DRIVE CAPITAL FROM OMAHA

Unfair Discrimination in Freight Rates and Unjust Methods of Taxation.

OMAHA, Jan. 28.—To the Editor of The Bee: In an editorial in your worthy paper, under date of January 27, you call attention to "a good opening for investors," also pointing out one or two obstacles that prevent such industries being established in our city.

It may be unnecessary, but I shall give you two instances where capital has been turned away because of certain unbusiness-like methods and conditions which exist in Omaha. There are similar cases, I have no doubt, but cite these two because of recent occurrence, and each would have been of value to Omaha.

A practical mill owner and operator, with ample financial support at his command, considered the establishment of a modern four mill in this city. The discrimination in freight rates on grain granted by the railroads in favor of the large shipper, principally on grain shipped to Kansas City and Minneapolis, combined with the unjust system of rebates granted the four merchants of Omaha who handle many carloads during the year, are the reasons why this gentleman did not invest in Omaha property.

Another case occurred during the last year. An eastern man had decided to purchase and erect one or two large buildings in the wholesale district suitable for warehouses or factory. The unjust and abusive enforcement of the tax law in favor of the corporation as practiced in this city served to send this capital to Des Moines and Kansas City.

In neither case did these men seek or desire a bonus. They have capital, but desired to meet fair treatment and honest competition and enjoy the right which should be given to every business man—a just enforcement of the tax law.

La grippe coughs often continue for months and sometimes lead to fatal results after the patient is supposed to have passed the danger point. Foley's Honey and Tar affords positive protection and security from these coughs.

Announcements of the Theaters

Mary Manning's engagement in "Janice Meredith" at the Boyd concludes with a matinee this afternoon and a performance tonight. "The Burgomaster" will be seen at this theater Friday and Saturday matinee and night. The company is the same that has been here early in the season.

One of the biggest bits of the bill at the Orpheum this week is the Hawaiian Glee Club, who, in vaudeville, are a novelty. There are nine of them and they sing their native love songs sweetly and play cleverly on instruments. The little farce, "The Smart Set," as presented by the Four Ottos, is another bit. The fun in this emanates from the usual entanglement of family affairs and moves fast from start to finish.

"Maloney's Wedding Day" closed last night at the Trocadero to good attendance. Commencing with the matinee today, the Twentieth Century Girls fill out the balance of the week, excepting Saturday evening, with an excellent show, including the Dancing Pantomimes, Bonelli in "Bliss and Fun," Hugh Conlet, the Irish lord; Mason and Fisher, the German senators; Bonnie Gaylord, the bewitching serio-comic; and Mooney and Barton, the two easy marks.

Farmer Burns and Peter Carroll, champion of the Pacific coast, are billed to appear at the Trocadero Saturday evening in wrestling exhibition.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Republican Committee Sets Dates For Primaries and Conventions.

CITY CAMPAIGN TO BE UNUSUALLY LONG

All Vacancies on Committee Are Filled and Preparations for Hard Work Are Under Way—Magie City Gossip.

Republicans of South Omaha are preparing for an active campaign in the spring. On Monday night a meeting was held by the city central committee and a number of vacancies were filled by new constituents, the city committee is as follows:

First ward—Bruce McCulloch, A. H. Murdoch, T. B. Scott. Second ward—E. Jones, J. M. Tobias, J. J. Daly.

Third ward—George B. Sherwood, George Johnson, Emerson. Fourth ward—Barney Greer, W. J. Slate, H. C. Murphy.

Fifth ward—T. J. Cooley, James Boyster, John Hopkins. Sixth ward—Harry E. Tagg, George Vanant, M. Mabery.

This committee has set the date for the primaries on March 7 and the convention on March 8.

This will make a longer campaign than usual, but the ruling is by orders of the committee. A. R. Kelly and Frank Koutsky are candidates for the mayoralty nomination on the republican ticket and the fight between these two promises to be decidedly interesting.

In addition to the selection of a mayor, the people of South Omaha will be called upon to vote for a city treasurer, a city clerk, a city attorney, six members of the council and three members of the board of education.

It is understood to be the intention of the present city central committee to use every effort possible to elect a complete list of republican candidates.

A meeting of the committee has been called for Monday night at the Murphy block on Twenty-fourth street.

Opinions Differ Regarding Vaccination

Members of the Board of Education and the Board of Health are at odds. The Board of Health wants an order for compulsory vaccination and the Board of Education does not seem to be inclined to issue such an edict.

According to City Attorney Lambert, the entire power is vested in the council, and there is no provision in the charter for the creation of a Board of Health. The board, Mr. Lambert holds, is merely an administrative board of education and has no real authority aside from the ordinance adopted by the council.

"Should the council order it," said Mr. Lambert, "the town might be quarantined and all the children in the public schools compelled to submit to vaccination. As this has not been done, there is no need for speculation on this subject."

