Leader of Fusionists in House Explains Mis Views in Detail.

REFUSED A HEARING IN HIS PARTY OFGAN

Says Needs of the State Should Take Precedence Over Party Politics and Personal Convenience.

The position of Hon. John C. Sprecher on the question of an extra session is outlined in detail in the following communication which was addressed to the editor of The World-Herald two weeks ago, but failed to appear in that paper. As the real leader of the fusion forces in the lower house of the legislature last winter Mr. Sprecher's views are entitled to more weight than he claims for them. The reason why his own party organ refused to give him a hearing readily appears from his aspersions on the champions of the Bartley parole and his square stand for municipal home rule. The letter reads:

SCHUYLER, Neb., Nov. 15.-Editor World-Herald: In your issue of Tuesday of this week you devote a little editorial space to me relative to an alleged interview I gave The Bee on the day preceding. I want to first say that while in Omaha on Monday on business I met Editor Rosewater and had a short conversation with him concerning an editorial in Sunday's Bee. the talk following his inquiry as to whether I had read same and what I thought of it. had no idea my remarks to him would appear in print, and in fact regret, as such was the case, a more complete and a little more exact quotation was not given. But as to that, I am not now interested, and will ask you for a little space to reply to some extent to your sneering editorial comment concerning same Payors Legislative Redistricting.

I want to say to you that I am in favor of an extra session of the legislature, although personally I should regret it, as it would mean my attendance and a month away from work I am engaged in this winter that needs my personal supervision. I am not in favor of it because The Bee is (although it expresses much of my ideas) nor because the World-Herald opposes it, but because I believe the good of the state demands it. Had the last session of the legislature done its plain duty an extra session would not be thought of, but it failed most dismally. I do not know what Governor Savage's views upon the subject are, but if I were governor and a legislature failed to do its duty by the people I would call it together in extra session and in that call designate the subjects it should consider, and not be able to shirk, official, who not only plunders the state and let that body bear the blame for the act, if there be any.

I am in favor of this state being redistricted as to senatorial and representative districts, because the present apportionment is the rankest kind of an injustice to portions of the state, particulally the western. Not only did the session of 1901 fall to make an apportionment, but also did that of 1891, yet the constitution of the state says that at the first regular session after each enumeration it "shall" be done Under the present apportionment certain sections of the state scarcely have any representation, while others have from 50 to 100 per cent more than entitled to, and yet this is for years let remain. The bot tom of it is that the members from the portions of the state which would lose by a redistricting simply connive to have no action taken, and thus retain the present representation regardless of the rank inustice done other sections. While the reading of the constitution would indicate regular session of the legislature after an enumeration, yet there is room for doubt. and the governor could secure from our supreme court a hint at least as to same. The congressional and judicial apportionments are not pressing.

Constitution Needs Amending.

I am in favor of an extra session to submit amendments to the constitution so that same can be voted upon by the people at the next election, and with the amended election laws allowing political parties to take action in state conventions upon any proposed amendments, and such action becoming a part of their respective tickets there is the best of reason to believe that some very urgent amendments would carry and not be defeated as in the past by the voter who did not express his wish upon his ballot, yet at the same time really voted "no."

For one amendment our supreme court should be increased to five or seven members when our appointed supreme court commission of nine (which is proper, even though not strictly constitutional) passes out of existence and make room for a court elected by the people. Also our constitution should be amended so as to create new departments and do away with the present deputy system, which is clearly a dodging of constitutional restrictions and which permits state officials to pocket fees not rightfully theirs. With the system (in vogue under our conetitutional contraction) removed Bixby and Edgar Howard would not in the future be daily and weekly yelling to some ex-state official to "put it back!"

Demands of School Fund.

Another very important amendment would be to enlarge the field of investment of our permanent school fund so that our public schools could get the benefit of all possible accruing interest and not have that large sum of idle money handled by a state treasurer for the benefit of favorite banks and probable "rake-offs" for him With such an amendment the World-Herald would not have to be howling at State Treasurer Stuefer to show up. The demand by the World-Herald of Treasurer Stuefer was right and one might give it credit had it been a sincere one and not simply a piece of political buncombe not practiced upon a fusion predesessor who was in the same boat (on lack of public statements of the whereabouts of money) condition of the World-Herald relative to the public funds was then not manifest. I might add other important subjects to and taxation, enlargement of the depository laws relative to county and municipal funds, appropriations for the lately-burned be all too lengthy without same.

I must not omit to say that no session will be called to vote more of the people's money for the purpose of placing a Nebraska exhibit at the St. Louis exposition or any other exhibition. We have indulged in same in the past and about all it amounted to was to give certain persons in charge a grand opportunity to spend Favors Municipal Home Rule.

