

FUGITIVE FROM LYNCHERS

Will Mathis, Charged with Double Murder, Takes Refuge in Jail.

BARELY ESCAPES HOUNDS AND FOSSE

Wife and Three Negroes Under Arrest on Suspicion of Complicity in Killing and Burning Bodies.

OXFORD, Miss., Nov. 20.—Will Mathis, who is charged with the murder of two deputy marshals, Montgomery by name, walked into the little town of Dallas, twelve miles south of here, tonight and surrendered to a justice of the peace and two citizens. Mathis had been closely pursued by a large posse with bloodhounds and, realizing that his capture was certain, the fugitive voluntarily gave himself up and asked for protection. He was turned over to the police and started for Oxford, but it is understood at a late hour tonight that he will not be brought to this city. The officers fear mob violence.

When the news reached Oxford the street was immediately filled with people and for a time there was intense excitement. Bonfires were built and many threats of summary vengeance against the alleged murderer were heard on all sides. Addressed by the local officers and cool-headed business men and at 11 o'clock tonight the excitement has subsided and it is believed that the threatened lynching has been averted. The local officers announce that they will protect the prisoner at all hazards.

The two murdered deputies, brothers named Montgomery, went to Mathis' house to arrest him for alleged moonshining. On the following day the bodies of the two Montgomerys were found in the ruins of Mathis' house, which had been burned during the night. Mathis had been taking the horse of one of the deputies. He was traced to the Yocane bottoms, where last night he was reported to be surrounded by a posse of citizens and officers.

Others Under Arrest. Mrs. Mathis and three negroes are under arrest in Oxford, charged with complicity in the murders. Before a coroner's jury they have related the details of the crime. The negroes under arrest are George and Bill Jackson, brothers, and Orlando Laster. The negro Laster says that Mathis induced the officers to spend the night at his house and shot them after they had gone to bed, the negro holding the lamp. The negro procedure for Mathis from Mat Owens, Mathis' father-in-law. The latter loaded the gun with buckshot before sending it to Mathis.

Mrs. Mathis confessed to being in the house when her husband did the killing. She left for her father's home after the killing. Mathis, the negro Laster says, robbed the bodies of watches, money and pistols, pulled the bodies on the floor, placed a straw mattress over them and set it on fire. Mrs. Mathis and the negro both admit that Bill Jackson, who had been before the shooting occurred, tried to prevail on Mathis not to commit the crime.

A guard was placed around the county jail in Oxford last night, as there were threats of lynching the prisoners charged with being accessory to Mathis' crime.

TOO MUCH STOCK INSURANCE

South Dakota Commissioner Revokes Germania Livestock Company's Charter.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—As the result of a personal inspection at the headquarters of the company in this city, H. C. Shober, the commissioner of insurance of South Dakota, has revoked the charter of the Germania Livestock Insurance company of this city. Commissioner Shober found by looking over the books of the company that it had over $400,000 in stock, that it had paid out $15,000 in premium notes, that it had paid losses to the amount of $500 and that about $600 in losses had been reported and were still unpaid. He also found an item of expense for four months which the company had been doing business of $3,000 and upward.

The officers of the company are: President, W. H. Valentine; secretary, J. P. Law; treasurer, S. C. Casper. The company secured the business by offering a livestock insurance business against losses of fire, tornado, cyclone, etc. Instead of insuring itself to the work laid down in the charter, the company began insuring livestock against loss from any cause.

The nature of the business being done by the company was discovered when farmers living in the neighborhood of Hartford secured the services of a local attorney to bring an action for the cancellation of notes given by them on premiums. The notes were supposed to be for $100,000, but the farmers are alleged to have found that they were being disposed of. The attorney called the attention of the state insurance department to the matter, with the above result.

SUNDAY OPENING THE CAUSE OF ANXIETY

Victorious Candidates Are Traced to Make No Compromise—Crusade Will Be Inaugurated Against Gambling.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Nov. 20.—The twenty-eighth national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union ended its regular session this evening with the adoption of a sensational declaration on the alleged attitude of the reform forces in New York City with respect to the partial opening of saloons on Sunday. The declaration came in the following resolution, offered by Mrs. Boole of New York: The victory of the fusion ticket in New York City which resulted in the overthrow of Tammany has caused great rejoicing. The victory was gained by the united efforts of good people, but with regret that some of the leaders are advocating opening saloons on Sunday. We, the National Woman's Christian Temperance union, representing the motherhood of the world, are interested in the welfare of the home of this country, desire to enter our protest against Sunday opening or any attempt to abate the liquor traffic longer hours or greater privileges. We earnestly urge the law-abiding and moral citizens of New York state to stand for a strict enforcement of the Sunday closing law and the abolition of the Raines hotel law.

