Dr. Mazzoni had an examination made by pope's pleura on last Tuesday to ascertain whether it contained any specific microbe. Some doubt had arisen as to whether the eriginal attack of pneumonia had been pro-voked by some agency, such for instance,

IMPROVERS OF OMAHA VIEW Interest in Club's Work Not to Be Lost by Any Summer Vacation.

The meeting of the Omaha View Improvement club was well attended last evening notwithstanding the extreme warm weather. Vice President V. P. Fobes presided in the absence of President Callahan. The special committee appointed at the last meeting to confer with the Prospect Hill Improvement club regarding park matters reported that owing to the fact that the Prospect Hill club had discontinued its meetings during the summer months the committee from that club had not yet been appointed, but would be by the time of the Omaha View club's next meeting and it would then be able to make a report. The proposition is to secure if possible the ten acres north of Prospect Hill cemetery to Lake street and twenty acres west of Thirty-third street from Lake to Blondo street, also a strip about 100 feet wide leading into the proposed park on the east side of the cemetery.

The proposition to hold bi-monthly meetings was discouraged, as it was thought that by holding weekly meetings the interest in the purposes of the club would be continual and would indicate an earnestness in its affairs. The project of holding a social gathering in the near future was discussed and decided upon, the detalls of which will be arranged at a later neeting. norning, the first event on the program being a memorial service in honor of the late Field Secretary Clarence E. Eberman, which was held at 6 o'clock in the Bouleard United Presbyterian church. Following this, at $130, came meetings in arlous churches to discuss missionars opics. At the First Congregational church Rev. H. P. Peach of New York City discoursed on "China," Rev. E. E. Chivers, D. D., of New York City was the principal peaker at the home missions meeting in ect being "Leavening the Nation."

Mr. Chivers said in part: Mr. Chivers said in part:

Among the questions of absorbing interest to our political and religious world is the negro problem. The only difference is in the point of view. The question must reach a climax soon, for there are 10,00,000 negroes in America and they are rapidly increasing. Of still more importance is the Mormon question. Mormonism is not dying out, as many believe. On the contrary, statistics show an increase of 184,000 in the last decade.

A third question is the old one of what shall we do with the Indians. If missions and churches were established throughout their country the Indians could be made useful members of society, instead of encumbrances on the nation.

Chinese Should Oust Missions

Mr. Beach, who was a missionary it China for six years, declared that foreign syndicates had secured every available railroad concession or business enterprise it China from the government and the French and other foreign operators had brought about industrial revolution in that country. "If the Chinese had the spirit of the men '76 there would not be a foreigner or a nissionary left in China," said Mr. Beach. He paid a high tribute to the work of the Catholics, who had accomplished much good for Christianity in China, and gave an interesting account of the struggles of Robert Morrison, China's Protestant pioneer.
