(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 7 .- (Special.) - Republican war veterans of Lancaster county claim they have been shabbily treated by Governor Savage. A special meeting of the Union Veterans' Republican club was held last night to consider various matters pending before it and several members present were loud in their expressions of indignation at the attitude of the governor. Their complaint lies in the claim that Governor Savage has failed to recognize them in recent appointments he has made, and further that he has shown a disposition to filled in the future.

TELL THEIR STORY TO CORONER'S JURY

Franklin and Clarence Woodward Protest Their Innocence and Other Fugitives Surrounded in McDougle's Gulch.

CASPER, Wyo., Jan. 7 .- (Special Telegram.)-Plans to lynch the two prisoners upposed to have had a hand in murdering Sheriff W. C. Ricker are suspended pending investigation. Public sentiment still favors summary justice, but the leaders want no mistake made. The two prisoners prove to be Clarence Woodward and Jeff Franklin. Franklin was mistaken last night for Frank S. Foote.

Woodward and Franklin protest their innocence. They say that on the night they broke jail they stayed at a cabin twelve miles east of Casper. The next morning they separated, Charles Woodward going south and they going west; that they walked to Woodward's ranch and have not seen Charles Woodward since. The fact that Nicolaysen's horse, stolen east of Casper, was found at Woodward's shows that Charles Woodward must have stolen the horse and rode it. Then again at Woodward's ranch two horses and one saddle men being there. The crowd thought best to wait until they heard from Deputy James Kennedy, who is pursuing the other fugltives, and matters are allowed to stand. No news has been received from Kennedy. The coroner's jury is in session and will find out if possible who killed Sheriff Ricker, and the crowd has decided to await its action. The excitement is intense and pairing it. Three toes were almost severed only the fact that the coroner was investigating averted the lynching of the captured men last night.

Appear Before Coroner's Jury

Franklin and Woodward both appeared before the coroner's jury today and both stated that they had not seen Charles Woodward since he quit them east of Casper. James Milne, who was at the shooting of Ricker, swore he saw three, if not Snyder, ex-senator suffered a paralytic four, men in the barn. If their story is home on the farm, six miles south of Loup found true they will not be lynched. If it is false their lynching is assured. The men will not be in for at least two days. Deputy Milne is just in from the posse after Charles Woodward and says that the Asbell boy saw him and recognized him, and that Charles had a rifle and was leading his horse and made the boy go round him. Kennedy took the trail and followed him to McDougle's guich. He went in and has not come out. Milne says there are only three ways for him to get out, and that a posse of thirty is there and has the gulch surrounded. Milne came in after ammunition and explosives and will return to the posse in the morning.

Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen: — Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right car began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catagrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever,

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain

Very truly yours.

PASSENGERS ESCAPE INJURY Survive Collision Which Kills Three Trainmen and Completely

Destroys Cars ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 7 .- In a head-end ollision on the Kenova division of the norfolk & Western railroad at Alwick, W. Va., at 7 o'clock this morning, Hugh N. Smith, and express messenger, and baggagemaster of this city, and Flagman John Turner of Bluefield, 'W. Va., were killed instantly and Engineer Baile received injuries, from which he died later in the day. A passenger train, eastbound, collided with an extra westbound freight train in a dense fog, the passenger engineer having failed to see the flagman sent forward to give warning of the impending danger. The flagman, John Turner, in his effort to be seen, got in the track in front of the train and was run over and killed. The express car and the combination express and baggage car caught fire and were destroyed. No passengers were injured.
