Typical Florida Pioneer is Offered to the Board of Ak-Sar-Ben long you must visit the Ak-Sar-Ben carnival. This wonder will, if possible, be secured for the exhibition and nearly everyval committee, has set his heart on getting this exhibit, which is about the one thing necessary to the carnival. This letter will explain the case of the alligator:

NEW ORLEANS, I.a., Aug. 28.—Hon. D.
H. Christie, Omaha, Neb.: Dear Sir—I understand ithat you are connected with the Ak-Sar-Ben carnival which takes place October I to 10. If so, please let me know if it is possible for me to get in on a concession, to exhibit an alligator 15 feet long. This is possibly the largest ever known to exist and would be a large addition to the amusement feature of your carnival.

The alligator was captured in the swamps of southern Florida and is pronounced by biologists to be a bipartile, although no one has been able to name that portion of the reptile which seems so foreign to the alligator family. This alligator was captured with two smaller ones, supposed to be its young, but since its capture one has died, I would add that your people need not fear, as we have a heavy wood and steel cage in sections. explain the case of the alligator:

Rindly let me hear from you as soon as possible. Address.

SEASONABLE FASHIONS

12 to 18 years, made with high or low neck, long or elbow sleeves. Young girls are always charming in waists that give a broad effect at the shoulders. This one follows the prevailing style in that particular and can be made either high or low neck, with long or elbow sleeves, a fact which renders it much to be desired. The model is made of figured Nils green louisine silk, with the yoke of lace and a bertha of chiffon velours edged with lace, but the design sults all the fabrics of the season and the bertha can be made to match the waist or of contrasting material,

The waist consists of the fitted lining. which is faced to form the yoke, the full front and backs and is closed invisibly at the center back. The circular bertha is arranged over the walst, outlining the yoka. The sleeves are shirred to fit the arms snugly just below the shoulders and can be gathered into pointed cuffs at the wrists or cut off at elbow length, as shown in the

The quantity of material required for the medfunt size is 4 yards 21 inches wide, 3 yards 27 inches wide or 2 yards 44 inches wide, with % yard II inches wide for bertha and cuffs. % yard 18 inches wide for yoke and collar and 3% yards of applique to trim as illustrated.

The waist pattern $512 is out in sixes for girls of 12, 14 and 16 years of age.

For the accommodation of The Boo readers these patterns, which usually retail a nominal price, 10 cents, which covers all expense. In order to get a pattern enclose 10 cents, give number and name of pattern.
