MINING IN THE BLACK HILLS

Zomestake Ore Beit / rouses Enthusiasm of toientific World.

Predicts Speedy Extraordinary Developments and Says Ore Guarantee Should Support 100,-000 Population.

LEAD, S. D., Dec. 22,-(Special.)-The Homestake ore belt is being studied with profound interest by mining men. The more the formation is studied the greater the attention bestowed upon it by scientific as well as practical men, and it is now being considered as the greatest source of gold ore on the American continent. It consists of a vast series or system of seg-regated ledges, which have, according to the director of the United States mint, produced nearly $100,000,000 in gold bullion during the last twenty-six years, and, as the prospectors say, "they have scarcely been scratched."

The development of these great ore bodies has contributed in no small way to the commercial importance of Omaha and the great middle west, and a word as to the future possibilities of this section is of interest to the people of that territory.

The ledges exist in huge verticals enclosed between walls of slate and can be traced for miles along the surface of the ground from north to south. The Homestake mine proper is situated well toward the northern extremity of this belt. For twenty-four years the Homestake company has not missed the payment of a monthly dividend to the stockholders. During that time the stock of the company has risen from a market value of $8 or $9 a share to more than $100 a share.

No Stock in Markets.

It is impossible to obtain this stock today at anywhere near its market value except years ago. The company pays out monthly in wages alone close to $200,000, and this payroll is growing yearly. It yields in bullion $4,000,000 every year. In the mine are over 100 miles of underground railway, and on the surface 900 Lawrence county, to act on the matter. The stamps are crushing ore night and day. The free gold is saved by amalgamation and Bennett, A. E. Frank and John H. Burns of the refractory values are saved by concentration, the concentrates being shipped to smelters. The other tailings pass through Harvey of Lead. He was made the cyanide plant, the largest in the United States, and another similar, although smaller plant, is being built at Central City, which will be able to treat 600 tons a day. The cyanide plant in Lead handles the tailings from the mills on the south aide of the hill, and the one at Central City will be fed the tailings from the stamp mills on the opposite slope.

Uncle Sam Also Prospers.

On the south end of the Homestake belt company was organized its stock could be dismissed. purchased for 20 cents a share. Today it cannot be procured for less than $100 a share. The Uncle Sam mine has been extensively developed during, that time, and is now supplying a stamp mill with a high grade free milling ore. A steel hoist has been installed, and the company is enlarging its stamp mill, work having been commenced on this improvement some weeks ago. Near the Uncle Sam mine the Manila Gold Mining company owns a large tract of mining ground, on which development work has been in progress since last June. A shaft is being put down on a ledge whose outerop at the surface shows a width of 100 feet. The company is equipped for horough exploration and expects between better and more direct route can be se now and spring to fully establish the theory continuation of the Homestake

South African Enthusiastic.

A mining expert from South Africa recently spent several months in an examination of these ore deposits. He thinks the time is ripe for extraordinary developments. The success of the automobile stage line along the belt. In his opinion the district has a guarantee ore exposure to support a population of 100,000, which would mean a vast commercial growth for Omaha and the patronizing territory. There are employed on this belt about 3,500 men at the present time with a daily payroll amounting to $11,660; monthly, $339,980, and for the year, $4,079,750. These facts emphasize what is being done in the way of development and production, and with new companies continually starting up the demand for labor will advance rapidly.

Near Rochford, Pennington county, the Black Hills Copper company is systematically developing the copper measures on what is known as Copper Reef mountain. There is on the mountain a heavy outcrop of copper ore and the company is following one of the ledges in an incline shaft that is over 700 feet down, with a vertical dep h of nearly 400 feet. The ledge is strong and well defined and the company will continue to sink until the permanent water level is reached. At 400 feet crosscuts were run, exposing a body of sulphide ore 100 feet wide. The copper values had largely leached out. Copper experts give it as their opinion that the values will be found redeposited at permanent water level. The ore also caries values in gold and sliver in addition to the copper.

Edna Exploration Succeeds.

Near Garden City the Edna Exploration company, composed of a number of the leading busines men of Deadwood and several county officials, is demonstrating what may be accomplished by persistent development work. The company has a five-years' lease on forty-two acres of mining ground near Garden City, with the privilege of buying at a reasonable sum before the expiration of the lease. The terms provide that the ground shall be developed and that the ore extracted and milled, the owners of the ground to receive a reasonable royalty. A shaft fully equipped with steam hoist has been sunk to quartzite, and drifting is going on. Horizontal ore bodies are numeron quartile in that region and it is expected that ore will be encountered within the next few weeks. A ledge of free gold ore has been discovered on the property of the Globe Mining company, situated in the southwesterly part of Lead, during the past week. The ledge is eight feet wide and strongly defined, carrying good values. The ground adjoins the

The departure of Badger from the game will leave Shorts the best tackle in the west next season, and probably in the world, as it has been tee met in Deadwood, with the members admitted for four years that Curtis was equal to any man on the big eastern teams in his place. Conch Yost's Great Record.

Coach Yost, merely by what he has done Coach Yost, merely by what he has done since last August, has brought himself into prominent permanent prominence as a foot bail coach. He first played the game at the University of Virginia. Going from there to Lafayette university, he played the star tackle on the team that defeated for the first time the University of Pennsylvania. In 1897 Yost coached at Ohio Wesleyan, developing from minor material a team that held Michigan of to 0. Coming then to Nebraska, Yost made the '98 team of Cornhuskers the champions of the Transmississippi country, Then he went down to Kansas and that year the Jayhawkers took the pennant away from Nebraska 36 to 20. The 1900 season found Yost at Stanford, where he enabled that team to defeat its bitter rival, the University of California, and win the west coast championship for the first time in three years. Yost's success at Ann Arbor surpasses all previous achievements. His team scored 501 points to its opponents 0 and its single game scores ranged from 22 to 128 points. Yout has signed a three years' contract with the Wolverine university.

