

forcing the immigration laws. "The spirit of downfall of the Roman empire to the present and then expiring the methods of enforcing the emigration laws."

Speaking of the Chinese exclusion act Mr. McWeeney said the Japanese should also be excluded from the United States, because they are more undesirable than are the Chinese.

NOT GUILTY, SAYS MISS TOPPAN

Alleged Murderers of Three Persons Will Get a Jury Trial.

BARNSTABLE, Mass., Dec. 6.—Miss Jane Toppan of Lowell stood up in the superior court and heard the judges' indictment charging her with murdering three persons whom she had been engaged to nurse back to health, but who died under her care.

After the woman had entered her plea counsel asked that the state appoint a counsel for her, and Chief Justice Mason, who presided, said he would take the matter under advisement.

MOLINEUX STILL INDICTED

Court Denies Motion Made by Attorneys to Dismiss the Charge.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Judge Newberger, in the court of general sessions this afternoon, handed down a decision denying a motion to dismiss the indictment against Molineux.

The attorneys for Molineux maintain that the evidence adduced before the grand jury was improper under the decision of the court of appeals setting aside the conviction of Molineux.

The judge, in denying the motion, said that the court of appeals had power to direct a final judgment and that it had exercised this power by directing that a new trial should take place.

As to the application for an inspection of the minutes, Judge Newberger held that that branch of the motion had been disposed of adversely by Judge Blanchard on the application made before him by the defendant.

REVIVES AFTER EXECUTION

Scaffold is Approached Second Time, Victim Yields to Strangulation.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 6.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Little Rock, Ark., says: Bud Wilson, the convict who killed R. H. Naylor, a guard of the Yell county convict camp last September, was hanged today at Danville. The trap was sprung at 9:45 o'clock and the body was lowered into a coffin.

SHORTHORNS LEAD IN SALES

Over Eighty-Five Thousand People at Live Stock Exposition—Record Prices Paid.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Judging in the championship classes for the leading breeds of cattle was the feature today of the International Live Stock exposition. The attendance was nearly as large as yesterday.

Another notable sale of the day was made in the swine department, where D. C. Platt and Sons of Millgrove, Ont., sold four head of Yorkshire for $1,850. One boar sold for $100.

Gatarrh

It is a constitutional disease. It originates in a scrofulous condition of the blood and depends on the presence of a chronic infection.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

This great medicine has wrought the most wonderful cures of all diseases depending on scrofulous or sordid blood.

WILL MEET IN KANSAS CITY

National Live Stock Association Selects Location of Next Convention.

STOCKMEN INDORE OLYMPIAN GAMES

Chicago Meeting Closes After the Election of the Entire Staff of Old Officers for Another Year.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—After a spirited contest between the friends of Portland, Ore., and Kansas City, Mo., the National Live Stock association closed a successful convention by selecting the latter city as the place for the next convention.

Numerous speeches were made in support of the claims of the rival cities for the privilege of entertaining the next convention and every vote was applied one way or the other.

Pledges Co-operation

Whereas, The United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

Whereas, In the past, the United States have been selected a conference of delegates representing all the nations of the world as the site for the quadrennial international Olympian games of 1904, which said games are to take place in the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois, and

Whereas, Every detail of the said enterprise will be conducted on a scale of enterprise and in a manner comparable with the high standards established by the world's Columbian exposition of 1893, and the program to be presented including world's championship contests in standard sports, exhibitions of art, and other features of the different nations of the earth, and

CATTLE BREEDERS' TROUBLE

Temporary Injunction Issued Against Executive Committee of Association.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—A temporary injunction was issued by Judge Thrill today, restraining Charles G. Gudgell, Thomas Clark, and Thomas Clark, members of the executive committee of the American Hereford Cattle Breeders' association, from exercising and performing acts incident to the transaction of the business of the association.

The injunction was granted in a suit filed in the court by F. B. Sotham of Chillicothe, Mo., and Charles H. Smith of Fayette, Mo., both members of the association, who allege that the executive committee has illegally usurped the powers of the board of directors of the association and has conducted its affairs to suit themselves.

The complainants declare Gudgell has refused to permit the inspection of the books of the association and has permitted vouchers representing the expenditure of large sums of money paid out by the treasury during the last two years to be destroyed, so that it is now impossible to determine whether the books of the association show that its money has been honestly accounted for.

