SYMPATHY IS EXPRESSED FOR ARMENIA

Recognition is Made of Abuses Also in Macedonia and Old Servia Which Should Now Be Remedied.

PARIS, Nov. 4 .- In the Chamber today M Sembat (radical socialist) interpellated the government on the Franco-Turkish dispute. noticing the action taken as being for a material end and contending that France ought to have interfered at the time of the Armenian massacres.

The foreign minister, M. Delcasse, replied that France's patience was exhausted by the porte's breaking its own promises. France in the present difficulty pursued no fresh advantage, but everybody would agree that this effort on the part of France ought to at least serve to put an end to the annoyance and unjust treatment of which France's workers in the Orient had been the object He added: "Unless Parliament arrests our action the government wishes to show that France, after exemplary patience, has other things to oppose to the long and persistent refusal to do justice than simple observations. The government intervened in the quays question in order to get Turkey to fulfill its engagements. If the government had not done so there would have been au end of the numerous enterprises which France has created in Turkey in the shape of railroads, roads, lighthouses and banks. The porte has also persisted in its refusal to reimburse Mme. Tubini and Lorando in spite of the decrees of the tribunals in their favor. The government will only present to the porte demands which are in conformity with its conscience and which can be sustained in perfect tranquillity of mind before the whole world The debt has been reduced by a large percentage and the porte in August agreed to give satisfaction, but on the morrow these arrangements were forgotten and others were proposed. Our minister then ceased official relations with the porte. There was no ultimatum, but the cessation of relations indicated that the government took the porte's word seriously and that it intended that the engagements entered into should be respected, but reserved to itself fixing the moment for their execution.

As to Armenia, M. Delcasse stated that during the last three years he had not overlooked the question and while defending France's material interests, he had dis played equal solicitude for its moral interests and for its traditions.

M. Delcasse said also that the appearance of French cruisers off the Turkish coast had several times proved that France had not forgotten the protection it owed to Christians and the latter understood this It was true that the reforms promised the Armenians had not been executed, that the Armenians had too often been the victims of unpunished outrages and that oppression also reigned in Macedonia and in Old Servia. The French government had had materially and morally won the prize put forth every effort to restore justice and tranquillity, but France was not alone bound by the treaty of Berlin. The cham ber could rest assured that the govern ment would never forget its duties toward humanity, but it must first of all remem ber its duties toward France.

Around Trafalgar square and the houses of Parliament scenes were witnessed which have not accurred for years. Cabs and carts were mixed in immovable masses. The mounted police, in trying to clear away the jam, lost themselves. Many vehicles were in collision. The drivers, not knowing where they were, stood at the beads of their horses patiently awaiting the lifting of the premature darkness.

Lanterns were at a premium, newsboys transformed their papers into temporary torches, highwaymen pursued their vocation, casualties were frequent and even hardened Londoners freely expressed a dread of the continuation of such fogs as those of today.

If the fog had not lifted somewhat toward night London would have been so congested that its housing accommodations, commodlous as they are, would have been taxed beyoud limit by the forced detention of the fogbound suburbanites. NEW YORK, Nov. 4 .- President and Mrs. Roosevelt and party arrived in New York at 6:20 o'clock tonight, an hour and twenty | majority at 40,000. minutes behind schedule time. The party remained in New York over night and tomorrow will be taken to Oyster Bay, Long Island, where the president will cast his vote. He will remain scarcely more than an hour in Oyster Bay, returning in time to take an afternoon train tomorrow out of Jersey City for Washington. The president was in excellent spirits and enjoyed to a degree the little respite from official exactions. He spent most of the trip from Washington chatting jovially with the rest of his party or on the observation platform of his car. Owing to the care with which the exact Itinerary of the trip was guarded from the public there were but a few people along the line waiting to see the president, until Nowark was reached. There a crowd pressed the depot gates. The president took along with him as far as Baltimore. Casper Whitney. At Baltimore he spent the three or four minutes' stop pacing the depot platform alone. The day was cloudy and threatening and he remarked that it was fitting contrast to the weather conditions e hoped for tomorrow.

ARMED MEN AT THE POLLS

Sheriff is Said to Have Appointed Deputies and Police Force is Increased for Occasion.

DENVER, Nov. 4.-Both the democratic and republican party leaders tonight express confidence in the result of tomorrow's election. The democrats control several of the county offices. The sheriff, however, supports the republican ticket, and it is asserted that he will appoint a large num ber of deputies for duty at polls, while or the other hand the fire and police board composed of democrats is charged with appointing a large force of special policemen to counteract the action of the sheriff. Two years ago a collision occurred between the police and the deputy sheriffs, in which several men were killed and wounded, and similar trouble is expected this year if the same tactics be followed.

The election throughout the state includes only county offices and in only a few counties is much interest taken in the result.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4 .- There will be no elections in any of the Pacific coast states for state officials tomorrow, but there will be municipal elections in some of the large cities. San Francisco will elect a complete set of city officers and the cam paign closed tonight has been more than of ordinary interest. The chief contest has been for the office of mayor, for which position there are three candidates. Asa R Wells, the republican aspirant, has served the city as auditor. John S. Tobin, the democratic nominee, is a young attorney, a member of a wealthy and prominent family Eugene E. NEW YORK, Nov. 4 .- At 12 o'clock tonight, six hours before the opening of the polls, both sides in the municipal contest were claiming the victory. The most strenuous talk came from the fusion leaders, who were more in evidence at their headquarters than were the democrats at theirs, the latter, after the distribution of campaign funds in the afternoon, having hurried to their several election precincts to give their last orders to their followers. John A. Mason of the Shepard headquarters said he felt confident of the result and placed the democratic candidate's

During the late afternoon Seth Low, the fusion candidate, at his own headquarters, said: "I think things could not look more rosy," and added, "this has been a most interesting campaign. The fight is now over and, no matter who is elected, I am sure the city will profit by the agitation of the questions which have been the main issues of the campaign."

Robert C. Morris, chairman of the republican campaign committee, stuck to his estimate of 70,000 for Mr. Low. Edward M. Shepard said this evening that he had no particular statement to make

If the betting on the result is any indication as to what the count of ballots will show, the fusion candidates seem to have the better of it by a shade. Late tonight wagers were laid at 10 to 7 on Low and the rest of the city ticket.

There is not the same confidence on the ter. fusion side as to the county ticket and predictions are made that all the candidates on the democratic county ticket in New York will be elected with the possible exception of Robert A. The headquarters of the populist committee presented a deserted appearance. Perhaps no one of the republican state candidates really expected to be elected. Had it not been for the work done by Edward Rosewater and Schneider, the state could not have been carried for Mc-Kinley or any of the republican state officers. These gentlemen were responsible for shipping into Nebraska about 8,000 or 9.000 former Nebraskans who voted the republican ticket. No, I am not charging Rosewater and Schneider with procuring illegal votes-that's not the idea; they simply brought back every republican who had the faintest shadow of right to vote here.

Probability of Disastrons Rate Wars Averted and the Only New Alarming Feature is Possible Disturbance of General Offices.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4 .- (Special Telegram.)-Railway and financial circles were stirred today by an announcement coming from an official and thoroughly reliable source that at last the air of Wall street and the western traffic world was to be clarified by the settlement of the differences of the Burlington, Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Union Pacific companies. A compromise arrangement has been made, it is announced, in which J. J. Hill, Harriman and Kuhn, Loeb & Co., representing domestic shareholders, are all apparently satis-

For something more than a month the marts of finance have been on edge as to what these rival railway magnates proposed to do in the way of settling differences which really date back to the time when the great corner was run on Northern Pacific. While a state of unrest has upset the financial end, the traffic end has fared even worse, and rumors of disastrous rate moy at once put off in the lifeboat and as wars have kept the traffic managers

Now, according to official information brought from New York, all this is to be altered and the change is to be brought about in all its essential details late this week or at the latest the early part of next Messre. Hill and Harriman, assisted by the New York banking house, will work this transformation scene by the formation of a security company, of which Hill will be the president. The directory will include the Harriman and Kuhu, Loeb & Co. party, and the organization will embrace all of the stocks and bonds of the Northern Pacific, Great, Northern and Burlington railways. The Union Pacific will have a one-third interest in the combination, coming in because ot its holdings of the common stock of the Northern Pacific.

Allotment of Territory.

All of the companies will have allotted to them a certain territory in which to conflict on that score. No change will be an engine switching nearby. The engineer made in the amount or denomination values quarters presented busy scenes last night, and switching crew escaped injury, but the except in the single instance of the preferred issue of the Northern Pacific stock which will be retired by a 412 per cent

This allotment of territory is regarded as a skillful move on the part of the raitway magnates and one likely to cause surprise and consternation in western traffic circles, eventually, perhaps, leading to radical changes in local general offices. To the bulls and bears of the stock affairs comes as a great relief. Northern westerly gale and, though search was made once Messrs. Harriman, Hill and Kuhn, all night and all day today, there has been | Loeb & Co., lie down together as peacefully as the lion and the lamb, and the arrangement indicates that no traffic manager will try to disturb their peace. WAITS VANDERBILT'S APPROVAL
