

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

North Sixteenth Street Ordered Repaired with Ground Stone and Gravel.

LIGHTS TO BE PLACED AT DEEP HOLES

General Contract for Patching Asphalt Streets Awarded Nebraska Bitulithic Company—Bids for Two Engine Houses Wanted.

Sixteenth street from Douglas to Nicholson is to be repaired by filling in the holes with ground stone and a gravel topping at a cost of not to exceed $300 and road lights will meanwhile be placed at the worst holes.

O'Brien, at the regular council meeting last night introduced a resolution providing for the repairing and back one for the lighting. Both were passed by 7 to 1 votes, Nicholson voting "no" and Huntington being absent. The resolutions were for the double purpose of putting the street in a less dangerous and fairly passable condition, and as an official notice to property owners on the street that the present council will not sanction any further repaving of it with asphalt at the expense of the city at large.

A resolution was introduced appointing Francis A. Bragan and Howard H. Bridgeway special attorneys for the city in the railroad tax litigation. It was the same, except for the addition of the name of Mr. Bridgeway, as the resolution introduced last week, the fee to be $5,000 and necessary expenses, and an additional fee of $5,000 in case the city is successful in maintaining its right to tax railroad property on the same basis as all other property in the city.

Asphalt Repair Contract.

The contract for repairing asphalt paved streets was awarded to the Nebraska Bitulithic company, and it was directed to give a bond of $10,000. The vote on it was: Ayes, Beck, Dyball, Hoye, Nicholson, O'Brien, Zimmerman, 8; nays, Evans, Schroeder, 2. Bids for constructing the engine house at Eleventh and Jackson streets will be advertised by the Advisory board. It will also advertise for competitive plans for the new engine house on Twenty-seventh street, near Leavenworth, the building to cost not over $15,000.

These appointments by the mayor were unanimously confirmed: John Donahoe, engineer city hall; James S. England, engineer city hall; B. W. Christie, fireman city hall; Robert W. Innes, fireman and watchman city hall; Frank E. Gates, Fred C. Anthony, Jerry McManis, elevator conductors city hall; John G. Pegg, Albert P. Mayne, Emil Wahlstrom, J. Epstein, janitors city hall.

Hydrant Order Vetoed.

A veto of the ordinance passed last week providing for the installation of hydrants was unanimously sustained. It was based on the fact that the water fund is already exhausted, the last levy not being sufficient to pay for hydrants already located for the current year. It also called attention to the failure of the Douglas county delegation in the last legislature to have the water levy limit increased, though 100 more hydrants are needed. In the opinion of the city attorney until the ownership of the waterworks is settled the city cannot legally incur any additional obligation.

Assistant City Engineer Craig, was granted a two weeks' leave of absence.

The Board of Public Works was authorized to purchase for $450 two Austin road graders.

The bill of the Omaha Water company for $6,000, for the first six months of 1903, was transmitted to the council by the comptroller, marked "No funds to pay." Referred to finance and claims committee.

Council Makes Proposition.

W. J. Connell in a communication proposed to complete the ordinance of the city, the compensation to be fixed after a conference. Mr. Connell said that the completion made by him in 1902 had stood the test of the courts and the scrutiny of attorneys and city officials for ten years without an error being discovered; that a new completion is greatly needed by the city, but to be of use the work must be well and intelligently done; that his experience with the knowledge of past mistakes led him to fit him in a special manner for the work. Referred.

Custodian Bugh was directed to advertise for bids for labor and material for repairing the roof and the tile floors of the city hall, and to report such bids to the public property and buildings committee.

Watering troughs were ordered at Twenty-fourth and Hickory and on Leavenworth fifty feet east of Seventh.

The rules for "the health and general welfare of the city" adopted by the advisory board six months ago, were passed in the form of an ordinance, the sections relating to garbage, and which it was feared by some might mean another monopoly garbage contract, first being eliminated. Ordinances were also passed prohibiting the distribution of free samples of medicines or other articles which might be dangerous to health or life, and for the opening of Marcy street from Thirtieth to Park avenue.

SACRED HEART LAWN SOCIAL

Four Thousand People Attend the Fete and Enjoy the Program.

Fully 4,000 people attended the annual lawn social given by the women of the Sacred Heart church at the corner of Twenty-third and Binney streets last night. The grounds were brilliantly lighted with electric lights and adorned with flags. A large stage was erected in the northeast corner of the grounds, the background of which was a large screen for stereoscopic purposes. Lemonade, ice cream and fortune tellers' booths were arranged about the grounds, and seats were provided for the accommodation of visitors.

