ARMY WARMLY ENDORSED BY RULER

Karagevitch Expresses Pleasure at Commanding Glorious Military Force Which Has Done So Much for Fatherland.

BELGRADE, June 26.—The German emperor has sent King Peter a telegram couched in cordial terms. The Austrian minister today resumed official relations with the Servian government.

King Peter had a reception this morning. Only two foreign diplomats, the Russian and Austrian ministers, attended. The representatives of the three or four other countries apparently were willing to recognize King Peter, but not the Servian cabinet, in which Colonel Michin, one of the chief conspirators, holds a portfolio.

The king's reappointment of the ministry yesterday is regarded as equivalent to a notification that no punishment will be meted out to the assassins of King Alexander and Queen Draga.

Foreign Minister Kalievich has sent a circular to the Servian representatives abroad explaining that King Peter reappointed the cabinet because he considered that he could not do better than entrust the government to the men in whom Parliament had a few days ago expressed its full confidence.

One of the first tasks of the ministry would be to order new elections and the king would then be able to select a second cabinet from the predominant political party.

King Peter today issued the following general order: To My Dear Army: On setting foot on the soil of our dear fatherland, my cradle and the cradle of my ancestors, my heart gives greeting, first to you, the hope of Servia, my dear army.

On ascending the throne of my glorious ancestors I also take supreme command of the world and in the later war for the liberation of Servia afforded many proofs of his military genius. I feel happy that the supreme command has been entrusted to me.

Officers, noncommissioned officers and men, at this solemn moment I greet you with the words, "God be with you, you faithful of the Servian people." I am happy to see you all united around my throne, imbued with fidelity and loyalty to me and to the ideal of the Servian people. I endeavor to maintain this spirit by judging and estimating each and all of you solely on your military merit. You are all equally dear to me. I merely ask that you will devote yourselves heartily to the calling you have chosen and that you will assist me to guide you in the path of honor and glory.

I therefore cry: "Long live the hope of the Servian people, the army!"

LONDON, June 26.—King Edward's birthday was officially celebrated today in London and at all the home naval and military stations.

All the government buildings were decorated with flags, salutes were fired, the war ships at all the ports dressed ship and the troops were reviewed.

Queen Alexandra, the princess of Wales, the duchess of Albany, the duke and duchess of Fife, the duchess of Connaught, Princess Henry of Battenberg and their children and the khedive of Egypt occupied seats in the central window of the Horse Guards' building, while the other vantage points were occupied by smartly dressed women, cabinet ministers, members of the House of Lords and House of Commons and others.

Many Americans present, including the staff of the United States embassy and the American rifle team, who were under the guidance of Major General Lord Chelymore.

Chamberlain is Honored.

The Constitutional club today entertained Colonel Secretary Chamberlain at luncheon and presented him with an address enclosed in a casket, in recognition of his services to the nation.

The present economic position of the country demanded the most careful consideration.

Mr. Chamberlain received a remarkable ovation when he rose to reply. His hosts sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and then cheered Mr. Chamberlain, who was among the most popular of the British statesmen.

The secretary opened his remarks with repudiating the suggestions of personal competition between himself and Mr. Balfour, remarking that he could not conceive an occurrence that could shake the political association and friendship existing between them.

He desired on the eve of a great controversy to publicly state that he believed the leadership of Mr. Balfour to be the stock of the unionist party. If the unionist alliance was dissolved or weakened, the "Home Rule" matter, which was only a "scotch and not killed," would again come to the front.

FORTUNES FOR FOREIGNERS

Glowing Promises Made by a Gold Mining Company in New York.

EMORY SMITH MAKES REPLY

Declares Charges All Examined and Decision Rendered Years Ago.

NEW YORK, June 26.—An investigation has been ordered by the authorities at Washington of an alleged gold mining concern with offices in this city.

For three months past, it is said, the concern has been advertising freely in all the foreign newspapers. One of the advertisements, translated from a Greek paper, published here, reads:

Have you five dollars? Do you wish to make them ten within a month, one hundred a year and one thousand within a short time?

The board of managers named in the advertisement is composed of men asserted to be filling high public positions, such as "senator of the state of Ohio," "comptroller of the United States treasury," "treasurer of the United States." There also appears the name of a member asserted to have been "formerly secretary of the treasury."

Some of the names given, however, is known to all in public life in this country. It is alleged that the company has disposed of considerable stock to foreigners and the affair will be thoroughly investigated by agents of the Treasury department.

The man whose name appears as president of the mining company declares that the advertisements are "brimful of typographical errors" and that the person named as "comptroller of the treasury" is in reality a New York custom house official.

KRAFT KILLED INSTANTLY

Runaway Accident on Douglas Street Bridge Proves Fatal to Farmer.

A man, who is supposed to be Julius Kraft of Council Bluffs, from documents found in his pockets, met death in a runaway which occurred on the Douglas street bridge here yesterday afternoon.

When he drove onto the west end of the bridge his team took fright at cars which came up behind him, going east. A car passing in the opposite direction at almost the same time added to the fright of the horses and made them unmanageable. They started to run, striking the railing, swerved to the south side of the bridge and back again. When the north rail was reached the second time Kraft's buggy collided with a team going in the opposite direction, throwing him out.
