YOUNG FOLKS TAKE REINS

Society's Coach Driven by Boys and Girls During New Year's Week.

EVENTS WERE MANY AND ENJOYABLE

Some Pretentions Receptions and Balls and a Host of Delightful Little Things Fill Up Days and Nights.

With the exception of the receptions of New Year's day and the numerous family dinners, last week was practically given over to the young people home from school and the "younger set," for from Monday afternoon until Saturday evening they were engaged in one continuous round of affairs. formal and otherwise, arranged for their pleasure. As usual, the dancing party was the popular thing, but the progressive dinners were also numerous, being arranged to include something more than the usual number of courses, and so including from ten to a dozen and often more distinct affairs in a single evening.

The New Year found a fair proportion of Omaha's fashionables awake to greet for though there were comparatively few watch parties, there were numerous little gatherings on Tuesday evening.

New Year's day furnished the annual delight to the bachelor members of society, who went about in troops or in twos and threes, being received and sipping ten until, by the close of the evening, few could be found who had not been completely converted to the most enthusiastic interest in afternoon affairs.

Metropolitan hall was the scene of some brilliant gathering nearly every evening the annual New Year's ball of the club being among the most pretentious affairs, while the Irving-Terry engagement occa-sioned numerous theater parties.

Does Not Disappoint

The New Discovery for Catarrh Seems to Possess Remarkable Merit.

A new catarrh cure has recently appeared which so far as tested has been remarkably successful in curing all forms of catarrh, or in stomach and liver.

The remedy is in tablet form, pleasan and convenient to take and no special se crecy is maintained as to what it contains the tablet being a scientific combination of Blood root, Red gum and similar valuable and harmless antiseptics.

The safe and effective catarrh cure may be found at any drug store under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

Whether the catarrh is located in the nose, throat, bronchial tubes, or stomach, the tablets seem to act with equal success, removing the stuffy feeling in head and nose, clearing the mucous membrane of throat and trachea from catarrhal secretions, which cause the tickling, coughing, hawking and gagging so annoying to every

The identity of the thirty guests was entirely concealed beneath their sheet and pillowcase masks during the evening's program of dancing and games. At midnight all masks were removed and supper served. The High school class of '99 held its annual reunion on Monday evening at the home of Miss Blanche Rosewater, 1711 Douglas street, fully half of the original class being present. During the brief business session Miss Rosewater was elected class president and Miss Maude Sunder secretary. The evening was passed most pleasantly, concluding with light refreshments. The Impromptu club entertained Culver cadets at a progressive dinner last evening, the various courses being served at the homes of Misses Helen Buckingham, Fannie Howland, Vera Fleming, Leila Scribner, Elouise Wood, Blanche Waterman and Madge Mayall. The last course was served at the Normandie, Miss Ruth Dahlman being hostess, and the remainder of the evening spent there in dancing. The ex-officers of the High School cadets contributed one of the brightest features of the week's galety on New Year's evening, entertaining a large dancing party at the Delione hotel, the parlors and dining room of which were bedecked with flags and Christmas greens for the occasion About 200 dancers enjoyed the evening. spent chiefly in the large dining room. which had been converted into a ball room, but the parlors and numerous cozy corners arranged for the evening afforded inviting

Mrs. Henry T. Clarke gave the first of her series of at homes which she is to hold on Wednesdays in January, on New Year's day. Her home, 106 South Thirty-fifth street, was a bower of holiday greens and enlivened by the presence of the thirty callers that came and went during the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Clarke was assisted by Mrs. Herbert Gannett, Miss Allen and Miss Gertrude Clarke and Mrs.

For her daughter, Miss Amelia, Mrs. H Newman entertained very pleasantly on last Sunday evening at her home, 2710 Burt street, the time being devoted to games, chief among which was a spelling match, for which prizes were awarded. The room were hung with Christmas greens, completed by bunches of red carnations and red shaded lights. Mrs. Newman was assisted by Misses Hattie Dreyfuss, Carrie tend the wedding of Miss Sadie Clarke. Rosenthal and Newman.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Nelson threw open their home at 320 North Twenty-third street from 4 until 9 o'clock on New Year's day, when, assisted by Mrs. B. H. Meite Misses Daisy Higgins, Carrie Robertson and Caroline Murphy, they received about 200 guests. Bright greens, scarlet holly berries and poyncetta gave the bright holiday coloring to the rooms, while the presence of the many guests contributed an abundance of holiday cheer.

Misses Cotton, Bennett, Swensberg, Carita Curtis and Mrs. Jacobs; Messrs. Wallace Lyman, Fred Nash, Ben Cotton, George Dickinson and Al Dickinson were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Lyman at a dinner party on New Year's eve, given in compliment to Mr. George Dickinson of Seattle, Wash., and Mr. Al Dickinson. The table appointments, which were most elaborate, were carried out in the holiday designs, the decorations being of holly, mistleto and greens.

The remainder of the time was devoted to dancing. The Friendly Greeting club met on New Year's evening at the home of Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkins entertained Mrs. P. A. McKenna, where they were most enjoyably entertained. Cards were indulged in. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Daly were awarded first prizes and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Rustin being John Keysor received consolation prizes. Some very select monologues and recitations were given by Miss Josephine Kohne of the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cook, 1902

The largest affair of the week and the event in which the chief interest of the young people centered was the dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. Herman evening, in honor of Miss Cotton. About 100 young people enjoyed the program of regular dances, which occupied the earlier part of the evening, and after supper, served at 11 o'clock, the time was devoted to the cotillion. Mr. and Mrs. Kountze and Miss Cotton received their guests at the east side of the ball room, two large tables of American beauties, pink roses and narcissus forming the background for the young debutant and contrasting effectively with her simple gown of yellow tucked

The rooms were most effectively hung with holiday greens, holly and mistletoe, while the presence of half the charming young women in society contributed the popular feature of the afternoon. Miss Curtis and Miss Cotton received in the drawing room, while Mrs. Jacobs served eggnog in the library. In the dining room Mrs. Lyman and Miss Doane presided, serving tea and chocolate. About 100 guests were received during the afternoon. Among the young women assisting Miss Curtis were: Mesdames Jacobs, Wallace, Lyman, Misses Lomax, Moore, Smith, Peck, Wakeley and

Among the many bright affairs of the week among the younger set the dancing party given at Metropolitan club on Tuesay evening by the Culver military cadets of Omash and Council Bluffs took precedence. The hosts of the occasion were Messrs. Earl Kiplinger, Raymond Gould, Gilbert Carpenter, Eugene Royce, Price Rose, Arthur Jacquith, Edward Reiter, Arthur Lewis, John Redick and Harry Van Brunt of Council Bluffs. The ball room was especially beautiful in its trimmings of holiday greens interspersed with flags, pennants and class colors, which with the handsome gowns of the young women and the bright uniforms of the cadets contributed further to the brilliancy of the gathering. The ball was opened by a military march led by the cadets which. with the appropriate music contributed a leasing feature. A full program of dances followed, concluding in time for the welcome to the new year, which was given with true college enthusiasm, the halls fairly ringing with college "yells" and national airs played by the band. Among the out-of-town guests present were: Misses Hazel Moore, Shirley, Blanche Lewis, Bessie Beno, Wells, Maude Besley of Council Bluffs; Eldred Goldsmith of Chicago, Mr. Murray of Kansas City, and Messrs.