However, I suspect that possibly the true cause of The Bee's desiring an extra session and the World-Herald naturally oppossing it is not at the surface, but is hidden and may be connnected with some Omaha municipal matter-the Fire and Police commission, for instance. On that I have the risk of offending the World-Herald. On a general siniment for sprains, bruises, was sent to the Lincoln asylum one year principle I am opposed to any system or lameness and rheumatism. Pain Baim is ago and later to Hastings as incurable. He law which takes the full municipal govern- unequaled. For sale by all druggists.

SPRECHER ON EXTRA SESSION | ment of Omaha or any other city, out of the hands of the people who live in that city. The idea of our Nebraska state legislature being called upon to legislate especially for Omaha or for a governor to appoint fire and police commissioners or any other city officials is an outrageous condition. Just think of a legislature, of which nine-tenths of the members do not live in Omaha and cannot be held responsible by SAYS PAYNE WAS FIRST TO DRAW RAZER those who are affected by their acts, nor have any interest therein, having legislative authority relative to that municipality. or an executive who has no right whatever to so do using executive authority! It is contrary to the foundation principles of our government of the people. The people of Omaha should govern Omaha completely and if it is not governed right they are to biame and must suffer. So far as possible all municipal officers should be elected by direct vote of the people and where not possible the mayor should appoint, as he is the chosen head of the municipality and responsible to the people. The idea that to take the full control of a municipal government away from the people of that municipality and place in the hands of a governor or legislature a portion of same, improves it, is the rankest kind of sophistry. It simply places it in the channels of machine politics, the worst possible. City, as well as all other governments, can be kept clean and outside the worst elements if people would exercise a little horse sense and not be simply blind partisans. The good people of all parties must never become divided partisanism so as to not be able to unite at any time for the overthrow of the had and the enthronement of the good.

Compliments to Bartley's Champtons. The matter of expense for an extra seesion should well be considered and the public funds should not be expended in ceased and the fatal character of the one any instance without due consideration, but I believe that in connection with this matter it would be well expended. If a special session did even a portion of its short time through channels of interest on public funds not invested under conditions of the present. In conclusion I want to say to the World-Herald that I think and act for myself and am alone responsible for my utterances and actions. I favor an extra session because I think it necessary and right and do not care what any editor or politician thinks about it. No political party machinery in any way controls me nor do I ask permission of any party or person to express my individual views on any topic of public interest. Should I seek advice on public matters I certainly should not call upon one who hastens to endorse and applaud the damnable act of a republican governor who pardons or paroles a defaulting state treasurer who robe the people of Nebraska of $250,000. Executive clemency may excusably be used with a common thief or even with a murderer, because there may be some extenuating circumstances, but not for a defaulting treasury and steals the people's money. but, worse still, violates the public trust and confidence reposed in him. For such no executive interference is within the bounds of political decency, and any governor who would so exercise executive authority and any person who upholds such sharp instrument directly over the lef executive outlawry are not worthy of public confidence. Very truly yours,

JOHN C. SPRECHER.

MANY WANT BOOKS TO READ Applications for Sets Are Received

Daily by State Library Commission in Lincoln.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 26 .- (Special.) - Applications for sets of books are being received and emptied a beer can several times dur have immediate charge of the distribution, jewelry. Late in the afternoon he fe that redistricting can only be done at a is making the preliminary arrangements for the circulation and expects to have the system in full operation within the next few weeks. The applications so far received are from Blair, Germantown, Harvard, Talmage, Syracuse, Loup City, Alexandria, Douglas, Purdum, Kenesaw, Fairmont, Oak precinct and Osceola.

The commission has approximately $1,300 evailable for the purchase of books. This money, it is estimated, will buy over 1,400 books. About one-third of the books in each set will be of the juvenile class and a majority of the balance will come under the general classification of fiction. It is the desire of the commission to have each large town or city which is a beneficiary of the traveling library system make a small donation for the purchase of new books. It is believed that in this way the purchase fund will be greatly increased. Foot ball enthusiasts are looking forward to the Nebraska-Indian game on Thanksgiving day as the best and closest contest of the season. The Haskell Indians have been defeated only once during the season and that time by Minnesota. Kansas and Missouri were both defeated by the team. It is reported here that the sporting element of Kansas Carr. St. Joseph and Lawrence, Kan., will be represented here by persons willing to wager money on the success of the Indians. The combined expense of the republican and fusion campaigns in this county was $2,272. Of this sum the republicans spent the major portion, $1.848.50, and the fusionists the modest sum of $423.50. Chairman H. C. Lindsay of the republican state central committee will leave tomorrow on a trip to the Pacific coast and through California. He will return about tion of him and elect Moore. The case January 1, when he will resume his duties as chairman of the committee and as private secretary to the governor. During his absence the headquarters will be in charge of Miss Grace D. Walker of Plattsmouth, who has been in the employ of the committee several months.

