HOLD TRAMP FOR ASSAULT

Fremont Officers Have Suspended Assault of Mrs. Riley.

VICTIM AND OTHERS IDENTIFY PRISONER

Says He is the One Whose Bold Attempt Was Frustrated by Woman's Plucky Fight in the Dark.

FREMONT, Neb., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—William Bailey, a tramp, was booked over to the district court by Police Judge Co-man this morning on the charge of a felonious assault on Mrs. William Riley last night. Mrs. Riley was walking along the north side of Third street, between F and Broad, about 9:30 o'clock when she heard a man coming up. He grabbed her by the neck and the neck with his right arm and started to drag her into the yard back of the Central hotel, telling her not to scream or he would kill her. She had one hand free and, though a small, slender woman, and her antagonist a muscular fellow, she succeeded in freeing herself. In the course of the scuffle she landed a couple of telling blows. She then ran out onto the sidewalk and into the Jensen livery barn. Mat Heald, an employe of the barn, started after Bailey as he passed the door and did not lose sight of him until the tramp was arrested by the police after a race of several blocks. Bailey was positively identified by Mrs. Riley and Heald and by a man who saw him run past the door just after Mrs. Riley had come in calling for help. The defendant claims that he was not in the vicinity when it happened. When searched at the police station last night a box containing a number of small files was found on him.

EDMONSON CASE DISMISSED

County Attorney's Investigation Convinces Him that There is No Cause for Action.

MADISON, Neb., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—The proceedings against Rev. Edmonson for assaulting his step-daughter were dismissed in the district court. The county attorney investigated the matter at Hart's creek and concluded there was no cause for action. The girl denied that she had been assaulted.

With Pounce Aim Than William Tell's

DAVID CITY, Neb., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—Everett, 11-year-old son of E. G. Hall, met with a painful accident yesterday. He and several other boys were returning home from school, when Laurel Stafford, a youth about the same age, drew from his pocket a pistol loaded with a B. E. cartridge and suggested to young Hall that if he would hold up a tin pan he would shoot a hole through it. This request was readily complied with. Stafford shot the bullet going through the pan and hitting Hall in the right temple, completely paralyzing himself in the flesh. The ball has not yet been removed by the physicians. The wound is not considered dangerous.

CLING TO BRYAN DEMOCRACY

Populists See in This Their Only Chance of Success.

COMMANDER WILCOX TO THE GRAND ARMY

Issues Orders on Forthcoming Election—Endorses Burkett's Pension Plan—Great Land Deal to Be Closed.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—In a gloomy analysis of the result of the recent election the Nebraska Independent, the recognized organ of the independent populist party, asserts that the only possible hope for the populists is through continued fusion with the Bryan democrats. "If fusion with the Bryan democrats is to be abandoned," says the editor of this paper, "the authorities of the populist party had better be called together and the formal disorganization announced. As for himself he would not waste his time or his money in the fruitless attempt to uphold an organization that could not elect a candidate in any town in this state, save one. The thing to do is to retrace our old methods of work. Go into the schoolhouse, put our papers into the homes of the people, fight as we have always fought and continue the policy that has brought us the victories of the past."

The editorial from which the above is taken appears under the caption "Is Fusion a Failure?" It begins with a speculation as to the relative strength of the democratic and populist parties. The tendency toward independent tickets by both parties is opposed in vigorous language and it is said that without fusion the republicans would have a plurality of 40,000 to 70,000, instead of 10,000. Along this line the independent comments are as follows:

Applied to the State. "There are some men in the state, how many it is impossible to tell, who believe that if the populist party should refuse to fuse with the democrats and run a straight ticket that the state could be carried. But if the 40,000 democratic votes are to be eliminated, can any sane man believe that 40,000 republicans who have steadily voted for that party for years could be induced to leave it and vote the populist ticket? In a case of that kind the republicans would have a plurality of 60,000 or 50,000, instead of the 10,000 that they now have. The result would be that these men urge against fusion is that it has failed to carry the state. Would not the failure be ten times greater if the populists should run a straight ticket? Their argument is that fusion is a failure. Have they any plan that would result in a greater failure? All this applies only to the state. But what of the nation?"

