

ROURKES RALLY AT THE BAT

Fall a Game Out in Ninth Inning by Van Halstead.

HALLA OF KANSAS CITY WEAKENS AT END

Game Marked by Stinging on Both Sides Is Finally Won After Being Twice Lost by Home Team.

How easy! It was all dust in the eyes of the Kawites yesterday afternoon, when the Rourkeites got together and began doing things, and finished by a score of 10 to 9 with two men still to be put out. And Pa's boys won just because they went and took scores when they needed them. Everybody had his batting ways and his ball went round the field like a cat with the flea. Shafstall had one bad inning and Halla had two, which made it all the harder for the poor lad.

After the day before it looked like easy money to kid Nichols, and he put Halla in the box to practice with. But just to be sure of not making any mistake, they took a large blood fall out of Shafstall right at the jump and then settled back. Ketcham got to the bat and scratched, but was promptly forced out at second by Waldron. Streib singled and Jacobs came to the plate. Two times he swung at the ball and then he hit it. It went over the fence like a hot iron. Weaken was erased at first and Kahl singled and came in on Webster's double, and that was all for that inning. In the third both teams drew a score.

In the sixth "Dusty" Miller came to the bat. He singled and the crowd rose and cheered him. Shugart followed suit and things looked lovely. Welch singled too, and Halla was getting worried, but that was only the start. Jack Thomas got into the spirit of the thing and swatted out another single. Then Hickey got busy and drove a nice one down the third base line and just out of reach of the saddy Kahl. It was good for three runs and tied the score. With Shafstall's single it was one to the good and so it remained for awhile.

Kid Nichols' band evaded it up in the eighth by swatting out a few, and the ninth opened up excitedly. Jacobs went out with a thud and then Shafstall weakened. They fell on him and three runs resulted. It looked as if it was all over for Omaha. But it wasn't. Genins drew a base on four wide ones. The crowd cheered and Halla looked worried. Miller got punctured with one of Mr. Halla's twisters, but Umpire McCarthy called him back and he drew a base, too. Things were looking up and Halla began to think of home and the children, but it was no use. He couldn't get them over the pan. Shugart walked and there were three on base. Then Welch and Thomas singled. That brought in three runs. The score was tied and Genins drew a base. Shafstall was next up and dubbed one over to Kahl. Kahl gathered it up like a man in his sleep and threw it wide to home, while Welch skinned in with the winning run.

Today the teams will try it all over again. The summary:

Just Like the Big Leaguers. ATLANTIC, Ia., July 14.—(Special Telegram)—Creston won again today against Atlantic's crippled-up team, and tied the local for first place in the average of the southwestern league. Up to the end of the ninth inning the score stood 4 ties-4 to 4. Mills of Creston went to bat and, on a strike being called on him, cursed the umpire, who fined him $5. Mills talked back and was put on the bench. Bonham took up the fun for Mills and was also fined $5. Creston's pitcher, Miller, was also fined $5. Creston's pitcher, Miller, was also fined $5.
