstration.

Human Nature Much Alike.

"After all, the world is very small and closely allied. If you pierce the tough tegumen of a Chinese you will find a man as other men, with all the essential qualities for a noble destiny. If you penetrate the shyness of a woman or a child you will find kind hearts true, just as in any part of the world. All these men need is contact with the heart of Christ and we are but traitors if some of us do not carry the word to them.' Following his description of the Chinese the seige of Pekin, during which he and his comrades were reduced to the direct extremity. "Pekin is the most cosmopolitan city in the world," he said, "and been the storm center of the nations of the earth. A year ago I saw marching up its streets the nations of the earth. A year ago I saw marching up its streets the cream of the military of the civilized world. I saw, too, soldiers of no less bravery of whom Europeans

"There were the Tartars, magnificent men, who once knocked at the gates of Vienna, who appeared on the banks of the Danube, savage and invincible soldiers who spread alarm over Europe. These men ride day and tight and drink the blood of their horses, if such extremity arises, in order that they may push on further. There were the Bengal lancers, every soldier a hereditary nobleman."

Story of the Siege.

Mr. Ament told again the story of the investment of the British legation, a few hundred men and women pitted against thousands of murderous fanaties. Three thousand shells were fired at the legation in twenty-six days, the inmates enjoying nothing short of providential. The defense was carried on with an admirable system. Committees were busily engaged in looking after the sanitation, the food supply and countless other essentials. None were idle. None quailed at the prospect of death.

There came to us an unspeakable relief and thankfulness which none can understand," concluded Mr. Ament, "when we heard the reports of the rapid-fire guns We knew there were none such among the Chinese forces."

The evening session of the Christian Endeavorers was preceded by an "acquaintance social" in the parlors of the First Congregational church. Each delegate wore a card giving his name and church affiliation and the hours from 5 to 7 were spent very pleasantly, concluding with a lunch. The Endeavor colors, crimson and white, are generously used in the decorations. with flags bearing the monogram "C. E." The portrait of "Father Endeavor" Clark occupies a prominent place.

Delegates Are Scattered.

In the afternoon the delegates were scattered at denominational conferences among a number of churches. At the First Christian Rev. H. J. "How Has Twenty Years of spoke briefly of some of the things required Christian Endeavor Work Developed the of the women and mothers as missionaries Young People?" Rev. Harry C. ## BAPTIST WOMEN'S QUARTERLY Notes and Confer as to Plans.

The Baptist Women's Missionary societies of the city met yesterday in their regular quarterly at Calvary Baptist church. Mrs F. W. Foster, president of the quarterly opened the meeting at 11 o'clock for devoional services, which lasted until noon when dinner was served to all by the women of Calvary church. After a social hour the afternoon session was called to order at 2 o'clock and an interesting program was given.

Mr. C. C. Belden was the first speaker explaining to the women the qualifications required of them as voters in the school board election and urging upon them the necessity of their accepting their responsibility and voting. The women were much interested and had many questions to ask. Mrs. Handel of Shenandoah, Ia., who has a daughter in the mission field in India

After a vocal solo by Mrs. Noble brief reports were given from the five circles renresented in the quarterly. Miss Arnott who for the last five years has been work ing as a missionary under the Congregational board, gave an interesting account of her work among the negroes in the black belt of the southern states, speaking compared with those of the north. Mrs. E. W. Johnson, Miss Millie Simmons and Mrs. H. W. Davis each gave three-minute reports of the state convention recently held t Blair, they being delegates from the Omaha organization. #### IT'S AWFUL DRY IN HAWAII to Says J. H. Quarles, Who Has Just Received a Letter from Honolulu.

"Speaking of the Kansas drauth," said Attorney J. H. Quarles of Elm Creek, Neb., who is stopping at the Millard hotel, "Kansas is a quagmire compared with some parts of Hawaii. I have a letter here from my brother Charles, who is now spending his fifth year in Honolulu, and he says he has never seen such spells of dry weather, and natives say it hasn't had an equal in fifteen years. And in addition to the drouth forest fires are raging. In the counties of Hamakua and Kohla it has been impossible to raise anything to eat, and bananas, unless protected by netting, have been devoured by birds. "Here is a sample paragraph from the etter: 'The water for drinking has to be carried from six to twenty miles. All school children are allowed to go home at noon to help carry water. Many cases of typhoid and other diseases have resulted, and hogs and cattle on the big ranches are beginning to die by hundreds."

When I see such statements as these from him I can't be too thankful that I didn't accompany him to the islands. When he went away I flipped a coin to see if T should go and heads came up. I came just hat near going."