Populism Nationally. As to the populist party, nationally, the Independent says: "There are fifteen states that will be democratic under any circumstances. No party can be organized that can carry the United States against the republicans that does not get the votes of these democratic states. It is folly to dream that it could. The industrial and agricultural success depends upon controlling the general government, for it is more concerned with the money question, the public ownership of railroads, telegraphs, telephones and things of that sort than with anything else. The populist party, in fact, never yet been able to capture a single state or control the electoral vote of one. It has never elected a United States senator and in only a few instances a congressman. All the success that it has ever gained has been in co-operation with Bryan democrats. No one would have a straight populist movement with more enthusiasm than the editor of the Independent if there were a bare possibility of success in even one state in the union. But in every state where such a movement has been made it has failed in the ruin of the party. All that there is of the people's party is in the states that have adopted fusion. It still has a strong organization in Nebraska, South Dakota, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon. In other states there is not enough of it to be a gun. These western states have always followed the policy of fusion with the Bryan democrats. If Bryan can hold the democratic states up to the high level reached in the Kansas City platform, a large majority—in fact, nearly all of them—are willing to continue the co-operation. But if the Cleveland-Hill crowd get control of the next national democratic convention, populists of this state would no more fuse with them than they would with the republicans."

Election in Grand Army. Commander Wilcox of the Nebraska Department of the Grand Army of the Republic today issued orders in which he calls attention to the forthcoming election of post officers and delegates to the annual encampment. The new officials will be chosen by each post at the first meeting in December and installation will be at the first meeting in January. Rules for the election of delegates to the encampment, which will be held in Omaha, are stated by Commander Wilcox as follows:

"Each post will elect one delegate and one alternate for each fifty members and a senior fraction thereof the year reported in good standing June 30, 1901, to the department encampment, which convenes at Omaha the second Wednesday in May, 1902. Posts reporting less than fifty members are entitled to one delegate and one alternate. Past post commanders are, by the rules and regulations, the members of the encampment and have a voice and vote in its deliberations and should not be elected either delegate or alternate. Your commander would recommend that the usual custom of having public installations held jointly with the Woman's Relief corps and Sons of Veterans, where there is a camp, with a proper effort this meeting can be made one of unusual interest to the post and its members. The post commander-elect will select the installing officer, who should be one of the department officers, if obtainable, or a post commander in good standing. As soon as possible after the election post adjutants will report to the assistant adjutant general the names of its officers, delegates and alternates, together with all past commanders who are in good standing in their respective posts, giving the postoffice address of each written in a plain, legible hand."

Encourages the Posts. Commander Wilcox offers the following words of encouragement, urging all veterans to assist in keeping up the standard of their respective posts: "We have reached that point in our life's work where many of us may feel that the number of our years prevents active work in keeping up the status of a good post. There are, however, in nearly every post those of our comrades who are yet able to take the burden of office and who have in their hearts a desire to keep the standing of their post up to the highest point possible. Such comrades should be chosen for officers to guide and officially conduct the interests of the post for the year 1902."

The following announcement is made relative to the annual inspection: "The inspector general has selected competent comrades to assist him in inspecting the posts of the department, who will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

"In inspecting a post, the inspector will see that the books are properly kept and the work well done. Find out the exact condition and make your report to Thomas L. Hull, Omaha, Neb."

"In case the assistant inspector cannot inspect your post, it is the duty of the post commander to appoint a competent comrade to act as inspector. "When the new officers are installed in January, 1902, the installing officer will propose this question: 'Has the post been inspected?' If answered in the negative he will proceed to perform said duty, before he installs the new officers."

In closing Commander Wilcox refers to the plan of Congressman Burkett for the passage of a bill to provide a pension of $12 per month for all veterans, to be given upon proof of service and honorable discharge, without physical examination. Mr. Wilcox says:

Endorses Burkett's Idea. "The commander takes this opportunity in calling the comrades' attention to a letter received from Hon. J. Burkett, congressman from Nebraska, who says: 'I desire to suggest to you that I have prepared and will introduce at the next session of congress a bill that is intended to remove from the 1890 law that part of it pertaining to rating according to degree of disability and to give instead a flat rating of $12 per month pension to all, without any physical examination, upon proof of service and honorable discharge, etc. This will in no way interfere with pensions drawn under the old law. I am impelled to do this, not only from the solicitations of many veterans, but also from a strong conviction that the present law is unsatisfactory to the veterans and is from economical to the government.' The commander heartily endorses such a measure and if it meets with your approval the commander would be glad to have an expression from your post. This can be done by resolution commending the bill, etc., and a copy sent to this department."

