CALLAHAN TAKES A SHAKE

Prisoner Has Chill in Court and Trial Adjourns Suddenly.

ON VERGE OF NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Attorneys Explain that Illness is Due to Difference in Court Room and Jail Temperatures—Eddie Cudahy on the Stand.

James Callahan, the alleged kidnaper of Edward Cudahy, Jr., is threatened with nervous prostration. Criminal court was adjourned at 11 yesterday morning on account of the sickness of Callahan. The prisoner was unusually pale when he was brought into the court room and showed nervousness when Eddie Cudahy identified him as the dark-complexioned man who was in charge of the Melrose Hill prison-house.

Shortly before 11 o'clock Callahan suffered with a chill and told his attorneys that he was very faint. The condition of the prisoner was made known to Judge Keyser and court was adjourned until 2 o'clock.

"Callahan has not been well for a long time," one of the prisoner's attorneys remarked in discussing the condition of his client. "He has been shut in the hot jail so long that he is not accustomed to fresh air. He took cold when he was brought into the court room. The difference in the temperature of the court house and the jail is so marked that he has been cold during the trial. Then the close confinement has told on his nerves and his general condition is bad. He will be fortunate if he escapes a serious sick spell."

Eddie Cudahy's Testimony.

Eddie Cudahy spent nearly two hours on the stand yesterday. The prosecuting attorneys brought out every detail of the kidnapping and the boy identified Callahan as positively as he did at the trial for robbery. He stated that his identification of the prisoner was by voice as well as by appearance.

Callahan's attorneys asked young Cudahy but few questions in cross-examination. They laid great stress upon the fact that the only time the boy saw the face of the man alleged to be Callahan was when the kidnapping took place in front of General Cowin's residence. An attempt was made to show that young Cudahy stood between the street light and the man who thrust a revolver into his face, but the boy stoutly maintained that the kidnaper was between him and the light.

Repeated attempts were made by Callahan's attorneys to have Eddie Cudahy state whether he ever smoked cigarettes, but the judge would not allow the witness to answer the question. The lawyers maintained that the cigarettes found in the Melrose

Hill house and said to have been smoked by Callahan might have been smoked by the captive. The boy was finally allowed to testify that he did not smoke cigarettes while in charge of the kidnappers.

P. J. McGrath and Chief Donahue were also on the stand. Mr. McGrath testified that he accompanied Edward Cudahy, Jr., the night the money was deposited on the Center street road for the kidnappers. He described the lantern with a light and dark ribbon on the handle, and in every way corroborated Mr. Cudahy's description of the trip.

ARREST POACHERS AT CUT OFF

Deputy Game Warden Catch Two Men in the Act of Seizing Fish.

Thursday night Deputy Game Warden Brown of Iowa and Deputy Game Warden Cummings of Omaha captured two poachers at Cut Off lake while in the act of taking fish with a seine.

The officers, believing the men would be at work Thursday night, concealed themselves in a boat along the shore and the poachers appeared. They made one haul with the net and were so busy getting the fish that the wardens came upon them unawares. Two hundred feet of seine and half a barrel of fish were taken from them. The arrest was made on the Iowa side, near Courtland beach, and the men were taken to Council Bluffs, where they will be tried. The men gave the names of Burwell and Bruner.

Announcements of the Theaters.

The immense hit made last year by the "Girl with the Auburn Hair," has been more than duplicated at the Orpheum this week. The beautiful and impressive stage setting, beyond doubt the most ingenious bit of theatrical mechanism, holds the audience spellbound, while the fullness and richness of the singer's voice, better than ever, carries out the effect and usually leaves her hearers too much carried away to applaud with the drop of the curtain, and there is a decided pause between the curtain's descent and the first handclap. She has changed her songs for the latter part of the week and at the matinee and evening performances today will sing two new selections.

At Boyd's Miltenthal Bro.'s big scenic production, "Lost in New York," will be seen Sunday matinee and evening. For the interpretation of the play the management offers a company of a higher order of excellence than is usually identified with this form of attraction. Some of the best known in the clever cast are Nettie De Coursey, an extremely comely, bright and vivacious little woman, who has made thousands laugh while playing the leading roles in the Hoyt farces.

