Bertha waists are among the notable features of the season and are becoming to many figures. This graceful one includes the handkerchief points that are so much in style and can be made either with or without the foundation lining. The model is made from white lawn with trimming, yoke and cuffs of Valenciennes lace, but all the season's materials are equally appropriate. Wool and slik can be used over the foundation and all the pretty cotton and linen materials unimed. Or, again, the lining can be used and cut away beneath the yoke, so giving a transparent effect. The waist consists of the fitted lining, the full fronts and backs, the yoke and the