McKinley Memorial. Plans for the erection of a national monument to the memory of President McKinley are outlined thus: "On October 10, 1901, the trustees of the McKinley National Memorial association, appointed by President Roosevelt with the approval of Mrs. McKinley, met at Cleveland, O., and perfected an organization for the purpose of erecting and maintaining at Canton, O., a suitable memorial to our beloved comrade who died in the highest sense the sincere expression of the love of the people for President McKinley and of their admiration for the qualities expressed so eminently in his life and death. The memorial will be erected at Canton, that city having been his home throughout his public life and selected by him as his final resting place. While doubtless other memorials will be erected in honor of President McKinley, no memorial more especially appeals to his former comrades in arms, as it will embody the love and sentiment of those who were bound to him by the most tender ties and the commander-in-chief earnestly requests that the President Roosevelt with the Republic contribute to this most worthy and patriotic object.

A book will be opened at once at these headquarters, in which will be entered the credits of the post or individual aid given for the purpose and the total amount thus contributed to this laudable purpose will be reported to the department encampment at Omaha in May, 1902. A receipt will be sent to the donor immediately, all money received will be transmitted by the assistant adjutant general to Ryerson Ritchie, secretary, Cleveland, O., and in due time souvenir certificates will be sent to all donors, which will be worthy of preservation.

Delivery to Every Farmhouse. The postmasters of Cass county met in Lincoln tonight in response to a call by Congressman Burkett and considered the latter's plan to inaugurate a system of free rural mail routes, which will include every farmhouse in that county. The following committee was appointed to divide the county into districts for the various routes: C. V. Day, Waverling, Mo.; Coleman and Greenwood, Frank Sheldon, Nebraska. The postmasters were entertained at luncheon in the Commercial club by Mr. Burkett.

Two Federal Judicial Districts. Former District Attorney A. J. Sawyer and A. C. Greenlee of this city have prepared a bill for submission to the next congress which provides for the organization of two federal judicial districts in Nebraska. It will be presented to the local bar association and if it is approved by Congressman Burkett. To the South district it is proposed to add several counties in the northwest. Plaintiff country in order to make the two sections equal. These are: Hall, Buffalo, Custer, Blaine, Thomas, Hooker, Grant, Deuel, Cheyenne, Box Butte, Banner, Kimball, McPherson and Logan. Headquarters of the northern district is to be in Omaha, while that of the southern district will be in Lincoln.

Mystic Shrines Initiative. Sessantria temple, Mystic Shrine, held a semi-annual meeting tonight and initiated fourteen novices. Visitors were present from various places in Nebraska, Colorado and South Dakota. The novices were: John Moore, Victor Seymour, C. H. Deane, F. S. Taylor, I. F. Taylor, George H. Clark, H. M. Royden, Lincoln; H. M. Clam, Aurora; B. D. Rugg, Wahoo; Robert Brown, Gresham; O. M. Moore, York; H. B. Hart, York.

Nebraska Schoolmasters' Club. The Nebraska Schoolmasters' club held its eighth meeting tonight and considered "The Significance of Our Boys So Early Withdrawing From School Life." A paper on the subject was read by former State Superintendent Jackson and the discussion was led by C. R. Atkinson. Twenty-five were present.

Now it is Major Storch. Captain Storch of Company C was today elected major of the First regiment, Nebraska National guard.

Closing Great Land Deal. On Monday, December 26, the remnant of a great land deal between the government and the Burlington Railroad company will be closed up at the Lincoln land office. This remnant embraces certain tracts in Saline, Lancaster, Cass and Otoe counties, to be set to the public and the land occupied by purchasers from the Burlington and in such cases, where there is no dispute as to possession or ownership, the present occupants will have nothing to do but pay to the government the $2.00 per acre after paying the satisfaction of the local land officers their rights as good faith purchasers and occupants of the land.

Governor Savage Will Speak. Governor Savage has accepted an invitation to deliver an address at the breaking of the ground for the new Auditorium in Omaha next Monday afternoon.

