Up a Large Section of Country. DENVER, Jan. 15 .- The Republican to says: Steamboat Springs, Middle Park and other sections of northern Colorado may soon have a railroad. The proposed line s to extend from Boulder to Salt Lake City and will run in as direct a path as possible. Samuel B. Dick of Meadville, Pa., has written to friends in Denver that he has succeeded in raising $14,000,000 of Penn-sylvania capital for the new road and it is expected that actual work on the construction will begin within sixty days. Mr. Dick is interested in the Colorado & Northwestern road from Denver to Boulder and the Boulder and Sait Lake City line will be connected with that road.

The new line will be 450 miles long and will pass through Middle Park, Steamboat Springs, and, striking the Bear river near that town, will follow that stream through the entire length of Routt county, thus opening up a section that has hitherto been remote from railroads. The road is to be standard gauge and it is said that no serious engineering problem will be encountered in laying the track. JAMES M'CREA IS PRESIDENT Stockholders of the Vandalia Line Elect Directors and

President Burt and Chief Engineer Berry of the Union Pacific road returned Wednesday morning from a trip over the lines west of Kansas City, having been absent from headquarters since Sunday hast.

It is stated that the Western Passenger association will soon consider the abolition of party rates on lines west of Chicago.
The objection advanced is that practically only theatrical parties take advantage of these rates, anyway, and the railways are willing that such travelers should pay full fare.

A. L. Lynch, formerly chief clerk of the Union Pacific land department at head-quarters, was in Omaha yesterday morning greeting his failroad friends. Mr. Lynch is now the company's general agent at Oakley, Kan. and has also opened an office in Kansas City as agent for ranch and farm lands in northern, southern and western states.

General Passenger Agent J. R. Buchanan of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Vailey railroad will attend the meeting of the Western Passenger association in Chicago Thursday. The most important matters a announced for consideration are baggage affairs, the establishment of homesekers' rates on new dates and the granting of rates to several different national conventions of lodges.