DUSSELDORF ON THE STAND

Defendant Says He Used His Own Knife Only to Protect Himself from Attack by His Two Companions.

FREMONT, Neb., Nov. 26 .- (Special Telegram.)-The state in the case against Joseph Dusseldorf, charged with the murder of Arthur Payne at North Bend in June last, closed its case this morning. Its DUNNE HEARS WHOLE STORY principal witness today was J. O'Neil of North Bend, who assisted City Marshal Thompson in making the arrest. He said that he found Dusseldorf lying down in a clump of willows near the bank of the Platte river, but in plain sight of a person approaching from any direction. The de fendant was at once brought up to the railroad track to where Payne still lay in front of the door of the box car. The witness asked the injured man "if this man," meaning Dusseldorf, "was the one who stabbed you," and received no answer. Payne moved slightly and shook his head, declining to say a word. During that time the boy Dorkin was present, but pretended to be a mute and no information could be obtained from him. Doctors Davies and Martin were the next two witnesses. They described at some length the wounds on the body of the dein the left side.

City Marshal Thompson was recalled and testified that Dusseldorf wore a mustache when arrested and Dorkin had no beard or was not called by the state, but will undoubtedly be a witness for the defendant. Doctor Says Payne Rode Improperly.

Dusseldorf evidently has two defenses. one that the wound received by Payne was not necessarily fatal, and the other selfdefense. In support of the first, Dr. Guthrle of North Bend was put on the stand. After again going over the location of the wounds, he said that Payne stated in his give the man a threshing. The next afternoon he saw him at the depot as he was being taken to the Fremont hospital. He appeared cheerful and called for a cigawhich he smoked with an evident satisfaction. The doctor thought the cause of his death was the crowding of the stomach against the heart through the ruptured diaphragm, and that such pressure was aused by his being brought on the train to Fremont in a horizontal instead of semi-elevated position. The wound, h said, was not necessarily fatal.

Mr. Davies testified to his examination of the defendant at the Fremont jail. He found him pretty well cut and scratched up. He had a dozen small cuts or scratches on his face, one of which was made by eye, and a bad wound on one band.

Dusseldorf in His Own Behalf.

The defense rested its case this after Aside from the doctors called estify to the character of Payne's wounds the defendant himself was the principa witness. He said he was 29 years of agand was born in Brooklyn, N. Y. For the past fifteen months he had been away from home, going from place to place. He me Payne and Dorkin at North Bend the morning the affair occurred. They filled the State Library commission at the ing the day, the defendant paying for the asleep in the car and when he awoke foun his stock of goods, which he carried in tobacco pouch in his pocket, and about in money, gone. A quarrel followed, which the two pitched onto him. In th course of the fracas Payne pulled a razor and called him a vile name and threatene o kill him. Defendant then pulled out hi knife, which he had bought that afternoon and stabbed Payne.

Dusseldorf was subjected to a short bu vigorous cross-examination by Mr. Martin for the state, in which it was developed tha he had been tramping around some tim and selling his cheap jewelry.

His language was a mixture of tram terms and the English of a fairly well edu cated man. His appearance on the stan was good.

Prosecution Moves it After Girl's Statement is Ruled Out.

GREAT CROWD HEARS FOUR WITNESSES

Doctor's Friends and Members of Mabel Heirick's Family Fill York Court Room to Get the Details.

YORK, Neb., Nov. 26.-(Special Telegram.)-Great interest was taken in the preliminary hearing of the case of the State of Nebraska against Dr. J. B. Conway of this city, which resulted in dismissal. Dr. Conway was arrested on a warrant of the county coroner charging him with performing a criminal operation on Mabel Helrick of McCool, which was the alleged cause of her death. The parents, brothers and sisters of the deceased are in attendance and County Judge Wildman's room was not large enough, so the hearing was held in the district courtroom, which was crowded. A large number in attendance are from south

York county. Four witnesses were examined today. Mr and Mrs. J. W. Helrick and Carrie Helrick, parents and sister of deceased, testified to the illness of Mabel Helrick and to a certain date that Mabel Helrick visited York. Mrs. E. E. Lincoln of McCool testifled to the illness of Mabel and corroborated the testimony as to the date she was at York, which is supposed to be the time the operation was performed. Maud Sein. a sister, was on the witness stand after dinner.

Attorneys for the defense objected to the dying statement of the deceased and most of the afternoon was consumed in arguing the admissability of the statement. Later the judge ruled that it was not admissable and the prosecution moved to dismiss without prejudice.

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

Gentlemen: — Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my buring in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected car would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain

Very truly yours.