The program, which was carried out on the platform, consisted of an opening overture by Lavitt's orchestra, a children's chorus by the juvenile choir of the church, under the direction of Miss Metcalf, the song "Little Black Me," by the children's chorus, illustrated on the screen by Metcalf's stereoscopic in colors, all of which were very prettily rendered. D. J. Hurley then gave a recitation and then came more stereoscopic pictures. A vocal solo by A. J. Webb, the baritone, followed, and the "Clifton Miller of the Blues" quartet sang a tenor solo, "Fond Heart, Farewell," with piano accompaniment by Miss Gentleman. Then came a very pretty number with stereoscopic illustrations, "Hello, Central, Give Me Heaven," by the little Misses Annie Morrow and Carrie Connors of the juvenile chorus, with Miss Metcalf at piano accompanist.

This closed the formal program. Then followed the drawing of the prizes. Each person was handed a number on entering the grounds. The man holding the fortunate number at the drawing was to be awarded a $5 umbrella and the woman holding the lucky number was to be awarded a beautiful parlor clock. The winning number for men was 439 and for women 731.

WINNER OF BEE-PRIZE WEDS

Miss Pearl Sunderland is the Bride of Her Most Zealous Supporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Rothery departed from this city last night for St. Louis. The wedding occurred on June 31 and the bride was Miss Pearl Sunderland. And now for the story. In the year 1902 The Bee offered to young working women of the city a chance for a summer vacation trip to the ones who could gather a winning number of votes on the coupons printed daily. Miss Sunderland, who was an employee in the office of the Post-Register, was one of those who entered the contest. Fred Rothery was also in the contest as a supporter of Miss Sunderland with tremendous spirit. The race was close and exciting among several prizes were won and various smaller prizes were hung up from time to time to add interest. Miss Sunderland proved to be the popular one, thanks, perhaps, to her zealous support, and was rewarded with her vacation trip and also with a gold ring.

Mr. Rothery was transferred to St. Louis and eventually became private secretary to Superintendent G. C. Faine. Miss Sunderland remained in the Omaha office. But the band of gold had been a prophetic agent. The wedding occurred last Wednesday at the Episcopal church before the friends of the happy couple. The bride was a daughter of Louis A. Sunderland, the engineer who was killed last year in Kansas, and resided with her mother at 1336 North Twenty-first street.

STREET CAR UPSETS A WAGON

Driver, Thrown to Pavement, Sustains Bruises About Breast and Shoulders.

A street car coming down the Dodge street hill shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon bumped into one of Jardine's wagons that was crossing the track at Seventeenth street. The wagon, loaded with three big cable drums and other material, was being pushed up the hill by a driver, who was thrown to the pavement and bruising him about the breast and shoulders. The horses attached to the wagon escaped injury, nor was the wagon greatly damaged. The street car driver was not hurt, but the collision was otherwise damaged. There were but few passengers in the car and they all escaped injury, as did the motorman and conductor. Traffic was delayed on the line about an hour by the accident. The driver of the wagon stated that the car had plenty of time to stop up or stop.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Coroner's Jury Holds Peter Urvik for Killing of Thomas Leabina.

SALOON KEEPER NOW LOCKED IN JAIL

Testimony at Inquest Shows That Urvik Struck Leabina on Head with Base Ball Bat—Magical City Gossip.

Peter Urvik was held to be responsible for the death of Thomas Leabina by the coroner's jury yesterday. The jury listened to testimony from 6 o'clock in the forenoon until 8:30 in the evening, and returned a verdict that Urvik was responsible. As soon as the verdict was made known to Chief Briggs he sent Captain Troutman to Urvik's saloon, Twenty-seventh and Y streets and placed him under arrest. At the city jail Urvik protested about being locked up on such a hot night with no show of being able to get out on bonds, but the remonstrance did not avail.

Frank Gurness, Oscar Gray, Paul Wisberg, Robert Oliver and Otto Schoultz, who were arrested last night in connection with the Leabina case, are still held by the police and will not be released until the county attorney so directs.

Almost all the testimony at the afternoon session of the coroner's jury pointed to the fact that Urvik had struck Leabina on the head with a base ball bat as the blow was showered by the saloon keeper were general no one who participated in the fight could testify that Urvik struck the blow with intent to kill and this fact the jury took into consideration when making up its verdict. The last line of the verdict reads that from the testimony adduced the blow which killed Leabina was intended for another man.

Today the county attorney will most likely file a complaint against Urvik and then will bring the matter to court for the waiving of an examination in the police court.

Two dozen witnesses were examined and the session was most trying to the attorneys and stenographers, as there was very little ventilation in the room, on account of the large crowd present.

Special Council Meeting.

A called meeting of the city council was held Tuesday for the purpose of listening to the reading of the overlap bond ordinance for the second time. This ordinance is now ready for the third reading. Members of the council say the mayor will be requested to call a meeting for Wednesday or Thursday for the third reading and final passage. As soon as the ordinance has been signed by the mayor and printed the requisite number of times the attention of bond buyers will be called. With this issue it is understood there will be no difficulty whatever in securing the securities and it is hoped that within thirty days the deal for the sale will be closed and the city may commence on August 1 without any overlap. One or two eastern bond buyers are now here looking over the issue with the expectation of offering bids when the time comes.

Where an inclination to disobey the orders of the Fire and Police board is evident complaints will be filed and arrests are sure to follow.

No Dope Fiends Allowed.

Since the order has gone forth in Omaha regarding the removal from the city of those addicted to the use of cocaine and other drugs a number of the fiends have showed up in South Omaha. Yesterday an officer brought a number of these fiends to the city hall, where they were arrested and the man to be locked up. He saw to it that the fiend was taken to the city limits and turned loose, with orders not to return. Commenting on this action the chief said that he would not permit any more of these fiends to stop in the city. Neither would he put them in jail, to be fed or cared for at the expense of the county. His remedy is to escort the fiend to the city limits and turn him loose, with the injunction not to show up here again.

KENYON ON CANAL PROJECT

Says the Whole Matter is Up to Capitalists for Investigation.

NO DEFINITE LINE OF ACTION PLANNED

Mr. Kenyon Tells Eastern Men that Promoters Here Will Be Satisfied if Investigation of Scheme is Made.

W. J. C. Kenyon, manager of the South Omaha Stock Yards company, returned Monday evening from New York, where he has been for several days, with an effort to raise money for the construction of a power canal. He said:

"The matter is really nothing new to me in the matter, as the question is now before the eastern people, who have been requested to put their money in the enterprise. The fact is that when I became actively interested in the project I wanted to know exactly what the eastern people would do. After some work here we succeeded in bringing a number of the people together and smoothing over matters of difference and then we went to New York.

"I told them the representatives of the probable investors that I wanted to know exactly what they would do and what, under existing circumstances, we could rely upon.

"The power canal project had been carried to New York so often and in so many different ways, by so many different people, that there were people there who had become so tired of it as we have been of hearing it discussed without tangible results, so when I went there it was with the determination to make the matter final so far as I am concerned.

"What the promoters want, I told them that we would be satisfied with their opinion this time, and requested them to send me in whom they had confidence to inspect all of the schemes which they had proposed, but if they decided to content to see that any carried through, and if those people decide that none of them are feasible because the amount of the investment would be too great for the opinion as final so far as we are concerned, and would make no effort to carry any of them out along the present lines, at least.

"That is where the matter stands. No one can be expected to buy a thing without looking at it, and, of course, these investors will make a close inspection. We may use one of the several surveys made or we may use none of them. It all depends upon the report, but at the present time it is up to the people in the east."

WORK ON NEW POWER HOUSE

Street Railway Company Nearly Ready to Let Contract for the Concrete.

For the new power house of the street railway company which is to be built at the east end of Jackson street the concrete contract may be let this week. For a long time the company has been attempting to go ahead with the work of excavation for the foundations, but on account of the unusual rainfall the ground on which the building is to stand has been so much under water that little could be done. The work of digging has now progressed so that a little more than three-fourths of the earth necessary has been removed. Of the piling for the foundations about one-half of the work has been done. The company is now re-laying rails by Council Bluffs and will next complete the Florence line, finishing this work in probably two weeks.

ROBBED AT INOPPORTUNE TIME

Man Comes to Omaha to Get Married and Loses Part of His Capital.

J. V. Wilds, who came from St. Paul Monday to get married, is out a $30 bill at a time, so he told the police, when $30 bills are good things to have. Henry Pierce, colored, has been arrested and charged with the theft. Wilds went to a Turkish bath Monday afternoon to while away the last few hours of his bachelorhood and secured a room in a compartment there. When he went to get it later one $30 bill was missing. He at once called the arrest of Pierce, because he said Pierce was his attendant and was the only person in the place who could have secured it.

Pierce rooms at the home of a white woman at 22 North Thirtieth street, and the latter asked the detectives to suppress news of the alleged theft because she said she was a church member, a club member and generally prominent in social affairs. While she was talking with the detectives about the affair she had one of her roomers or someone else, so the officers said, secure a lawyer to defend Pierce.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everybody's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found who will do it. Newbro's Herpicide does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that Herpicide means a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that Newbro's Herpicide promptly destroys, after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send for stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., special agents.
