

BAN LIFTED FROM CROWLEY

Excommunicated Priest Celebrates Mass in Omaha Christmas Morning.

CHICAGO CHURCHMEN PRESS INJUNCTION

Chancellor of Diocese Says He Believes Ban Was Removed from Father Crowley in This City on Christmas Eve.

The ban of excommunication has been lifted from Father Joseph Crowley, the first priest in the United States to be excluded by the courts of the land from entering a Catholic church.

The case of Father Crowley has presented phases of much interest to residents of Chicago and later to those of Omaha who are familiar with the facts, from the fact that Bishop Scannell of this diocese was interested in the settlement of the trouble between the priest and his ecclesiastical superiors.

After his excommunication Father Crowley visited a Chicago church and resisted ejection. The service was discontinued. Again he visited the place and created a disturbance. Then the authorities of the church appealed to the court for an injunction to restrain him from entering the house while services were in progress.

A short time ago Father Crowley published an apology and it was supposed that the incident had been closed. However, the persons directly connected with the application for the injunction in Chicago are not satisfied. They desire a permanent injunction from the court, in spite of the rumored reconciliation, and a telegram from Chicago states that Bishop Scannell may be called on to testify in the case when it comes up for hearing.

Father A. M. Colaneri, chancellor of the diocese of Omaha, said: "We do not like to discuss such matters. Father Crowley was in Omaha for a few days a short time ago. To the best of my knowledge the ban against him was removed Christmas eve. I know that on Christmas morning he celebrated mass in the chapel of the convent of the Poor Claires in this city, something he certainly could not have done had the excommunication been set aside."

DR. MINTON TO VISIT OMAHA

Moderator Comes on Business Connected with Twentieth Century Fund of Church.

Rev. Henry C. Minton, D. D., moderator of the Presbyterian general assembly, will be in Omaha on Tuesday and Wednesday next. His visit is in connection with the twentieth century fund of the church. Dr. Minton is president of the Presbyterian theological seminary at San Francisco and is naturally especially interested in the educational work of the church.

Along with Dr. Minton is Rev. S. B. McCormick, D. D., formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Omaha. Dr. McCormick is now a member of the general assembly's committee on creed revision.

SHORT MEASURE ON MARKET

Inspector Mahammitt Wants Council to Pass Ordinance to Protect the Public.

"In my annual report I have urged that an ordinance be passed which will make it possible to publish no manufacturer and sell short measures," said T. P. Mahammitt, city inspector of weights and measures. "Basket makers are the greatest offenders. More than half of the so-called bushel baskets in ordinary use hold only seven-eighths of a bushel. People who buy these baskets supposing that they hold a bushel. Many honest persons are giving short measure because manufacturers have seen fit to make these dishonest baskets. There are several places in Omaha where milk dealers can buy wet measures which are not up to the standard, and faulty vegetable measures are also made here in Omaha."

LOBECK LOOKS FOR A SEAT

It is of Congressional Pattern and Unless It Fits He Will Not Take It.

"Hoye is looking for a brick contract and I am selecting a chair in congress. In case I don't find a seat which suits me I will refuse to be elected congressman," Councilman Lobbeck writes from Washington in a letter to W. H. Hays, city clerk. Mr. Lobbeck states in his letter that he and Councilman Zimman and Hoye visited Cleveland and met Mayor Tom Johnson. They inspected the Cleveland markets and were much pleased with them. Mr. Lobbeck says that he and the other two councilmen will go from Washington to Baltimore.

LOCOMOTIVES FOR THE WORLD

Representative of Baldwin Works Gives Statistics of Output for Last Year.

J. W. Sweigard, a representative of the Baldwin locomotive works, stopped off in Omaha a few hours yesterday while on his way to the west coast for his company.

"The year 1901 was in all ways the most successful in the history of the locomotive works," said Mr. Sweigard. "The number of engines turned out, the value of the product and the number of men on the payroll was greater than ever before. The total output was 1,375 locomotives, of which 174 were exported to foreign countries."

"This product represents a money value of about $17,000,000. Five hundred and twenty-six of those engines were compounds, forty-five electric, six compressed air and the rest miscellaneous simple types. Of the total number 460 were supplied with four pairs of driving wheels, 785 with three pairs and 130 with two pairs. The weight of engines has been steadily increasing and those built in 1901 were heavier than those of 1900. The total tonnage has not yet been made up for 1901, but it is considerably larger than that of 1900."

"Those 174 exported engines went to Canada, Guatemala, Guinea, Algeria, Brazil, Peru, Yucatan, Hawaii, Bolivia, Japan, Korea, Mexico, New Zealand, Chile, Cuba, Spain, Ecuador, Santo Domingo, France, Cape Colony and western Australia. Spain and western Australia took the largest number. There was a falling off in the number of engines exported from those of 1900, due to the heavy domestic demand."

"The fact that 700 orders for engines are already booked this year, and all in this country, seems to indicate business even greater than that of 1901. These orders are nearly all for the heavy, modern freight type."

Announcements of the Theaters.

The first amateur performance of the season will be given at the Orpheum tonight and besides the pleasure of the regular bill, than which a more pleasing one has not been here this season, much that is enjoyable will be presented. One thing is certain, the house will be packed; this is already assured by the advance sale. Among the amateurs is Willie Tate, the Chesterfield of minstrelsy; Albert Morse, vocalist; T. V. Mulcahey, the noted sidewalk comedian; Alfred Johnson, monologist, or a "money-hogist"; L. A. Bates, baritone, or "bear-it-in-pain"; Walker and McElroy, song illustrators; Catherine Wadleigh, who is emphatic in pronouncing herself a chanteuse and danseuse, but what the duce, it's only two; Amy Warren, in song and dance, and under the direction and by permission of W. R. Chambers; Inez Lewis, the diminutive Omaha wonder; Lilian McCain, Roy McPherson and Jessie Salyard. Lucinda and Edna Johnson will sing and dance, while a red-hot cake-walking contest will bring out such prize winners as Maggie Clendion Olive Rivers—who will also sing a solo—Cory Jones and Luke Miner, two pickaninies, who are said to be remarkable cake-walkers, and Earnest Sinker, who claims to be able to walk on fogs and asserts that he will tie the walk if he has to cover the length of every railroad in America.
