As the combined lodges of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of South Omaha will hold a carnival this week and dedi-cate the new temple at Twenty-Oth and will hold a carnival this week and dealcate the new temple at Twenty-fifth and M streets, I hereby request the citizens of South Omnha and the business men in particular to decorate their homes and places of business during carnival week.
This carnival means the dedication of the largest lodge building and public auditorium in the city. All of the money for the construction of this temple has been subscribed by the 1,400 members of the Workmen lodges in the city of South Omnha and it is fitting that some public recognition should be taken of the enterprise shown by this order.
All of the grand lodge officers of the state and hundreds of visiting members will be present at the dedicatory ceremonies and on this date especially it is requested that the colors of the order be displayed. The colors are red, blue and purple.
I earnestly hope that the citizens of South Omnha will comply with this request. Very respectfully, FRANK KOUTSKY, Mayor.