The injunction proceedings are said to be the outgrowth of a disagreement in the association in which there have been two prominent factions, the one headed by Gudgell and the second by Sotham. The latter, it is claimed, are opponents of the present executive committee.

John D. Rockefeller is a brother of John D. Rockefeller.

Stops the Cough and Whooping Cough.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

Senators Money and Bacon did not go to the extent of voting against the report of the treaty and they acknowledge that they are in the case of war.

VOTES FAVORABLE ON TREATY

Committee Meets and Adopts the Bill Ratifying Agreement.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The senate committee on foreign relations today voted to report favorably the new Hay-Paneforte treaty, providing for the construction of an isthmian canal.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

The committee was in session nearly two hours and went over in detail the provisions of the convention. No votes were cast against it, but it was criticized very sharply by Senators Money and Bacon, who found in it many of the objections which they urged against the old treaty.

NEVER IN HIS TRUE LIGHT

Rabbi Simon Says the Jew Has Been Persistently and Continuously Misrepresented.

"Literature, by no means the least of the forces of civilization, has been very unkind to the Jew," said Rabbi Abram Simon in a lecture at Temple Israel last night.

"It has wielded power against us as no other force. It may be true, as Emerson says, that to be great is to be misunderstood, but while not affirming that the Jew is necessarily great, I do maintain that those of the middle ages were misunderstood. And history, as the mirror of the times, reflects those impressions that prevailed in those ages when all the black plaques were laid at the door of the Jew.

"But in the novel of the Jew has figured, but never in his true light. Shylock is no more the typical Jew as to avarice than is Nathan the typical Jew as to wisdom, and Zangwill in his Ghetto stories has missed correct portrayal of the modern Jew as far as Emile Wolf of San Francisco, herself a Jewish girl.

"But in William Ludlow, himself a Christian, I feel that there has now arisen one who has given us in 'Deborah,' in the novel of that name, a Jewish heroine correctly portrayed, and one, the fact of whom we may be really proud. And in Judas, of the same book, a hero whom we may approve with equal freedom.

Dr. Simon then outlined the story of the Jewess who loved and was won by Dion, leader of the Greeks at that period, 150 B. C., when the struggle was bitterest between the remnant of the original Jews and those who had allied themselves with the Greeks and adopted the customs and dress of the latter. Judas, commander of the Jews, loved Deborah, but gave her up to Dion. She never loved him, but she loved Dion, and she was true to him.

"What is the moral? It is that Jew and Christian, still separated in hatred when the world should be united in love can be reconciled when all Christians will be like Dion, all Jews like Judas and all Jewesses like Deborah, each recognizing in those toward whom they have so long cherished ill-feeling the virtues that each certainly possesses."

LIFE IN HAWAIIAN ISLES

Walter C. Weedon Lectures at the Y. M. C. A. on the New Possessions.

Walter C. Weedon of Honolulu lectured to a large crowd last night at the Young Men's Christian Association auditorium on "Hawaii, the Paradise of the Pacific."

By means of maps showing the location of the islands, as compared with all parts of importance in the Pacific, Mr. Weedon showed that Honolulu is the key to Oriental trade and stated that the United States could far better spare one of its states than give up the little island of Hawaii. He declared that the island possessions of the United States have the finest climate in the world and stated that in seven years' residence in Honolulu he had never known the thermometer to rise about 89 degrees and had never known it to fall below 56 degrees.

"I have lived under seven different governments in Honolulu," said Mr. Weedon. "I have been intimately associated with the persons who have ruled the island. In spite of all that has been said of Mr. Dole, I desire to state most emphatically that he has been the islands' greatest benefactor. He is a thorough American and a good officer."

In discussing the politics of the islands Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

"In a year Honolulu has grown from a city of 35,000 to a city of 45,000 people," said the speaker. "The increase of population throughout the islands has been nearly 42 per cent. No other city or territory has had so tremendous growth. And yet the islands have only begun to develop."

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

Mr. Weedon explained that there are three parties—Republican, Democratic and Home rule. At the recent election the home rule party was in the majority.

A SAD CHRISTMAS

HOW GLOOM