PLANS UNIQUE CELEBRATION OF FOURTH

Supreme Court Unholds Omaha Police Judge in Fining Watters for Distributing "Unfair" Cards Near Restaurants.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., July 8 -(Special Telegram.)-Doubtless W. J. Bryan is disposed institute an investigation of the Weather ureau for the shabby treatment it has secorded him in his effort to welcome his friends at his splendid new home, Fairview. First he selected two evenings in May for the reception, inviting about 600 friends to attend on the two evenings. Bad weather prompted a postponement and later it was announced that the functions would be held June 8 and 9. As those dates apweather was going to be intolerable and the receptions were declared off indefinitely.

During the current week it was announced that in view of the presence of Hon. Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, Lewis F. Post and Dr. Howard S. Taylor of Chicago at Fairview to take part in the celebration of the Fourth, the reception would be crowded into a single evening and all who had been invited for the doubleheaded affairs previously planned were bidden to come enmasse tonight.

The weather was ideal up to the hour for the guests to assemble, when there was a on some time ago for buying the place, but volume of litigation with which associaterrific thunderstorm, accompanied by a gave it up because a more central loca- tions of this kind have flooded the country, deluge. En route the purchased. guests passed the grove and big tent in which tomorrow's speaking is to occur, and the latter served as a retreat for numerous parties that left the cars in the midst of the rain.

The big new mansion was embellished with flags and an abundance of flowers and potted plants. An orchestra on the third floor played during the evening. In the library punch was served by a corps and in the elaborate dining cake was served by a half a dozen young women, led by Miss Ruth Bryan. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, Mr. Johnson, Dr. Taylor and Mr. Post. There was an absence of formality. Many evening costumes were worn by both women and men, but they were not an essential. The entire house was thrown open to inspection and elicited much extravagant admiration. The reception continued from 8:30 until 10 o'clock. The souvenirs were tiny silken flag badges.

Celebration of the Fourth.

Hon. Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, with Howard S. Taylor of Chicago and Lewis F. Post, editor of The Public, guests of honor at the Bryan celebration of the Fourth of July tomorrow, arrived today, and tonight were presented to several hundred Lincoln people at a reception at the Bryan home, Fairview.

Mr. Bryan has arranged for a celebration tomorrow that is unique and unusual, but what he insists, however, is simply the Jefferson club of Fairview, of which he is president, but just who the other Board of Pharmacy that when the short known.

Big delegations from out in the state are expected, and an immense crowd is looked for. Several thousand seats have been provided and there will be a big tent to house the speakers and auditors. The celebration will last the greater part of the day.

The program begins at 10 o'clock in the morning with a band concert. At II o'clock ex-State Treasurer Wolfe and J. W. Crist will speak on "Pioneer Reminiscences," and at 12 o'clock luncheon will be served by the club. At 1 o'clock the speechmaking begins again. Mr. Bryan will preside and introduce each speaker. Mayor Johnson, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Post will all speak. There will be music, both vocal and instrumental, and the colonel has left the latchstring hanging entirely out, with no "Keep off the grass" signs visible. Want the Soldier Boys.

The state militia appears to be in demand for Fourth of July celebrations. Adjutant eneral Culver has issued an order relating to their movements tomorrow, as follows: The following companies of the Nebraska National Guard, having made application to leave their home stations to participate in the celebration of the Fourth of July company commanders are hereby granted permission to move their commands as follows, without expense to the state:

Edward Rosewater of The Omaha Bee and Congressman Burkett will speak.

Tonner Makes a Mistake.

W. H. Tonner of Lynch has played a joke upon himself by refusing to accept an appointment for a one-year term as secretary of the State Board of Pharmacy because he had been strongly recommended for the long term. Rehearing is Refused,

The court has overruled a motion for rehearing in the case of J. C. Cleland and other members of the Nebraska Lumber Dealers' association against George E. Anderson. The former judgment is adhered to. Commissioner Pound, who wrote the former opinion, has written one on the motion for a rehearing. Anderson was a lumberman who alleged that the state association had damaged his business by certain methods. He had a cause of action for injury to his business against some sever joint tort-feasors. He brought an action against three of them. Pending the action he became bankrupt and listed his interest therein among his assets. In consequence it was sold, along with other property, and the purchaser made a settlement with the defendants. Afterward he brought the present action against the other four tortfeasors, who set up the settlement in satisfaction in bar. The question is whether the interest of the bankrupt in the pending action passed to the trustee and thence to the purchaser, so as to enable the latter to make a settlement. The court says:

Where the state stautes make a distinction between a piaintiff's interests in a nending action and his cause of setion before suit brought making the one assignable in cases where the other is not the interest of a bankrupt in a pending action, which he misrit sell and assign, and of which his creditors might obtain the benefit on administration of his estate, is to be held "property" within the perview of subdivision 5, section lax, national bankruptcy act, rather than a "right of action" under subdivision 4.

Walters' Fines Stand. The supreme court late this afternoon handed down an opinion sustaining the finding and sentence of the police court in imposing $2 fines and costs upon Bid Anderson and St Johnson, striking waiters, for distributing unfair cards, printed circulars or handbills upon the streets, and the action of the district court in denying them a writ of habeas corpus.
