Carnegie Library at Marshalltown. Marshalltown is going to have a Carnegie library. Negotiations were entered into many weeks ago and have just culminated in a formal offer from James Betram, private secretary to Mr. Carnegie, of a gift to the city for a library on the usual conditions. A resident of the city has offered to donate a library site and the city council has already provided by tax levy for the support of the library. It is expected that all the details will be arranged before 200 spring and that Mr. Carnegie will yield up either $25,000 or $30,000 for the library.
