Phillips fails to Advise the Margins on His Deal. ENORMOUS AMOUNT OF GRAIN UNLOADED Many Million Bushels of Cereals Thrown into the Weakening Markets and Panic of Depression Threatens Everything.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—There was tumult today in the grain pits. For a time a panic of depression threatened everything. All other news was subordinate to the failure of George H. Phillips to advance margins on the wheat and flour contracts.

When, just before the opening of the board, the notice was posted at the request of Phillips that houses having open deals with him close their positions, the market became badly frightened.