Candidates' Expense Accounts. Candidates' expense accounts were filed with the secretary of state today as follows: Fred W. Hawby, fusion candidate for reagent; Ed. Judge Sedwick, candidate for supreme judge; $170. Of the latter amount $150 was donated to the state committee and the balance was a contribution toward the expense of two public meetings in York.

Hon. Robert W. Wilcox, Delegate from Hawaii and the Sandwich Islands, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., says:

"I have used Peruna for dyspepsia and I cheerfully give you this testimonial. Am satisfied if it is used properly it will be of great benefit to our people. I can conscientiously recommend it to anyone who is suffering with stomach or catarrhal troubles."—R. W. WILCOX.

Miss Sara McGahan, 127 Third Street, Albany, N. Y., writes: "A few months ago I suffered with a severe attack of influenza, which nothing seemed to relieve. My hearing became bad, my eyes became irritated and feverish. Nothing seemed right, and nothing I ate tasted good. "I do not know what Peruna is made of, but I know it is a wonderful medicine to drive away sickness and restore you to health. Within two weeks I was perfectly well, and now when any of my friends are sick, I advise them to take Peruna."—Sara McGahan.

Mr. Benjamin D. Bowers, tailor, corner of Bank and Queen streets, Ottawa, Ont., writes as follows: "Last winter I caught a severe cold which seemed to settle all over me. I did not know just what the trouble was, my head and back ached, my stomach refused food, and my general health seemed impaired. Within two weeks I was perfectly well, and now when any of my friends are sick, I advise them to take Peruna."—Sara McGahan.

"A catarrhal phlegm raised from my throat and lined my stomach. Four bottles of Peruna did more for me than all the doctor's medicines had done, for it cured me, built up my entire system, and made me feel strong once more. Since that time I have never missed a meal, my sleep is restful, and my entire system in good condition."—Benjamin D. Bowers.

Mr. William Ratagan, 1646 River street, Detroit, Mich., is school inspector of Wayne county. Quartermaster General, Supreme Commander of the Knights of St. John Hu writes the following:

"For years I dreaded the unseasonable winter weather with its shock bringing colds and all kinds of trouble in its wake, and each winter I would have several weeks of sickness, laying me up for part of the time, and I suffered a great deal with stomach trouble. Last winter I was advised to take Peruna when I had the first sign of illness, and in less than a week I was like a new man. I could hardly believe my senses, and felt that I would have a relapse, but the winter and spring passed and I had another sick day. I have since, and I have been in perfect health ever since, thanks to Peruna."—W. F. Ratagan.

Enjoy Perfect Health Due to Peruna. Mr. Willis Hughes, President of the Century Bicycle Club, of Crown Point, Ind., writes the following:

"Peruna is very popular in Crown Point, but I must say that it deserves all the praise it gets. There is a natural prejudice here against patent medicines, but Peruna has quietly yet persistently worked its way into hundreds of homes, and is now a welcome visitor.

"I have found it an invaluable help, especially in cases of catarrh. I suffered with it for many months, and after a two weeks' treatment entirely cured me. I now enjoy perfect health and Peruna has a staunch friend in me."—Willis Hughes.

There are some things which are as sure as fate and can be relied on to occur to at least one-half of the human family unless means are taken to prevent it.

First, the climate of fall and winter is sure to bring colds, second, colds not promptly cured are sure to cause catarrh, third, catarrh improperly treated is sure to make life short and miserable.

Catarrh spares no organ or function of the body. It is capable of causing acidity, taste, smell, hearing, digestion, secretion, assimilation and excretion. It pervades every part of the human body, head, throat, stomach, bowels, bronchial tubes, lungs, liver, kidneys, bladder and sexual organs.

Catarrh is the cause of at least one-half of the ills to which the human family is subject. Is there no way to escape from it? There is.

Peruna never fails to cure a cold. Peruna never fails to cure catarrh in the first stage. Peruna cures catarrh in the second stage. Peruna cures catarrh in its last and worst stages in the majority of cases, and never fails to benefit every case, however bad.

Peruna also cures the grippe, coughs and consumption in the first stages with unfailing certainty.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to the makers, and a full statement of your case, and we will be pleased to give you our valuable advice gratis.
