FORTY-CENT ADVANCE ON REFINED SUGAR To Attempt to Deliver Orders Filled at the Low Rate and New Orders

Taken Only at Option

The augar attuation on the Missouri river fo decidedly interesting since the American tefining company has announced that it will send no more sugar into this territory at the price of $4.25 per hundredweight. This news was received Tuesday evening just beore 6 o'clock. In an instant the wires were busy with the wholesale dealers telegraphing and telephoning to their reprepentatives to take no more sugar orders for less than $4.65, the new price, and to take sone of them without providing for their approval by the house and the right to cansel all or any part of the order at discre-

Yesterday word was received from the broker representing the American Refining company at this place saying that probably six or eight cars of sugar would be delivered here at the former reduced price to make it possible for local jobbers to give an allotment to each of their customers at the low price of last week. There are orders for probably 2,000,000 sacks of sugar in Omaha at this time. Some of the retailers have not received one pound on these orders. Tuesday as soon as the new price was received clerks began to make a list of the orders on hand, taking the names of the retailers, but making no record of the amount ordered, as it was decided that it would be impossible to make an allotment on the basis of quantity, but that each dealer, he his order large or small, would receive an equal amount. It is hoped that the jobbers can assign two sacks of 100 a position corresponding with that of the pounds each to each customer, but there present desk sergeant. The brokers announce that it will probably be the first of next week time has been in feeble health. They have before sugar can be delivered at $4.65, and | no children. this estimate is used in taking orders at the new price.

While the low price of American Refining company stock prevails there is little doing in the sugar of other refiners, but where the demand is imperative National company sugar is being sold at $4.90, the price which prevailed before the reduction. The American Beet company is making no attempt at deliveries, all of its product being stored. Omaha warehouses receiving a considerable

Among local jobbers the increase in the price of sugar is looked upon as a confession on the part of the American Refining company that it has been defeated in its object and that it has despaired of involving the beet sugar people in the struggle.

Stricken with Paralysis the Gallant Police Officer is Making a Fight for Life.

The condition of A. A. Bebout, sergeant of police, is said to be a trifle better, though the doctors report him still a very sick man. Since 11 o'clock Tuesday night he has had two strokes of paralysis. He was sleeping quietly at midnight of Wednesday, the symptoms of the night before being much less severe, and the physicians hope to defer the fatal third atroke for an indefinite period. The power of speech returned to him during the day and his last words before falling asleep were that he hoped to be able to go to work this morning. His mood was cheerful and he seemed not to realize the seriousness of his condition. Sergeant Bebout is one of the best known members of the police force and is one of the oldest in point of service, having been appointed to the office of jailer in 1888, when Weber S. Seavey was chief. By his uniform courtesy and gentlemanly bearing, as well as by his efficiency as an officer, he has won many friends in that time.

He was born in 1854 in a small country town of Ohio, where he lived and went to school during his early beyhood. When 28 years old he came to Nebraska with his father and mother and settled in Nebraska City, and there his father, William Bebout, who was quite wealthy at one time, invested in a line of packets plying between Omaha, St. Joseph, Kansas City and other Missouri river points. Patrick, who was under the influence of liquor, went to several houses and attempted to gain entrance, presumabily thinking each house was his home. At the residence of Mr. Landon he was ordered to move on and retallated by striking the latter on the head with his cane, knocking him senseless. The police were notified and Patrick locked up. Madame Rose received an uppercut in the mouth which drew blood and cut her lip. Allie was unlajured.

THREE NAMES MENTIONED FOR MAYORALTY

Kelly Seeks Renomination, Kontsky Wants It and Adkins Would Not Refuse if the Place Were Offered Him.

Local politicians and those interested ! municipal affairs are already talking about the election to be held in April. An entire ticket, with the exception of tax com-

Repairing Pavements.

It is the same old story again this fell. The pavement on Twenty-fourth street is thing must be done to prepare it for service during the winter. In order to have this work done as economically as possible, the council has ordered the street commissioner to fill the holes with finely broken stone and Portland cement. This work should be done at once, but no one knows when it will be started as the street commissioner is over in Iowa visiting friends. There is so much wear on this pavement that it is a constant expense to the city.

"As soon as matters shape themselves so we can," said a member of the council vesterday afternoon, "a proposition will b submitted for a new pavement. What is needed is a good heavy base to start with and then not less than two inches of asphalt. Such a pavement will wear for a now laid soon wears through as the base is not heavy enough to stand the traffic. Next spring something will have to be done toward laying a better and more substantial pavement

Dates are being claimed by a number of preeders of fancy stock for the winter The first sale of stock of importance will be held in the new pavilion at the yards on December 18. Other sales have been booked as far ahead as May. Among the stock to be sold will be Shorthorns, Herefords, Galloways, Aberdeen-Angus, etc. South Omaha is quite a favorite point for fancy sales and stockmen all over the west look to this market to secure first-class breeding cattle.

lowa Shippers Enthusiastic.

Live stock shipments from Iowa have been on the increase lately and the reason is apparent. The prices paid here and the treatment accorded to shippers by the managers of the stock yards are what bring the trade. Up to date the receipts of hogs and sheep show an increase over last year and it is expected that the decrease in cattle shipments will be made up before the close of the calendar year.

Arresting Peddlers.

Yesterday the police were instructed to arrest all peddlers who have not secured licenses for the coming six months. Nine complaints were filed in police court yesterday and officers on duty at headquarters stated that no partiality would be shown. Several weeks ago a petition was presented to the council by peddlers asking for a re-duction in the license for the winter months. Members of the council decided that there should be no reduction at this time and as the licenses granted for six months have expired arrests will follow until new licenses are issued.
