

SENATOR MILLARD STARTS

Way to Washington to Look After the Duties of His Office.

MANY LITTLE THINGS WAIT FOR HIM

Constituents Forward Their Desires and Petitions in Advance to the National Capital to Be There in Time.

Senator Joseph H. Millard and Miss Millard left for Washington Sunday afternoon at 4:55 and will remain in that city until after the opening of congress.

The first thing I expect to do as soon as I get straightened around in Washington, said he, "is to look after the completion of the Omaha public building."

Now, the statement of the expenditures on the Omaha building shows that there should be more than enough money in the fund to do the work as it should be done.

Upon arriving at Washington the senator will find much work to be done for his constituents, of which he now probably has no knowledge.

Senator Dietrich, who has been in the east for several days, has done much of his presence in Washington to lighten the work of Senator Millard in matters involving the joint action of both senators and that work will be in a measure taken from his hands.

At the train Senator Millard was met by a number of citizens, headed by Colonel Frank P. Hanlon and W. H. DeFrance, who presented Miss Millard with some beautiful flowers and wished both bon voyage.

Amusements

The Boyd—They are few indeed who do not enjoy the mysteries of a clever exhibition of legermain, such as was presented by Leon Herrmann.

There are large audiences both Sunday afternoon and evening. The beauties of this class of entertainment lie almost wholly in the manner of manipulation on the part of the magician.

Morris Staggerman was arrested at Twenty-third and Union streets about noon Sunday on a charge of being drunk and discharging firearms within the city limits.

John Heller, who works in a livery stable at 114 Douglas street, reports the theft of a watch from his vest, which had been left hanging in the barn office.

Max Idelman, 1816 Dodge street, mourns the loss of a bronze medal which was given him by the governor of Iowa in recognition of distinguished service in the Philippines.

Otto Baysdorfer, who runs a bicycle hospital at 114 North Sixteenth street, reports to the police that his place was entered by a burglar Saturday night, who robbed his cash box and changed the entrance.

The State Sheriff's association will meet annual session in the Merchants' hotel Friday afternoon, December 29.

John Post of Theoford is at the Murray. John Pratt of North Platte is at the Murray.

LINCOLN BELIEVES IT CAN BREAK IN

St. Joe Has Its Hammer Out for Hickey—Council Bluffs Wonders Why Rourke and Others Assemble.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—It is said to be practically assured that Lincoln will have a team in the Western Base Ball league next year.

President T. J. Hickey of the Western league arrived last night and today he was joined by Manager George Tebeau.

The intention is to get five or six men to guarantee that the team will remain in the league to the end of the season.

Mr. Hickey would not discuss the local situation further than to say: "Lincoln has good chance to have base ball, if the people want it now is the time to say so."

ST. JOSEPH, Nov. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—Something interesting will be going on when the magnates of the Western league gather at Kansas City the latter part of this week.

But not so Saturday. Previous work of base ball made it certain that with Yale improving the Blues had a shade better chance to win.

But not so the coaches. They must needs clinch the coming contest by putting in a few more practice games.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—The Harvard team and coaches had not secured their standing in the Western league.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—What is said to have been a meeting of base ball magnates was held this afternoon in the apartments of Thomas Burns.

When questioned as to the purpose of the meeting at its close Rourke said: "It was not a base ball meeting."

Asked if the meeting was not in relation to the proposed organization of a new league, which would put several of the towns in the old Western league into a smaller circuit.

The meeting was held behind closed doors in Thomas Burns' room in the hotel and, it is said, the following men interested in base ball matters were present.

A. B. Beall owns the Minneapolis franchise, having last year transferred it from Sioux City. Van Brunt is a brother of the Van Brunts who brought their yacht here this summer to contest for the Lake Manawa cup.

While the identity of those present at the meeting was denied by Burns and Rourke, it is known that Burns gave instructions at the hotel that when five men, named Beall, Van Brunt, Flynn, Manning and Rourke, called they be shown up to his room.

CROUP Is dangerous, but there is timely warning. The danger signal is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse, then a rough cough appears. The following night the child has croup. It can be prevented—can be warded off. There is a remedy—a safe one, and sure too. It never fails. It is called Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Given, as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It has done so thousands of times and has never been known to fail.

All Talk No cures to report, no long record of testing, nothing to give you confidence—but talk, all talk. That's the truth about nearly all cough medicines. But there's a record of 60 years of cures back of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. And physicians endorse it, prescribe it for colds, bronchitis, and coughs of all kinds. Probably your own doctor does. Ask him. He knows all about it—has the formula.