Mrs. Boole supported the resolution in an impassioned speech. The proceedings opened this morning with the report of organizers, mainly from the Pacific coast states, South Dakota, Idaho and Texas. A large increase in membership was shown from these localities. Organizers, lecturers and evangelists for the coming year were appointed as follows: Organizers—Miss Louise E. Hollister, Maine; Mrs. Clara P. Sobrey, New York; Miss Eliza Gordon, Massachusetts. Lecturers—Miss Ruth Shaffer, Pennsylvania; and Miss Wells, Tennessee. Evangelists—Rev. Francis E. Townsley, Michigan.

Miss Anna M. Shaw was appointed national superintendent for temperance literature and Mrs. Murrow for work among the Indians. A message was authorized to be sent to Lady Henry Somerset and one to Rev. T. G. L. of London, expressing the "perfect joy" felt here in the presence of his daughter.

Babies Consecrated to Temperance. A feature of the morning exercises was the consecration of two infants to the cause of total abstinence. Prayers were offered. "Precious Jewels" was sung and Priscilla Stevens tied a white ribbon to the babies' dresses.

The closing hour of the Loyal Temperance legion was marked by a decision that the legion should make a decided onslaught on all manner of gambling, particular reference being made to slot machines in use at county and state fairs and in cities.

At the afternoon the by-laws were amended, providing that "Y" branch officers be elected by ballot annually. Some friction was reported between state officers and organizers and lecturers, growing out of an attempt to make the endorsement of the former necessary before the latter could appeal for funds. It developed that the lecturers and organizers often interfered with the policy of state officers. A limitation was made by a decisive vote.

An official statement was made that the total membership of the Woman's Christian Temperance union is about 300,000 and its paid membership 160,000.

Then, after the benediction, the convention adjourned sine die. Tonight a great platform meeting was held at the First Baptist church, Mrs. Stevens presiding. All the noted speakers of the national organization were heard.

SAYS MEADE MADE MISTAKES

Officer Who Went to Inspect Barracks Treats Colonel Meade as Drunk During Review.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The court-martial of Colonel R. E. Meade was resumed today. Major Charles H. Lauchheimer of the United States Marine Corps, who preferred the charges, took the stand and told of a visit to the marine barracks in Brooklyn on June 18 last for the purpose of making an inspection and stated that Colonel Meade was on that occasion under the influence of liquor and unfit for duty. There was a review of the battalion that day and Colonel Meade made several mistakes while conducting the drill and the witness curtailed the drill. Major Lauchheimer said that when he returned to Washington he reported the poor drill and the fact that Colonel Meade was intoxicated.

On cross-examination Major Lauchheimer said he made a close inspection, but denied that Colonel Meade became irritable on account of this close inspection. Witness also denied the alleged attitude of the reform forces in New York City with respect to the partial opening of saloons on Sunday. The deliverance came in the following resolution, offered by Mrs. Boole of New York: The victory of the fusion ticket in New York City which resulted in the overthrow of Tammany has caused great rejoicing. The victory was gained by the united efforts of good people, but with regret that some of the leaders are advocating opening saloons on Sunday.

The hour was decorated with autumn leaves, ferns and white chrysanthemums. The bride was in pure white. The bride and groom, amid showers of rice, left on the evening train for Lincoln, where they expect to stay a short time, when they will go to their home at Colby, Kan.

JUMPERS GO OVER HURDLES

Hunters, Trotting Horses and Shetlands Divide Honors at New York Show.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The hunters and jumpers, trotting stallions and roadsters divided the interest and honors at the New York show today. The morning crowd was larger than usual and the afternoon performance of the jumpers, which were sent over six successive hurdles, each five feet high, was probably the most successful of the show. Seven entries in that class, and after them came a big band of horses suitable to be shown. The trotting stallions were headed by George Peabody Wymore and John G. Hecker who were the ring committee for the summer. Columbia and Land scored the best points in the class. The Shetlands were headed by the same pair. The day was clear and sufficiently chilling to limit the attendance.

NO INDIAN GAME FOR OMAHA

Manager Chaucer Y. Robe Says Game Will Play at Grand Island.

Some revision is needed in the managerial announcements concerning the schedule of the Omaha High school football team. The week it was given out that the Minnesota High school had canceled its Omaha date owing to objections of the Omaha Indians. The Omaha Indians had agreed to play on Thanksgiving day in Omaha. There is no truth in the report that the Omaha Indians had canceled their game with the Lincoln High school team in this city Friday evening. The High school team which played last night was made up of the following members: Miss Frederika Malmgren, second center and captain; Miss Laura Condon, center; Miss Natalie Merriman and Mabel Christy, guards; Miss Jessie Moorhead and Bush, forwards.
