Grains Rally from Yesterday's Depression, but Provisions Less.

OATS ACT INDEPENDENT OF CEREALS

Early Offering is Strong, on Light Offerings, and Wet Weather Further Decreases Stocks and Forces Prices Up.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.-All grains rallied to day from yesterday's depression. Early markets were inclined to carry over the wet weather weakness, but covering saved the day for prices and May wheat closed the higher, May corn 1975, up and May outs 1976, higher, Provisions lost 6c to wet weather weakness, but covering saved the day for prices and May what closed the higher. May corn $40 ac up and May onts $40 for higher. Provisiona lost 5c to 12 for higher. May corn $40 for up and May onts $40 for higher. Provisiona lost 5c to 12 for higher country set prices back from yesterday's close at the opening today. The foreign markets were hearly all lower, though not to such a degree as characterized local pits yesterday. A good deal of wheat was for sale early and outside markets started out weak. Shorts were numerous and covered freely. Longs who hegan to unload early were soon bailed out and the stop-loss orders that depressed prices still further ceased shortly after the opening. May started a shade to 15 for high the stop-loss orders that depressed prices still further ceased shortly after the opening. May started a shade to 15 for high the stop-loss orders that this dip was the culmination of wet weather, liquidation prices prevailed. Several professional shorts covered openly and influenced followers. A commission house demand sprang up and May advanced to 79 for. There was another slight dip on profit-taking, but buying set in again and May went to 79 for, closing firm. Sec up, at 75 for high the stop of the three points of 40 cars, against 479 last week and 40 last year. The world's visible supply increased $42,000 bushels. Last year there were over 2,000,000 bushels. Primary receipts were $4,000 bushels. Compared with 487,000 bushels. Though English cables in corn were lower, following yesterday's Chicigo deciline, corn opened with a fair show of strength. Western offerings were light and commission houses had good buying orders, while shorts covered liberally. Wet weather brought fears of a slower country what improved. Rains in Argentine were reported insufficient, and after a small early dip, prices went up readily to 64%c, and closed $400 km length offerings. The wet weather and further decreased stocks were other factors in the strength. At the early low prices almost nothing was o

Condition of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $150,000,000 gold reserve in the division of redemption, shows: Available cash balances, $169,425,188; gold, $96,293,162. Wool Market.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—WOOL—The market here shows little change from recent conditions, the tone being firm, while the demand is moderate. There is no weakness shown in prices and the trade, as a rule, is very confident. The large purchases made during the fall cut into the supply of the most desirable worsted wools, which are not plentiful at present. Fine territory wools of good staple are scarce and such command extreme prices when available. Good lots of fine medium territory are quoted on the scoured basis of 41644c, with fine at 46647c, and staple at 48650c. Fleece wools are firm and some houses keep sold ahead faster than the wools can be opened. The trade as a whole quotes the market firm but quiet. Sales of Ohio washed delaines have been made at 284,023c, with Ohio fleeces at 264,027c, some fancy lots being held at 28c. For No. 1 Ohio fleeces, washed, 264,027c is quoted, with sales at the former price. The market for Australian wools is firm, with offerings moderate.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 21.—WOOL—Firm; methe former price. The market for Australian wools is firm, with offerings moderate.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 21.—WOOL—Firm; mediam grades, 13@17½; ilight fine, 12½@15c; heavy fine, 10@12c; tub washed, 14@24c.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—WOOL—The first series of 1992 auction sales opened today. There was a fairly large attendance of continental. American and home buyers eager to secure supplies to replenish depleted stock. Competition was spirited and general. The offerings numbered 9.299 bales of unusually good quality; new crossbreds sold 5 per cent higher; medium and coarse 10 per cent and Cape of Good Hope and Natal and slipes unchanged to 5 per cent dearer. There were a few lots withdrawn. Americans purchased crossbreds moderately. These are the sales in detail: New South Wales, 1.600 bales; scoured, 48@18, 3d; greasy, 4½@10½d. Queensland, 1.500 bales; scoured, 18.20½ is 6d; greasy, 6½@3d. Victoria, 400 bales; scoured, 18.20½ is 6d; greasy, 4½@9d. West Australia, 500 bales; scoured, 19.20½ is 3d; greasy, 4½@9d. HOGS—There was a heavy ran of hogs here today and as all other markets were quoted lower prices at this point also took a tumble. Hogs sold all the way from 10c to 20c lower than yesterday and the general market was fully 15c lower. Sellers did not like the idea of taking off that much and for that reason it was late before the bulk was out of first hands. Buyers had everything their own way, however, and sellers had to make the concessions asked. Good heavyweight hogs sold largely from $6.25 to $6.40. Medium weights brought mostly from $6.10 to $6.20 and the lighter loads sold from $6.05 down. It was not an active market at any time and it was very late before anything like a clearance was made. The decline was not confined to the lightweights, but was general on the heavy as well as the light hogs and, more than that, the market was uneven. Representative sales:
