REOPEN THE PROCEEDINGS

Creditors of Peterson & Co. Renew the Bankruptcy Proceedings.

CASE ORIGINATES FROM FIRE YEAR AGO

Kingman Implement Company, Among Applicants for Suit, Alleges Fraud in Transactions of Defendant Firm.

The bankruptcy proceedings instituted against Peterson & Co. of Weston, this county, by certain of the firm's creditors, and then dropped, have been reopened upon the application of the Kingman Implement company.

The bankruptcy proceedings against the firm of Peterson & Co. were the outcome of a fire in the same store about a year ago where the costly blaze started last Wednesday night and destroyed buildings and property valued at $30,000.

When the Kingman company learned of the settlement by Peterson & Co. with their other creditors, it at once applied to Judge McPherson to have the bankruptcy proceedings reopened, alleging fraud.
