Johnson and Zimmerman Both Claim Vic-

Johnson Desires Radical Resolutions While Opponent Would Present Conservative Statement of Party Bellets.

COLUMBUS. O., Aug. 24.-The contest between Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland and John L. Zimmerman of Springfield for the democratic gubernatorial nomination, although within twenty-four hours of decisive action, is tonight as much dishood. Insergent bands have occupied the puted as ever. At the headquarters of each candidate the most confident claims are given out. Following the withdrawal of have been burned by Bashi Bazouks, while Bookwalter as the Johnson candidate for the insurgents attacked two Turkish posts in the vicinity of the same town and killed a raid on the Johnson ranks, claiming that the instructions for Johnson for governor applied only to the balloting on Wednesday and not to the selection tomorrow of members of the committee on credentials, resolutions, etc. The Johnson men met this charge by saying it was a confession of weakness and insisted that the instructions applied to the selection of members of the new state central committee and the entire organization of the convention. It is still conceded that the one securing a majority of the committee on credentials tomorrow afternoon will on the following day be nominated for governor, as there are 145 seats out of the 690 contested and neither candidate can win without having all of his delegates seated.

The Zimmerman men are also making desperate afforts to make a break in the and throughout Bulgaria are busily plan- Johnson runks because of the endorsement ning to help their brethren across the of John H. ernor. For weeks there has been a contest of unusual intensity in the eighty-eight counties between Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland and John L. Zimmerman of Springfield, the two candidates for the gubernatorial nomination, to secure delegates.

Both come here claiming a majority of the 600 delegates. Both base their claims on securing the 145 delegates whose seats are contested. These contests will be settled tomorrow. The preliminary agitation is over the organization of the convention. It is conceded that control of the committee on credentials means control of everything else., including the new state entral committee, that centrols the organization for the coming presidential year, as well as the committees on resolutions. rules and order of business and permanent rgunization, all of which are of ortance at the present time in the con test between the Bryan men and the conservatives for supremany. The withdrawal of John W. Bookwalter as a candidate for genatorial endorsement to succeed Hanna today advances Zimmerman's candidacy. Zimmerman and Bookwalter both reside at Springfield and it was claimed that the Johnson men had started the Bookwalter movement so as to affect Zimmerman's interests, especially if the order of business could have been fixed so that the endorsement for senator would have come before the nomination of the state ticket.

More Interest Than for Years. COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 21.-The close contest between Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland and John L. Zimmerman of Springfield for the gubernatorial nemination has caused more interest in the democratic state convention this week than for many years. While both claim a majority of the 690 delegates, the result depends on the settlement of cuntests involving 143 delegates. These contests are expected to prevent two congressional districts at Cincinnati and at Cleveland from participating in the selection of members of the committees so that the committee on credentials may have only eighteen members voting on the first contest that is passed on. With the custom of taking the contests up in alphabetical order, that of Cuyahoga county would come first and it would likely be decided in favor of Johnson so that there would be nineteen voting on the contests from Gallia, Hamilton and other counties. The preliminary contests extend to all parts of the organisation of the convention. Johnson says he could not make the race on a Zimmerman platform and Zimmerman says he could not run on a Johnson platform, so both are seeking a majority of the committee on resolutions.

Bookwalter Formally Withdraws. John W. Bookwaiter, recognised as the Johnson candidate for United States sentor, tonight gave out the following: Much pleased and gratified as I am at the mention of my name in connection with the nomination of senator this week, and much as I appreciate the honor and the compilment which my friends seek to pay me. I feel it but a matter of justice to my fellow-democrats of the state and to my-self to say that I am not a candidate for such nomination and my name will not be presented to the convention for its consideration. Mayor Johnson and his manager, Charles

P. Salen of Cleveland, Judge W. T. Durbin and W. F. Finley of Kenton, Congressman H. C. Garber of Greenville and others were in conference here today with Bookwalter. but the latter would not reconsider his withdrawal. Bookwalter was accompanied by Charles W. Constantine of Springfield, and they return home tomorrow.

The Johnson men say they still favor enatorial endorsement and that it will be "free-for-all" race. Among those mentioned for senatorial endorsement are: Melville E. Ingalis, Charles W. Baker and Judson Harmon of Cincinnati, John H. Clarke and L. A. Russell of Cleveland, Allen W. Thurman, James Kilbourne and ex-Congressman Lentz of Columbus, exongressman J. A. McMahon of Dayton, ex-Congressman J. A. Norton of Tiffin, ex-Congressman A. J. Warner of Marietta, Hon. Charles N. Haskell of Ottawa and Walter Ritchie of Lima.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 23.-At the close of a long conference in Columbus today between Thomas L. Johnson and Charles Solen of Cleveland, and John W. Bookwalter of this city, the latter issued a signed statement withdrawing from the race for endorsement for United States senator before the democratic state convention Wednesday.

ROCKLAND, Me., Aug. N .- All the battleships, cruisers and other vessels of the combined North Atlantic fleet, except the collier Marcellus, had left the harbor tonight for the attack on Portland. The preparations for departure began early in the morning and at 3 p. m. the signals were set on the flagship Kearsarge for the ships to assume their positions for sailing. Besides the Maine naval reserve there arrived in town today the judges and military referees who will watch the movements, demonstrations, etc. Rear Admiral Wise, with Yankee, Panther PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 24.-Fort Preble is considered the key to the whole situation. If the enemy can capture Fort Preble or even the knoll just to the westward of it the other forts might have to capitulate. But if the enemy captures all of the other forts Fort Preble cannot be captured except by a heavy land attack. Fort Preble, still holding the key to the situation, can drive an enemy from all other forts accordthe fortifications probably will be a brilliant affair. Probably the entire flee under Rear Admiral Barker will participate. The ships will approach the fortifications and as they come in range all the guns on the shore batteries will open fire. After the first round only one gun of each class will continue the fire with full blank cartridges, while the others will use caps. The ships will reply at first with a round from all the guns that can be brought to bear. After that fire will be continued by one gun from each class. Later the fleet will make an attempt at landing a large force of men on the shore. These attacks must be made between midnight Tuesday and Friday.

At sunset tonight the coast patrol system of the defending forces was put in operation for the first time since the official notification of the departure of the naval forces for Portland. The patrol consists of detachments from the various companies of the First and Second regiments of the state militia and stretches from Fort Preble to Bowery Beach, some nine or ten miles. Without this precaution the naval forces could land small boats without number in the many thickly wooded coves along this vulnerable part of the coast. A heavy artillery company has been assigned the wireless telegraph station taken yesterday by Major Welch.

Mayse Coes grew weary of battling with an unsympathetic world last night and decided to leave. She took two ounces of potassium permangenate and when Police Burgeon Schleler arrived on the scene, at Ti4 North Sixteenth street, the drug had almost accomplished its deadly work. By the vigorous use of the stomach pump and an antidote the girl was jerked back from the other shore. When questioned she said she had failed this time, but would take a dose that would do the business next time. She is 30 years old and has been living with Mrs. R. James at the number given. The doctor was called at 10:30 o'clock and it required about two hours to bring her out of it. The landlady at the place said the girl had been drinking all day and she supposed she had become despondent. A tew minutes after she took the dose she told the landlady she had taken the poison and was in hopes there would be no hitch in the proceedings. The empty bottle was found in the room.