James H. Bulla, president of the Board of Education, called at The Bee office last evening and stated that he would not under any circumstances deny any orders of the council. Mr. Bulla further said that many of the teachers and the pupils in the schools were opposed to being vaccinated for the reason that in eastern cities adulterated vaccine had been used and more deaths resulted from vaccination than from smallpox.

It is expected that there will be another meeting of the two boards within the next few days.

Troop Meets Tonight

The meeting of the South Omaha cavalry troop will be held tonight at the council chamber instead of at Koutsky's hall as previously arranged. From the council chamber the troop will adjourn to the alley building, where the members will be put through the foot drill by the captain of the soldier. About eighty-five members have enlisted in the troop and applications are still coming in.

Captain Holland made arrangements yesterday with the agents of the Riley building, which adjoins the basement floor, for the use of the building as a school. This will save the members of the troop four blocks' walk and will answer all purposes for the present time. Arrangements for heating and lighting the drill hall have been made and the hall will be in good shape tonight for the drill.

Paving O Street

With the expectation that the Union Stock Yards company will some day concede a view of the city hall on the south, for the use of the basement floor, this will save the members of the troop four blocks' walk and will answer all purposes for the present time.

Arrangements for heating and lighting the drill hall have been made and the hall will be in good shape tonight for the drill.

Another Grading Proposition

F. J. Lewis is industriously circulating a petition for the grading of M street. He wants M street graded from Twentieth to Twenty-second streets, but desires to include in the grading district the property from Thirteenth street west to Twenty-fourth street. This proposition will not hold with certain property owners who have already paid one grading tax. City Attorney Lambert asserted yesterday that such a petition if presented to the council would not be legal and would not sign it. It looks now as if the people owning property on M street between Twentieth and Twenty-fourth streets want the street opened they will have to pay the cost of the grading.

Only a Newspaper Dream

Those who are in a position to know say that the story printed in an uptown sheet regarding Syndicate park is entirely without foundation. "The park," said an official of the South Omaha Land Company, "will not be sold for a beer garden, neither will it be used for the purpose of a zoological garden. The land company is making arrangements to improve its property on the south of the park and there is no truth whatever in the sale story."

Second Semester Monday

Examinations in all the departments of the public schools are now in progress and will continue for a day or two. The papers of the pupils will be passed upon Friday and promotions announced then. Commencing Monday the pupils will commence on the second semester of the school term and will be promoted on this date.

Martin Johnson, whose sudden disappearance from his home near Omaha six years ago created considerable excitement among his acquaintances, returned to the city yesterday. The wanderer explains his actions by saying that he had rented a farm in Saunders county and did not want to go when the county for his tenancy to begin came due. He just picked up and went away. He now owns a twenty-acre farm in Greene county, Iowa, near Jefferson.

The Omaha branch of the American Transvaal league met at the Puxton hotel last night and adjourned for a meeting to be held at Washington hall Friday night, to be addressed by Captain Jan Ruge and Captain Otto von Lersberg, both formerly with the Boer army. The program for Friday evening will be announced later.

Root and Charles Root, the bulk of the estate, valued at $4,000 worth of land in Douglas county along Papillon creek. The objection is based on improper influence.

For the Children.

To Keep Their Digestion Perfect Nothing is So Safe and Pleasant as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Thousands of men and women have found Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and most reliable preparation for any form of indigestion or stomach trouble. Thousands of people who are not sick.

Little children who are pale, thin and have no appetite, or do not grow or thrive should use the tablets after eating and will derive great benefit from them.

Mrs. G. H. Crotley, 528 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best of luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them as readily as candy. I have only to say 'tablets' and she drops everything else and runs for them."

A Buffalo mother a short time ago, who despaired of the life of her babe, was so delighted with the results from giving the child these tablets that she went before the notary public of Erie county, N. Y., and made the following affidavit:

Gentlemen—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were recommended to me for my two-months-old baby, which was sick and puny and the doctors said was suffering from indigestion. I took the child to the hospital, but there found no relief. A friend mentioned the Stuart Tablets and I procured a box from my druggist and used only the large sweet lozenges in the box and was delighted to find they were just the thing for my baby. I feel justified in saying that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets saved my child's life.

MRS. W. T. DETHLOPE

Price, 10 Cents Each Section

In 24 Sections, Issued Weekly

TWENTY-FOUR COLORED PLATES

The living truth is seen in these illustrations; not drawings or copies but reproductions from photographs.

School teachers and parents will readily see the value of this. The children obtain an absolutely correct impression instead of looking at fabrics of the imagination or impossible attempts to make exact copies.

In addition to this it will be seen that many of the wild animals were photographed in their native freedom; take for example that of the giraffe which was taken by Lord Delamere in the wilds of Africa. The animal is seen standing by the side of a mimosa tree on the top shoots of which the giraffe habitually feeds. Every child has seen drawings of the giraffe but probably not one in ten knew positively whether its food was animal or vegetable. After seeing this photograph they will not only see the truth but they will never forget it.