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Manager Neyes of Hammond's More to Reopen the Plant

BEEF KILLING BEGINS ON MONDAY NEXT

Butchers Employed and Cattle Bought in Readiness to Resume Active Operation with Least Posaible Delay.

A. H. Noyes, formerly general manager of the Hammond plant here, but for the last few months located at Hammond, Ind. arrived here yesterday for the purpose of directing the opening of the plant. Wallace Mills, one of the purchasing agents for the Hammond company, is also here purchasing supplies of various sorts.

Smoke was pouring from the big stack yesterday and dozens of men were applying to Superintendent Felch for positions. As the work of preparing the plant for operation is progressing more rapidly than was at first expected, it was decided yesterday to open the beef killing department Monday morning. A sufficient number of men to run this department has already been employed. Many of those engaged formerly worked for Hammond and they expressed pleasure at their prospect of getting back to their occupation again.

When the beefhouse is opened about 600 cattle will be slaughtered a day. Several carloads of cattle are now in the yards awaiting the opening of this department of the plant and Hammond's buyers purchased 200 head of fine cattle on this market yesterday. As soon as the beefhouse is in running order attention will be turned to the other departments. The hog and sheephouses will then be opened and it is ex pected that within a couple of weeks the entire plant will be in operation. On account of the increased demand caused by the opening of the Hammond house the Stock Yards company and the commission men doing business here are hustling for shipments. Nearly every commission firm at the vards sent out circular letters yesterday to shippers all over the west announcing the reopening of the and giving notice that the increased demand will naturally call for higher prices.

Enters Without Franchise. Last night the Plattsmouth Telephone ompany opened an office on Twenty-sixth street, having entered the city with its wires over the Postal Telegraph company's lines. After having established an office T. H. Pollock, general manager of the company, called upon Mayor Kelly and informed him of what had been done. The mayor told Mr. Pollock that he had no right to run lines in the city limits without a franchise. To this Mr. Pollock replied that his company had come in on poles leased from the Postal Telegraph company. Further, he courted arrest for a violation of the city ordinances. The mayor did not care to take up the matter at the time and dismissed Mr. Pollock with the statement that he would refer the case to the city attorney. It is understood that the city authorities will take the question up at once and act upon whatever suggestion the city attorney has to make in the matter.

Yesterday afternoon Chief Etter of the South Omaha fire department received a

Grading Outfit Leaves.

Contractor Zack Cuddington completed the work of moving about 50,000 cubic yards of dirt for the Elkhorn road yesterday and today he will load his outfit onto cars and start for Ottumwa, Ia. It will take six cars to haul the forty head of mules and the grading machinery. Mr. Cuddington recently secured a contract from the Milwaukee road for the grading of three miles of road just west of Ottumwa. This work, he says, will take about a year. About twenty men who have been employed here during the summer will accompany this outfit to lowa.

Suspects Discharged.

At the request of the detectives employed by the Union Pacific Rathroad company the three suspicious characters who have been in jail for a couple of days were released yesterday. The English tourist on a westbound train by three sharpers declined to return to prosecute and therefore Chief Mitchell turned the prisoners The Omaha police, however, immediately arrested William Haley, one of the suspects, and took him to Omaha on a vagrancy charge.

Very Light Registration

Yesterday was the second day of registration, but little interest was manifest. Un to 5 o'clock in the afternoon only about 50 per cent of the first day's registration had been recorded. There was a little movement in the evening, but not enough to make any material difference in the total. of their school and other advantages as Only about 700 were registered in all of the twelve precincts of the city. It is expected by both republicans and democrats that on the last day of registration. November 2, the full vote will be gotten out. Las year the total registration was 4.972, but this year it will fall away below, some even predicting that 3,500 will be a high figure.

Grading Petition Approved. City Attorney Lambert and City Engineer Beal have carefully examined the petition for the grading of Seventeenth street from Missouri avenue to N street and will recommend to the council that the work be On account of so much trouble formerly in the making out of petitions for improvements all such documents are now referred to these two officials for examination. It was stated yesterday that unless the contract is let at once the work cannot very well be completed this year.

New School Opens Monday. The new schoolhouse at Forty-second and streets will be opened on Monday next. Yeterday the blackboards arrived and the contractor will place them today. The boards are of slate and cost 30 cents a square foot. These boards have been cut to fit the wall spaces and are thirty-six inches high. In all about 600 square feet will be used. Two teachers will be assigned to this new school, which will accommodate about 100 pupils. The withdrawal of this number of scholars from the Lowell school will permit of holding all-

Republicane Turn Out Strong to Hear FOUR CANDIDATES DO STUNTS

Secret Society of Medical College Puts Students Through Course of Sprouts.

A secret society of Creighton Medical college had its first initiation in the Woodmen's hall, Sixteenth street and Capito avenue, last night. The initiation wound up in the hall, but the entire city was used as a parade room. Four candidates learned the mysteries of the society, and these same four young men will not soon forget them and are now in a position to give pointers about initiations to Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben or any other old-timer. Naturally he attracted some little attention and by the time he and his escort got to Fifteenth and Douglas streets the crowd that followed was large vocating the election of the entire repubenough to attract a little attention also. At Fifteenth and Douglas streets the Salvation army was holding a meeting, but at sight of the strange procession the audience broke ranks and flocked around Mr. Candidate. At this the candidate weakened and begged to be taken to the hall.

Another candidate was taken to the Tenth street viaduct and compelled to go to the High school building, crawling on all fours Mr. Delamater said that he had no occaevery other block. Two others were shackled together and

Education. At the next meeting of the Board of Education a representative delegation of residents of the southern part of the city will probably present the claims of that section for a new school house and at the same time protest against the proposed pura majority of the republicans of the state chase of the ground adjoining the Vinton school. The parties interested in the protest fear that should the board secure this additional ground the members will undertake to erect a large building on that site, which would because of its size, draw so many pupils from the Forest school that it would in the future be out of the question as the site of a new building. For this reason the residents of the southeastern part of the city are becoming more friendly to the idea of consolidating the districts and erecting a building to cost about $50,000 on what has been known as the "Canton street site," in the neigh borhood of Canton and Seventeenth streets This site is central between Vinton and Forest schools, being about five minutes' walk from either. The matter will be considered at a meeting to be held in the southeastern part of the city some time next week.

Simmons.

Steve Ryan and John Murphy were ar rested last night at the request of Frank Simmons, who charges them with holding up and robbing James Fitch of Maple River Junction, Ia. Simmons came to Omaha Thursday and met the two men on the street yesterday afternoon He informed the officers and they were arrested. A 32-caliber revolver was found on Ryan. The men say they work on the railroads and recently came to Omaha. Simmons put up a $10 cash bond that he would appear against the men this morning.

Requires Treatment Which Acts in Harmony With the Female System.

SCHOOL BOARD AFFAIRS ARE DEBATED Letter from Mrs. Wright, President of Brooklyn, One of the Interesting Features of N.Y., Round Table, Proves this Claim.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary medical treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition. Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by derangement of the female organism, and which while it causes disturbances similar to ordinary indigestion cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar utero-tonic effects as well; in other words, a derangement of the female organs may have such a disturbing effect upon a woman's whole system as to cause serious indigestion and dyspepsia, and it cannot be relieved without curing the original caus of the trouble, which seems to find its source in the pelvic organs.

As proof of this theory we beg to call attention to the letter from Mrs. Wright, of Brooklyn, N. Y., herewith published:

MRS. MAGGIE WRIGHT.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham: - For two years I suffered more or less with dyspepsia which so degenerated my entire system that I was unfit to properly attend to my daily duties. I felt weak and nervous and nothing I ate tasted good and felt like a stone in my stomach. I tried several dyspepsia cures, but nothing seemed to help me permanently. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and was happily surprised to find that it acted like a fine tonic, and in a few days I began to enjoy and properly digest my food. My recovery was rapid, and in five weeks I was a different woman. Seven bottles completely cured me, and a dozen or more of my friends have used it since." - Mrs. Maggie Wright, 12 Van Voorhis St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

How a Serious Tumor Case Was Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: -Some time ago I wrote you that my regular physician had made an examination and told me I was afflicted with a tumor in my womb. I had backache, headache, bearing down pains and very pro-fuse menstruation. My limbs would ache so I could not sleep and I was very weak and nervous. I was bloated from my head to my feet. your letter I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and followed all the rest of your advice as near as I could, and the tumor was expelled in pieces, and I regained my natural size. I continued taking your Vegetable Compound for a while longer and felt like a new woman. I cannot thank you enough for your kind advice and what your medicine did for me. It certainly saved my life."—Mrs. Penley S. Willis, Vershire, Vt. (March 11, 1901.)

It would seem by these statements that women would save time and much sickness if they would write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice as soon as any incipient illness appears. Her advice is free, and has put thousands of women on the right road to recovery.