Both these men, Yost and Shorts, are greatly alike. Unobtrusive, undemonstrative, untalkative, even reticent, each carries about him the atmosphere of reserve power and indomitable will. Neither makes rash predictions or even perfectly natural forecasts. Though both know that the Michigan team is head and shoulders above Stanford, both are wary of promising a victory. Yost said:

"We are going out there to do the best that is in us." That was all from the teacher. Shorts was more explicit. He said:

Shorts Not Oversanguine.

"Of course it is natural to suppose on first thought that we will defeat Stanford, but there are many reasons why the result is honestly uncertain. A trip of 3,000 miles across the country is not conducive to fitchange of climate. Last Friday we went through our last practice in the snow at Ann Arbor. The day after Christmas, after five days enroute, we will be out there at Pasadena, where it is absolutely warm. What the effect of the change will be on the men, whether enervating or otherwise, cannot be predicted. We hope for the best. A week will give us time to get stretched out some. We do not fear defeat, nor yet feel certain of victory."

All along the route the Wolverines are scheduled for banquets and receptions by former Michigan men. That is what makes their trip so long in time. Snowbound trains in Michigan caused them to miss their Chicago connection Saturday morning. so they did not arrive in Omaha Saturday night at 11:10, as expected. They play Stanford in Pasadena on New Year's day and then, after a few days in San Francisco, will come home via the Santa Fe. They will not be allowed out of Pasadena until after the game.

Railroads Place Extra Force of Detectives on the Case, Which is Regarded as a Complicated One.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 22.-A gang of forgers of railroad tickets has been operating in Kansas City successfully during the last few weeks, according to H. C. Foote, secretary of the local passenger bureau, and J. A. Stewart, general southwestern passenger agent of the Rock Island. Mr. Townsend

KANSAS CITY. Mo. Dec. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Trouble is brewing in the Western league which may result in the calling of a special meeting. O Rourke, owner of the Omaha 4eam, was in Kansas City in conference with President James Whitfield and James Manning of the local club, and it was plain something was in the air. Both the magnates and President Whitfield refused to discuss league affairs except to say that all was lovely, but in the course of his talk one of them let drop the remark that Beall, owner of the Minneapolis team, would better be careful. The belief seems to be that George Tebeau and Beall are working together and that Beall in purchasing the Denver franchise was only acting as an agent for the Kansas City magnate. It is understood that Beall as chairman of the circuit committee, had authority to act.

The numerous reported sales of the Denver club, first from Packard to Tebeau, then back again, and the reverse again, and Saturday to Beall, has aroused the suspicion that all is not as it should be apd the magnates here do not deny that they don't like the looks of affairs in the west. "The losses of the western railroads will amount to thousands of dollars. There have been three classes of forgeries. Some days ago Mr. Foote discovered that a bogus perforating stamp had been used to imttate the stamp that is used to mark tickets at the Union depot. The forgers tried in Chicago to buy a stamp exactly like the one that is used in the Kansas City Union depot to stamp return ticket coupons, but the manufacturers expected something was wrong and refused to sell it. The forgers were not baffled. They bought a stamp that is used in banks for perforating checks, changed the dies from 'Paid' to 'K. C. U. D. and have used it on many forged tickets.

Important Conference Today.

Information has leaked out that Walter Wilmot, who has been given the Minneapolis tranchise in the American association, is to be here tomerrow to meet President Whitfield of the Western league.

President Whitfield said the affairs of the Western league must be above board and there must be no double-dealing. There is plainly a fear that Beall, after acting as a figurehead, may jump to the American association. The reports sent out from Minneapolis are to the effect that Walter Wilmot would own the Minneapolis team and occupy Beall's Western league park.

"How is it that Wilmot gets Beall's park?" Whitfield was asked. Brokers Involved "The second class of forgeries included conductors' train checks. The bogus ones are fairly good imitations of the genuine ones, but they have smooth edges instead "How is it that Wilmot gets Beall's park?" Whitheld was asked.

SPARKS, Ga., Dec. 22.-In attempting t arrest Henry Porter, a desperate negro gambler, here last night about midnight M. J. Kinard was shot in the right hand and arm and J. L. Kirby, who went to assist Marshal Kinard, was instantly killed,

The negro opened fire on Kinard and Kirby as they approached him. Kinard's right hand was badly shattered and then Kirby received his wound and fell dead at Kinard's side. Kinard picked up his pistel with his left hand and shot the negro three times. The negro fell several times, but escaped to a nearby swamp, wounded. Special trains with dogs from Nashville and Tifton arrived this morning and ran the track to Adel, where it was lost. About 100 men from here have been scouring the country all day. The town offers $100 reward and an effort will be made tomorrow to have the governor also offer a reward. If caught while the excitement is so high the negro doubtless will be lynched.

ESCAPE A FIENDISH DEATH

Two Boys Are Robbed, Bound and Placed in Burning Building.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 22.- A special to the Pioneer Press from Eau Claire, Wis. says: Two boys named Seyberth and Bo nell, aged 13 and 15 years respectively, who had been out in the country to cut Christmas trees, reached home this evening atmost exhausted from the effects of an assault by a highwayman. The boys state that while on Lowes creek they were attacked by a man who strapped them together and put gags in their mouths. He then took from them what money they had and finally dragged them to an abandoned summer-house. He fastened the door and set the house on fire. The boys managed to free themselves after a desperate struggle and escaped from the burning building. Both were quite severly injured by their experience.
