ADVANTAGES OF MODERN HIGH SCHOOLS

On Completing the Course Students Will Do Well, He Considers, to Devote Themselves to Works of Lillity.

The feature of the Thanksgiving exercises at the High school yesterday afternoon was who, in a talk of about a half hour's duraion, impressed upon the pupils the importance of their appreciating the advantages of the education which they receive in such an institution. He compared the schools of the present time and the days when he was boy, showing the advanced educational facilities at the disposal of the youth of this country today. He advocated military drill in every public school in the country for boys 16 years of age and upward. ## Arguments in Mining Suit.

Counsel did not consume much time Wednesday morning in completing the arguments on the two motions filed by the defense in the Doyle-Burns mining suit. and they were finally submitted to the court shortly after 10 o'clock. Judge Green took his decision under advisement until Monday morning, to which time he adjourned court.

C. J. Hughes for the plaintiff concluded his argument after speaking for less than half an hour, and was followed by Congressman Smith and Mr. Thomas, who between them occupied about half an hour in making the closing addresses for the defense. Senator Patterson did not take any part in the arguments, as had been expected. The jury will reassemble Monday morning. and in the event of Judge Green's overruling the motion to direct a verdict for the defendant, the introduction of testimony for Burns will be begun.

Judge Green on the adjournment of court for his home in Audubon to spend Thanksgiving with his family. James F. Burns went to St. Joseph, where Mrs. Burns is visiting relatives, and Senator Patterson and Mr. Thomas left last evening for Denver. They will return in time for the reconvening of court Monday morning. James Doyle and his attorney, Scott Ashton, will remain in the city and eat their Thanksgiving dinner here.

Invites All to Contribute.

As a number outside of the surviving members of the Fourth and Twenty-third Iowa regiments have expressed a wish to contribute toward the proposed monument to be erected over the grave of Colonel W. H. Kinsman, General Grenville M. Dodge yesterday issued the following notice:

yesterday issued the following notice:
COUNCIL BLUFFS, Nov. 27.—To the Citizens of Council Bluffs: It is the purpose of the comrades of Colonel W. H. Kinsman to erect a monument to his memory and unveil it on May 17. 1962, and I invite all those who feel an interest in commemorating his name as a distinguished soldier, a teacher in your public schools and a citizen who honored you in every capacity he occupied, to take part in the erection of this monument. For this purpose I have requested Mr. Emmet Tinley, Superintendent W. N. Clifford and Mr. Spencer Smith to act as a committee to solicit and collect such subscriptions as you are disposed to give. You must act promptly, as our time for carrying out our plans is limited. Respectfully, GRENVILLE M. DODGE.

Woman Routs Duck Hunter. Mrs. Joseph Scott of 1122 Third street had an exciting encounter last night about o'clock with an intruder in her house. Mrs. Scott had prepared a duck for Thanksgiving dinner and went down into the cellar to Report on Iowa Education Will Show That Consolidation is Favored.

MANY EXPERIMENTS ARE NOW BEING MADE

Sentiment in Regard to Consolidation of Districts-lows Volunteer Firemen-Chief Justice Refuses Writ of Habens Corpus.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Nov. 27 .- (Special.) - In the forthcoming blennial report of the superintendent of public instruction a chapter will be devoted to consolidation of districts and this particplar phase of public school work lively discussion all over the state and that many experiments have been and are being made, with the prospect that in many other places the system will be put on trial.

The report says: "Consolidation has been tried in twenty-eight countles, transportation in thirty-five and both in nineteen. Consolidation has been adopted by sixtythree districts and eighty districts have ransported pupils at the expense of the listrict. In nine counties districts have been consolidated without providing transportation at the expense of the districts. In sixteen counties pupils have been transported where there has been no consolida-The replies to the question as to what the sentiment in the countles is toward consolidation and transportation may be classified as follows: Favorable, 25; posed, 26; divided, 12; partly favorable, 4; unsettled, 5; growing in favor, 23. Where the system has been tried and the results reported it produced good effects in twentyseven counties, while in five it was doubtful. The patrons in twenty countles are reported to be well satisfied, while in eight ountles there was some dissatisfaction, wing generally to bad roads. These statisties do not include any estimates or doubtful reports, such as "several" schools consolidated, or cases of transporting pupils; all the reports not distinctly favorable to the system have been classified as doubtful, divided o apposed to it."

In addition to the foregoing transportaion has been tried in a number of the city districts with great success. At Council Bluffs there has been an actual saving of $50 per month besides the time of the supervisors. Superintendent Clifford of the city schools says: "The plan is giving excellent satisfaction to patrons and the school officers are much pleased with the marked improvement of the children in scholar-

At Sioux City three wagons were employed for the school year and three schools were closed. About 125 pupils were transported, fifty in wagons and seventy-five by street car lines. The report will show that $2,136.16 were economized in a single year in Sioux City alone, while at the same time the children received better educational advantages.

The report does not seek to present merely the favorable side of this problem, but also all of the objections that have been made to the plan of consolidating districts 1.750 and transporting the pupils to a central school. The objections, no matter how 500 trivial, have been given in detail in every county.

BEARDSHEAR CORRECTS BOARD

President of Agricultural College Says Injurious Parts of Report Must Be Expunged.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Nov. 27.-(Special Telegram ) President Beardshear of Iowa State college, Ames, today wrote a sharp letter to the State Board of Control, asking that portions of the biennial report be expunged or charged as they relate to the finances of that college, and making emphatic denial of many of the statements of the board.

That which is most complained of is tha the board states that college people built the engineering hall at a cost nearly double that authorized by the legislature. Beardshear denies this and declares there was never contemplated a building to cost les than $150,000. The college never had working plans from the state architect, and the only change made was from brick to stone at the suggestion of the governor. building, if contracted for now, would cost at least $200,000. In regard to increase in salaries it is as serted that eleven new positions were made because of a 40 per cent addition to the at tendance. It is denied that the college ever spent a dollar of state or national funds for banquets and the college does not furnish dinners for those who come on excursions The Board of Control charged the college of members of the faculty to the legislature on call of committees. It is also denied that purchases have been made without out authority. President Beardshear asks that whole portions of the report be expunged as false and made because of misap prehension.

Why Don't You Seek Relief?

A really healthy woman has little pain or discomfort at the menstrual period. No woman needs to have any. Wine of Cardui will relieve all those smarting menstrual pains and dragging head, back and side aches caused by falling of the womb and irregular menses.

March 29, 1900, Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Cameron, Mo., wrote the following to The Chattanooga Medicine Company: "I ask you for advice for the treatment of my complaint. I hear a great many women in my condition are cured by Wine of Cardui, so I send for the medicine." The medicine was sent with plain directions regarding treatment required, and August 31, 1900, she wrote again: "Perhaps you will remember Mrs. W. H. Jones who wrote to you six months ago asking for advice which you so kindly gave her. I never will be able to thank you enough for it. I suffered terribly at my monthly periods for three years. I would sometimes go for seven months with no flow at all. Now I have my health back again and am expecting to be confined in January. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

WINE OF CARDU

has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 women who suffered every month. It makes the meastrual organs strong and healthy and gives women relief from the terrible aches and pains that blight so many homes. The only thing necessary is to seek relief—to go to a drug store and get a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui and take the medicine in the privacy of your own home.

I have been very sick for some time. I was taken with a severe pain in my side and could not get any relief until I tried a bottle of Wine of Cardui. Before I had taken all of it I was relieved. I feel it my duty to say that you have a wonderful medicine.

Mrs. M. A. YOUNT. to say that you have a wonderful medicine. For advice and literature, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn
