

DISPUTES OIL LAND CLAIMS

Union Pacific Asserts Its Right to the Titles.

TERRITORY INCLUDED IN THE GRANT

Railroad Will Fight for Its Property and Will Carry the Cases to the Supreme Court if Necessary.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Dec. 11.—(Special.)—It is reported that trouble is in store for oil men who have located claims on Union Pacific unpatented land in southwest Wyoming.

Mr. Black says that in the oil field near Aspen and Piedmont a number of people, including Senator Kearns of Utah and other prominent men, have located oil claims on land included in the Union Pacific land grant.

The railroad will fight the claims on several grounds. First, it will be maintained that no land can be held as oil unless it is producing oil in paying quantities.

The company says that it is not its purpose to retard the development of the Wyoming oil fields.

ENGINEER COOPER IS DEAD

Widely Known Railroad Man is Killed in an Accident.

HURON, S. D., Dec. 11.—(Special.)—News of the death in a railway accident at Ellensburg, Wash., on the 8th inst. of Engineer Thomas R. Cooper, late of this city, was received here with much surprise and deep regret.

For several years Mr. Cooper was employed on the Dakota Central division of the Chicago & Northwestern railway and was well known in railway and military circles.

He did not accompany the regiment to the Philippines, being rejected because of physical disabilities.

LETTER TAKES LONG JOURNEY

Almost a Year on the Road and Has Traveled Half a Million Miles.

O. T. Carrington, a clerk in the army headquarters, received yesterday a letter which, it is estimated, has traveled more than 500,000 miles since January 1 last.

It was written by Edward W. Griffith, a clerk in the adjutant general's office at Manila, who sent it out as a New Year's greeting to nearly 100 of his friends in all parts of the world.

DEFEAT THE BRUSH SCHEME

National League Magnates Block Effort to Revitalize the Game.

SPAULDING'S ELECTION IS HELD UP

Ned Hanlon, Brooklyn's Veteran Manager, Will Not Be Permitted to Forsake the Hiredgrounds for New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—John T. Brush's scheme for a revolution of the national game is dead. At a meeting at the Fifth Avenue hotel today the National league magnates decided by a majority vote that the league was a perpetual body and did not cease with the expiration of the Indianapolis agreement on December 15.

The vote followed a resolution to declare the league out of existence on and after December 15. For several hours the matter had been discussed and argued pro and con. The speeches, it is said, were stormy ones. Charges of bad faith were frequently made on both sides. Finally a vote was taken.

The result, according to excellent authorities, showed that the election of Philadelphia and Chicago were against the motion. St. Louis voted aye, while New York and Cincinnati did not vote. The vote, it is said, means that the National league is back where it was before the signing of the Indianapolis agreement in 1891.

An attempt was made at today's meeting to elect A. G. Spaulding president. It was at first reported that he had been beaten, but this turned out to be untrue. Shortly after the magnates went in to the street reported committee and those of various committees must be heard before the election could proceed.

Block Spaulding's Election. When the matter was brought to a vote, Boston, Cincinnati, St. Louis and New York voted for proceeding in the regular order, thereby setting back Mr. Spaulding's election until later.

It is said upon good authority, that at least five of the clubs favor the election of Mr. Spaulding. They are: Pittsburgh, Boston, Chicago, Brooklyn and Philadelphia.

When the session began at 3 o'clock in the afternoon those present were: N. E. Young, president; A. H. Soden, W. H. Corbett, C. W. Billings of Boston; Edward Hanlon, F. A. Abell, Harry Von Der Horst and Charles Ebbetts of Brooklyn; Colonel John I. Rogers and A. J. Reach of Philadelphia; Andrew Freedman of New York; Frank DeHaas Robinson of St. Louis; James Hart of Chicago and John T. Brush of Cincinnati.

At 8:30 tonight the league rulers began another session, at which they listened to the report of the board of directors.

A story that Hanlon will manage the New York team next season was killed as soon as Hanlon reached the hotel today. The only chance that could bring him to New York would be for Freedman to secure the consent of Ebbett, Abell and Von Der Horst, the Brooklyn directors.

All of them are on record as refusing to let Hanlon leave Brooklyn. He has an ironclad agreement with the Brooklyn directors that he will stay with them as long as they want him at a stipulated salary.

Kelley, captain of the Brooklyn team, was mentioned today in connection with the management of the New Yorkers.

The New York club today secured Matty McIntyre, an outfielder of the Philadelphia American league team, and L. Quinlan, shortstop of the Montreal team. Both players, according to the club's secretary, have signed New York contracts.
