PAVING WILL BE COMPLETED

Weather Not Cold Enough to Seriously Interfere with Work.

HARNEY STREET COMES NEXT ON LIST

City Engineer Hopes to Get the Work Started There on Wednesday or Thursday of This Week.

"Our paving operations have not been stopped yet by the cold weather," said City Engineer Rosewater yesterday morning.

"All that, however, depends upon the state of the weather, or rather of the wind. With still days we can lay both binder and top surface on all these asphalt districts, even though the temperature falls very low.

"Of course in no event is cold weather paving quite as satisfactory as that done in mild seasons. Heretofore, however, we have been able to work on into the winter months with fair success and hope to do so again."

There are seven re-paving districts which the engineering department hopes to complete this year.

They are: Thirty-seventh street, from Farnam to Leavenworth; Twenty-eighth, between the same limits; Twenty-fourth, between Farnam and Dodge; Twenty-second, between Dowe and St. Mary's avenues; Twenty-fourth, from Farnam to Leavenworth; Harney, from Fifteenth to Twentieth, and Lafayette, between Fortieth and Forty-second.

It is a chance that Twenty-first street from Binney to Wirt will be done this time, though the preliminary documentary and legislative arrangements are not yet complete.

Of these, Thirty-seventh street was completed last Saturday. Twenty-fourth, north of Farnam and Twenty-second, will be finished this week. Work was begun on Twenty-eighth street yesterday.

The earliest of the new work to be next taken up will be the Harney street district. Assistant Engineer Craig says that there is a chance of getting started on that Wednesday or Thursday. That is the nearest downtown section of all.

After that Twenty-fourth street south of Farnam and Lafayette, between Farnam and Dodge; Twenty-second, between Dowe and St. Mary's avenues; Twenty-fourth, from Farnam to Leavenworth; Harney, from Fifteenth to Twentieth, and Lafayette, between Fortieth and Forty-second.

Mr. Craig says that the two asphalt plants in operation now are laying about 3,500 square yards a day, half and half binder and top surface. Thus the entire pavement is being completed at the rate of about 1,500 square yards daily.

BECOMING A MOTHER

Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and horror of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to life of mother and child. This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period.

AS TO THE VINSONHALER DEAL

Some Questions Propounded by a Seventh Ward Republican Given Answers.

OMAHA, Nov. 2, 1901.—To the Editor of The Bee: Since the recent republican county convention considerable talk has been indulged in with reference to an alleged deal between yourself and Judge Vinsonhaler and two delegates claiming to represent the Seventh ward delegation, that if you would assist in securing the renomination of Judge Vinsonhaler by acclamation the Seventh ward delegation would vote for Fred Hoye for sheriff and a piece of treachery. The offer of county judge is a most important one and the people are entitled to know the exact truth in this matter, so that if Judge Vinsonhaler is being wronged he may be set right.

Will you be so kind as to answer the following questions:

1. Did Mr. Vinsonhaler, alone or with any person or persons, call upon you at your office prior to the convention and make any proposition looking to his renomination by acclamation, and if so, what was it and when presented?

2. Were you opposed to Mr. Vinsonhaler's renomination for county judge, and if so, why?

3. Kindly state fully all the facts in connection with this alleged deal, so that if Mr. Vinsonhaler is being wronged he may be set right before the people. Very truly yours, JAMES M. BUEL, 1405 South Fifty-first Street.

Note by the Editor: The editor of The Bee regrets exceedingly to have this controversy renewed, but it is only fair that the questions propounded shall be answered without deception or equivocation.

First.—On the morning of the republican county convention Judge Vinsonhaler was present at the editorial rooms of The Bee when A. C. Foster and John Steel, claiming to represent Judge Vinsonhaler's delegation from the Seventh ward, presented themselves. They claimed to be fully empowered to make any arrangements that would insure the judge's renomination and of their own accord made the proposal that they would support Hoye for sheriff and vote with his friends on organization and for other candidates on condition that Judge Vinsonhaler be re-nominated by acclamation. This proposition was accepted then and there by the editor of The Bee on the word of honor of Judge Vinsonhaler and his two representatives that they would carry out their part.

Second.—The editor of The Bee was not opposed to the renomination of Judge Vinsonhaler.

Third.—Judge Vinsonhaler had the assurance of the support of the editor of The Bee and Mayor Moore on the morning of the convention day in the presence of John C. Wharton in addition to the pledge made to Messrs. Foster and Steel.

The Best Remedy for Diarrhoea. "Some years ago while at Martinsburg, W. Va., I was taken with cholera morbus, which was followed by diarrhoea. The doctor's medicine did me no good. ENGLISH GRIEF IS GENUINE

Ambassador Choate is Impressed with Sincerity of Briton's Sorrow for Stricken President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Hon. Joseph H. Choate, the American ambassador to the court of St. James, arrived in Washington this evening. He is here for pleasure and will call on the president Wednesday.

"I was in England when President McKinley was shot and during the days preceding his death," said Mr. Choate tonight, when speaking of the late president. "The English people were very deeply stirred over that event. Some Americans said England only appeared to feel our sadness, but I know that throughout the length and breadth of England and the colonies the people felt as if one of their own loved leaders had been taken away."

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Friends of Bond Proposition Meet to Indorse the Plan.

CITY CLERK PREPARES FOR BUSY DAY

Owing to Light Registration He Expects to Have to Swear in Many Delinquents—His Special Police-men on Duty.

In political circles more interest seems to be manifested in the bond proposition than in the regular election. Mayor Kelly issued a proclamation calling for a special election today to vote on the proposition of issuing bonds in the sum of $5,000 to purchase a site for the Carnegie library, a majority of the votes cast on the question will decide the matter.

In response to that call quite a number of women of the city and some men met at the First Methodist Episcopal church yesterday afternoon to discuss the question. All of those present favored the issuing of bonds for this purpose and it was deemed advisable to do everything possible today to urge voters to favor the bonds when casting ballots.

Rev. Dr. R. L. Wheeler prepared and offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, The city of South Omaha having received a proposition from the agent of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, to place a library building in our city at an expense to himself of not less than $50,000, providing an equal to one-twentieth of the gift ($3,000) be expended by the city in the purchase of a suitable site, endowment and maintenance for the first year, and also pledge to care for the building thereafter;

Resolved, That at this meeting of the city and county council in favor of the proposed public library, and further be it

Resolved, That we owe it to the good name of our city and as a stimulus to the cause of popular education among our people to lend every aid in our power, and honorably, to carry the bond proposition to the approaching election; and furthermore be it

Resolved, That we solicit the aid of all good citizens, irrespective of party faith or religious faith, in aiding the city in its so helpful and praiseworthy an institution as a public library.

Dated South Omaha, November 4, 1901. EMMA J. TALBOT, President. JEANETTE M. WHITE, ELLA M. SLOANE, ROBERT L. WEBSTER, Committee.

Ready for Voters. All but two of the voting precincts in the city were made ready by Street Commissioner Clark yesterday afternoon. The two missing ones will be arranged before 5 o'clock this morning.

Owing to the light registration City Clerk Shrigley has prepared himself for a busy day. He expects that a large number of delinquents will be sworn in. Some prominent and well known business men have failed to register and now they will have to go before the clerk and swear themselves as witnesses and state their reasons for not registering. Shrigley has arranged for a couple of assistants and will be prepared to issue certificates to all who apply.

No Board Meeting. Although it was the night for the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education, there was no quorum and an adjournment was taken. It is uncertain just what President Bull will call a meeting for later in the week in order to take up matters pertaining to the schools. Should the president hold of his call until Thursday night the report of the experts will be ready and then the board will know just what has become of the school funds. There is now only a little over $400 in the school district treasury, but the 1901 levee has not been drawn upon, though the license money has been expended in paying overlaps and in making improvements.

Carley Chosen Manager. Members of the Ancient Order of United Workmen building committee have chosen J. C. Carley as their instructor. He will have charge of the selling of stock in the proposed building of the order and will generally look after the affairs of the committee. The building is to be erected at the northwest corner of Twenty-fifth and N streets. Plans are being arranged for. Only members of the order are permitted to purchase stock in the building.

Little Business Transacted. Only a short session of the city council was held last night. President Adkins was in the chair. At the suggestion of Dworak the regular routine was dispensed with and the report of the finance committee was taken up. The report of the committee for October was approved. One minor matter was discussed and then an adjournment until tonight was taken. Adkins wanted to put the meeting off until Thursday night, but Martin and Dworak would not listen, and so there will be a meeting tonight if there is a quorum.

Special Police. Last night Mayor Kelly had a conference with Chief Mitchell in regard to employment of special policemen for today. It was agreed that six special police should be sworn in, one for each ward. These men will assist the regular officers at the polls and preserve order. Last year only four special policemen were on duty, but with the change in the ward limits more men are needed this year.

Republican Rally. There was a well-attended meeting of republicans at the hall last night. It was the last rally of the present campaign. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Swedish-American league. Several local speakers delivered short addresses and urged all republicans to go to the polls today and do their duty.

Magic City Go-ssip. W. J. Bryan addressed a mixed crowd at Frank's hall last night. Some new cars are to be placed on the Sherman avenue line shortly.

Miss Jean Ringer has gone to Carroll, Ia., to attend the wedding of her sister.

The Sheep Butchers' union will give a dance on Saturday night, November 16.

Two new cases of scarlet fever were reported to the health inspector yesterday.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Education will be held on Thursday night. John Pouch has ordered his headquarters and is no longer a member of the force.

The Omaha Water company is patiently waiting for pipe to lay additional mains before cold weather sets in.

Eugene Dawson writes friends here that he will be home from his western trip about the first of next week.

According to the report of Mayor Kelly all of the saloons in the city will be closed today during the time the polls are open.

Miss Nettie Harrington, general delivery clerk at the postoffice, returned yesterday from Sioux City, where she visited friends for a couple of weeks.

Officials of the Omaha Street Railway company stated yesterday that the trolley wire on the Missouri avenue line was engaged and would probably arrive here in a few days.

Patrick Trainor, republican candidate for assessor in the Fourth ward, has been accused of his political enemies in regard to his having been a bootlegger during the 1894 strike. At the time of the strike he was foreman of the pickle department at Hammond's and was not expected to go out with the rest of the men.

WABASH RUNS INTO OMAHA

First Train on This Line Since 1886 Enters the City.

OMAHA & ST. LOUIS UNDER NEW CONTROL

No Changes Made in the Office Force Here and All the Employees Notified that They Will Be Retained.

The Wabash assumed actual control of the Omaha & St. Louis at one minute past midnight Sunday morning. Since then Wabash trains have been running into Omaha for the first time since 1886.

A double daily service has been established between Omaha and St. Louis and the first daylight train between St. Louis and Omaha put in service. No. 3 leaves St. Louis at 7:40 a. m., arriving in Omaha at 10:30 p. m. No change is made in No. 1, the night train. It will continue to leave St. Louis at 7:30 p. m., arriving in Omaha at 8:20 a. m.

No. 14, the Cannon Ball, is unchanged. It leaves Omaha at 5:15 p. m. and arrives in St. Louis at 7:00 a. m. No. 2, which formerly left Omaha at 7 a. m., now leaves Council Bluffs at 10 a. m., arriving in St. Louis at 1:50 p. m., and making connections with the midnight and early morning trains out of St. Louis.

All Omaha & St. Louis employees were notified that they would be retained in their present positions until otherwise advised. It is not expected that many changes will be made. Harry E. Moores has been the general agent of the Wabash passenger department for a long time and will, of course, retain the position. G. M. Entrikin, assistant general freight agent for the old Quincy route, has been retained by the Wabash and will in future report to the general freight office at St. Louis.

New Nebraska Link. It is said that a twenty-mile link will be built from O'Neill, the terminus of the Great Northern Short Line, to Atkinson, to make connection with the Atkinson & Nebraska River railroad, which is now being built through Boyd county, Nebraska. Superintendent Allen of the Great Northern has examined plans and figures of the new link and is favorably disposed toward the project. He will take the matter up to the high officials of the road.

An automatic locomotive stoker has made its appearance on the Panhandle, and it bids fair to make the fireman's position a sinecure. Despite the fact that the contractor is said to be proving a success, there is no talk of doing without the services of firemen, who will be expected to take more part in the running of the engines provided the fuel is taken care of. The company has equipped engine No. 219 with the device. This engine ran into Columbus recently on time with its flues leaking after a hard run and with its steam blowing off. During the entire trip the fireman had toyed with the "furniture" of the cab in order to keep busy. It is stated that, although the engine had a hard load to pull, steam pressure was maintained at the maximum every mile of the distance. The automatic stoker is operated by a small engine supplied with steam from the locomotive, so that the engine may be said to feed itself. The coal is distributed regularly over the entire grate area and with the perfect evenness so much sought after. The use of the stoker obviates the necessity of opening the fire door, and consequently there is no cold air streaming into the fire from that source.

Railroad Notes and Personnel. J. H. Buchanan, general passenger agent of the Elkhorn, is in the Black Hills. General Manager E. Dickinson of the Union Pacific went to Chicago last night. G. A. Kimball of Kansas City, agent of the Western Truck Line committee, is in town.

The Rock Island took the Poxv Quiller company to Lincoln on a special train yesterday morning.

A. W. Harbour of Greeley, Colo., district agent of the Pacific land department, is at headquarters.

The Union Pacific has selected black as the standard color for all steel cars, and orders have been issued to paint them as fast as they come into the yards.

The Burlington has made a rate of one fare for the delay in the Atkinson & Nebraska Saturday for the Missouri-Nebraska game. It has also made a rate of one and a third fare for forty miles in fifty-five miles of Omaha, which will include Ashland, Wahoo, Plattsmouth and Nebraska City.

J. J. Brooks, second vice president of the Pennsylvania, arrived in Omaha Sunday morning in his private car, returning yesterday to Chicago. He was accompanied after noon by Chicago. He was accompanied by his family and they spent the time visiting relatives.

The Union Pacific is the only large railroad system which has not made its annual report for 1901. The reason assigned in New York for the delay is that the annual records were destroyed in the Oregon Short Line fire at Salt Lake City. A report from there says that the fire at Union Pacific headquarters no information is given further than that the report is held up for some figures.

What Makes the Home? Not the house, however fine it may be; not its furniture, its trees and appointments. The wife and mother makes the home, and to speak of going home means to go back into the shelter of the mother's love and care. And when womanly lips say the mother's strength, the home-life suffers. The food is not cooked as she cooks it. Everywhere the lack of wisely supervision and motherly thoughtfulness is apparent. What a change, then, when this wife and mother comes back to take her old place in the family. Thousands of women who, because of womanly ills, had been shut out of home life and home happiness, have been enabled to once more take their place in the family after being cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well. "I commenced taking your Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery about the 15th of last December. I have since written Mrs. Eliza Wright of Mountainview, Howell writing to you, although I am thankful I am here today and have the privilege of saying to you that your medicine and your will of the Lord that I am living today; I am in better health than I have been for three years. I have taken your Golden Medical Discovery for four in family, and all my household cooking and milking. In fact I feel like a new woman." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its almost countless consequences. They do not react on the system nor beset the pill habit.