Ferris' Comedians will open a week's engagement at Boyd's theater next Monday afternoon, November 4, presenting "A Daughter of the South." Numerous vaudeville specialties will be presented between acts. On Monday night will be presented "In the Land of the Cajuns." The company numbers twenty-five people, including ten vaudeville artists.

Sued for Infringement.

A suit was started in the U. S. circuit court at New York last Tuesday by F. M. Peters against biscuit manufacturers for infringement of paper boxes for crackers. The package in dispute is one used by the National Biscuit company for its Uneeda and In-cer-seal goods. An injunction and heavy damages are asked for.

TIME CUTS GO INTO EFFECT

Union Pacific Announces New Schedule for Next Sunday.

SAVING OF THREE HOURS TO THE COAST

Pennsylvania, with the Santa Fe in connection, may meet the fast service given by the Vanderbilt-Harriman Lines.

The official schedule of the Union Pacific for the winter months, which goes into effect next Sunday, was announced by the passenger department yesterday morning.

No. 1, the Overland Limited, the equipment of which is to be entirely new, will save three hours over the present time between Chicago and San Francisco. It will leave Omaha at 8:50 a. m. instead of 9:20 a. m., arriving at Cheyenne at 10:40 p. m., an increase of one hour and twenty-five minutes in the running time over the Nebraska division. It will arrive at Ogden at 1:40 p. m. instead of 2:10, a saving of one hour and twenty-five minutes on the Wyoming division. It will arrive at San Francisco at 5:15 p. m. instead of 6:55 p. m., a saving of one hour and ten minutes on the Central Pacific. The remainder of the total saving of three hours will be made by the Northwestern between Chicago and Omaha.

No. 3 will be known as the California express instead of the Pacific express. It will leave Omaha the same as at present, 4:25 p. m., arriving in Cheyenne at 7 a. m. instead of 7:25, a saving of thirty-five minutes on the Nebraska division. It will arrive at Ogden at 12:30 a. m. instead of 3:50, arriving in San Francisco at 8:25 a. m. instead of 12:25 p. m. A total saving of four hours will be made between Omaha and the coast.

No. 5 will run through solidly from Chicago to the coast for the first time and will be the New York Central's western connection for its new twenty-four-hour train between New York and Chicago. No. 5 will leave Omaha at 11:10 p. m. instead of 11:25, arriving in Cheyenne at 12:30 p. m. instead of 12:05 p. m. It will arrive at Ogden at 7:30 a. m. instead of 4 a. m., and at San Francisco at 4:15 p. m. instead of 12:25 p. m. There is no change of time on the Portland and Spokane connections of trains 1, 2 and 5.

No. 101, the Fast Mail, will leave Omaha at 9 a. m., ten minutes later than at present. No. 102, the corresponding train eastbound, will arrive in Omaha the same as now, 3:25 p. m. A change will be made in the equipment of No. 101 and it will carry a reclining chair car and a tourist car out of Omaha, picking up a Kansas City tourist car at Cheyenne and making a close connection for Portland via the Oregon Railway & Navigation company.

The change in time in the eastbound schedule is slight. No. 2 and No. 6 will continue to arrive in Omaha as at present, the former at 7:30 p. m. and the latter at 4:35 p. m. No. 4 will arrive here at 7:05 a. m. instead of 6:50 a. m.

The Oregon Short Line has also announced its new time card, effective next Sunday, to connect with that of the Union Pacific. It provides for an extra train each way daily between Salt Lake and Ogden.

The shortening of time by the Vanderbilt and Harriman roads from the Atlantic to the Pacific will, it is expected in railroad circles, arouse the Pennsylvania to decisive action. It is intimated that this road, in connection with the Santa Fe, is preparing to meet the action by cutting the time still more than has been done by the Vanderbilt-Harriman roads. The contest may affect rates as well as time before all is over.

St. John's Lodge No. 25, A. F. & A. M.—Funeral Notice.

All members are requested to attend the funeral of our late brother and past master, J. B. Redfield, at the Masonic temple, Sunday, Nov. 3, at 2:15 p. m. Friends of the deceased who are not members of the fraternity are invited to assemble in the large hall. Interment at Prospect Hill.

CHARLES S. LOBINGER, Master.
